

ALLIED FORCES IN TUNISIA MOVING IN FOR KILL

GERMAN ATTACKS HURLED BACK BY RUSSIAN TROOPS

At Least Two Companies And Battalion Of Enemy
'Annihilated'

NAZIS SEEK TO OVERCOME
MIGHTY RUSSIAN VICTORY

Axis Assaults In Stalingrad
Apparently Are Greatly Diminished

MOSCOW, Sunday, Nov. 22.—(P)—German assaults intended to better the Nazi position in the Caucasus after the smashing Russian victory before Ordzhonikidze have been consistently hurled back by Russian units and at least two companies and a battalion of the enemy have been annihilated or dispersed, the Russians reported early today.

The Soviet midnight communique announced that in the Mordok area (in the same general sector where the Germans were beaten) one Soviet unit in one day repelled three enemy attacks, "annihilating some two companies of enemy infantry."

On that cold Caucasus front, the communique added, "Soviet artillery and mortar fire dispersed and partly annihilated about a battalion of German infantry."

Fighting continued in the sector southeast of Nalchik, where the Germans apparently took their worst beating in the action before Ordzhonikidze.

One Red guard unit "wiped out more than 200 enemy officers and men" in that area, the communique said, and two enemy tanks were disabled and four burned out.

"Six German trucks were destroyed as well as six heavy machine guns."

"Northeast of Tsupse on one sector our troops pressed the enemy back somewhat and captured several fortified positions," the communique said, reporting on the fighting in the Black sea area of the western Caucasus.

The German attacks in Stalingrad appeared to have dwindled considerably from the Russian war report.

"In the factory district of Stalingrad our troops repelled attacks of small enemy groups," the communique said. "In other sectors our artillery engaged the enemy in duels. During the day 200 of the enemy troops were killed, and six guns and eight mortars were destroyed."

Exchanges of fire on the central and northwestern fronts also were reported.

Russian reports yesterday said the German command appeared to be reforming its shattered lines south-east of Nalchik in the Caucasus for a new blow at the Russians.

Nazi infantry, supported by tanks and Rumanian Alpine troops struck

(Continued on Fifteenth Page)

FIERY RAID ON TURIN IS MADE

Between 200 And 300 British Planes Participate In Attack

LONDON, Nov. 21.—(P)—A fiery raid on Turin, the R. A. F.'s heaviest so far in its growing offensive against Italy, spread such a blanket of fire over the northern arsenal city Friday night that the raiders had difficulty finding clear spaces for targets, the British disclosed today.

This assault was comparable in size to an "average" raid on Germany, usually carried out by between 200 and 300 planes, well-informed sources believed.

After giving Turin, the home of Italy's Fiat, Caproni bomber and other war works, only two nights of respite from their devastating two-ton bombs, a heavy R. A. F. group returned in good weather and indicative of the punishment leveled on the city, one bomber group alone dropped 54 two-ton bombs and 110,000 pounds of incendiaries in less than an hour.

This was an average of one two-ton bomb a minute and one 30-pound incendiary a second.

So thorough was the job, the air ministry said, that the R. A. F. bomb-

YOUTH IS ACCUSED IN MOTHER'S DEATH

YORK, Pa., Nov. 21.—(P)—William Jackson, Jr., 17, was charged tonight with the murder of his mother, Mrs. Mary Ellen Jackson, 41-year-old mother of nine children, York County District Attorney W. Burg Anstine announced.

Mrs. Jackson's mutilated body, the head, arms and legs severed with an ax, was found early today near her home in rural Warrington township, 15 miles north of here.

Anstine said the boy admitted he killed his mother and dismembered her body following an argument Friday morning.

MacArthur's Men Smash At Japs At Buna

SON OF TIGER

Robert Kenneth Chennault, sixth son of General Claire Chennault to join the United States armed services, stands with hands raised as he was sworn into the navy at Jackson, Miss. The 17-year-old son of the chief of the Flying Tigers, who made history fighting for China, was accepted by the navy with the consent of his mother who lives at Waterproof, La. The Chennault family's war score now stands: the general, himself, still in China and now leading U. S. flying forces; three sons in the U. S. air forces, one in the navy, one in a defense training school—and now Robert in the navy.

LEHMAN TO HEAD FOREIGN RELIEF

Placed In Charge Of Supplying Food In Occupied Countries

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(P)—President Roosevelt today placed Governor Herbert H. Lehman of New York in charge of distributing American food, clothing and medicine to the people of lands occupied by troops of the United Nations.

Indicating that the president wishes an early start made on the work, the White House announced that Lehman will resign his gubernatorial post about December 3. His term would normally expire on January 1. He did not seek reelection.

The appointment implements an announcement made by the White House a week ago that no one in territory occupied by American troops would be allowed to go hungry if it was humanly possible to supply food.

The same announcement told of an order that not only food and clothing, but arms and ammunition as well, be supplied to the people of North Africa. The whole project was considered a have a powerful propaganda

GERMANY'S WINTER CLOTHES LACKING

MOSCOW, Nov. 21.—(P)—Some of the German army's winter equipment has appeared on the eastern front, and though it is better than last winter's when the Nazis were caught completely unprepared, it still is insufficient to cope with the rigors of the Russian climate, front line reports said today.

A dispatch to Red Star, army newspaper, said some German troops in the Leningrad sector had winter uniforms, but even though the bitterest cold and heaviest snow have not yet arrived many divisions thus far have received no winter outfits.

Winter clothes which were issued to one German division were said to consist of wicker wrappings for the feet, cotton jackets and cotton caps. The padded caps were given only to sentries, Red Star said, other troops being provided only with brown woolen cloths to wrap around their heads.

EXECUTION DATE SET
BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 21.—(P)—Governor Sam Jones today signed a death warrant fixing December 3 as date for electrocution of William Hamilton, negro, convicted in Caddo parish in October of criminal attack of a 9-year-old girl.

'GOOD KNOCK' IS GIVEN TO ENEMY U-BOAT MENACE

Cunningham Reports 'Definite Slackening' In The Mediterranean

EXPECTS BIG SAVING WHEN ROUTE OPENED TO VESSELS

Admiral Expresses Doubt
French Fleet Will Ever
Join Allies

ALLIED FORCE HEADQUARTERS
IN NORTH AFRICA, Nov. 21.—(P)—During the past 48 hours there has been a "definite slackening" of Axis U-boat activity in the western Mediterranean, Admiral Sir Andrew Cunningham, commander of the naval forces in the North African operations, declared today.

He said that the royal navy and the R. A. F. had given the German and Italian submarines a "good knock."

In his first press conference since becoming naval commander of the Allied North African operations, the British admiral said he thought there had been about 50 Axis U-boats operating in the Mediterranean and in the Atlantic just off Gibraltar.

Discussing the complete operation, he said that "in the approaching stage, the losses of merchant and navy ships were considerably below what I expected and I don't think the losses of ships were out of proportion to the results obtained."

The admiral said he regarded the estimate of two million tons of merchant shipping to be saved if and when the Mediterranean route was reopened as "conservative."

If North Africa is cleared of Axis troops, the Mediterranean sea will be opened to fast convoys which could get by the Sardinia-Sicily bottleneck, but some ships will have to continue around the Cape of Good Hope, he said.

The royal navy ships cooperating with troops entering Tunisia are being harassed by the Luftwaffe, but damages have been minor, Admiral Cunningham declared.

The admiral expressed doubt that the French fleet at Toulon would ever join the Allies.

The commander of Allied naval forces praised the Solomon islands victory by the United States fleet as "a very fine show" and said that as

(Continued on Fifteenth Page)

SAYS RATIONING TO HIT REVENUE

Jones Says Plan Will Lead To Collapse Of Whole Fiscal Structure

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 21.—(P)—Governor Sam Jones said tonight that including Louisiana in nationwide gasoline rationing would leave the state "far short of revenues necessary to meet our bond requirements, and the services of our state agencies will be completely demoralized."

Jones explained the importance of petroleum mining and sale revenues to the state fiscal condition in a letter addressed to Representative F. Edward Hebert, Democrat-Louisiana, of New Orleans in answer to a query from Hebert on rationing effect to Louisiana.

"It is my carefully considered opinion," said Governor Jones, consistent opponent of gas rationing for oil producing states, "that the effect would be to completely demoralize the financial structure of our state and would cripple such vital services as afforded by our highway system, our health- and hospital services, including trade schools, all of which are vital to Louisiana's contribution to the war effort."

"We have five major cantonments

BRITAIN IS GIVEN 15 RAID-FREE DAYS

LONDON, Nov. 21.—(P)—Britain rounded out tonight 15 raid-free days and nights—the longest respite since the big night attacks were halted in May, 1941.

The last bombing was on Nov. 6 when a single raid was over the east Anglian coast by day. The last night raid and London's last alert were the night of October 31-November 1.

For the 15th straight day the ministry of home security said tonight: "During daylight there was nothing to report."

ALLIES DRIVE TO SEIZE BIZERTE

American and British troops have clashed with Axis forces attempting to hold Tunisia (1) in a blow aimed at driving the Nazis out of strategic Bizerte and Tunis. Attacks by Allied planes based in Algeria and on Malta supplemented the land drive. The British Eighth army drove ahead in Libya (2), and General Rommel's Axis units were scattered in flight between Tobruk and El Agheila. The R. A. F. again smashed at Genoa (3). French resistance on Corsica brought a stage of siege at Ajaccio. Meanwhile, the Vichy French have established a huge garrison at Toulon, the big French naval base.

British Strive To Deliver Knockout To Rommel's Army

MYRL E. ROWLAND
KILLED IN CRASH

West Monroe Man's Automobile Collides With Rear
Of Bus

WINNSBORO, La., Nov. 21.—(Special)—Myrl E. Rowland, West Monroe man, was instantly killed near Baskin late this afternoon when an automobile he was driving crashed into the rear of a school bus, according to a report by Dr. William Strahan, assistant Franklin parish coroner who conducted an investigation of the case.

Dr. Strahan said the school bus and Rowland were both driving north toward Baskin on the Monroe-Winnsboro road when the accident occurred about 6:30 o'clock. Several school children on the bus, which was taking the children to a school play, suffered minor injuries and bruises, and one child was said to have received a broken leg.

Rowland, a former Brown Paper mill employee, who had been doing contracting work and whose address was given as 305 Jonesboro road, West Monroe, died of internal injuries, according to Dr. Strahan, who said the victim of the crash had also suffered a compound fracture of the right thigh.

Rowland was traveling alone, according to reports. His machine did not turn over after hitting the bus.

Mr. Rowland is survived by his wife and several children.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed late last night, but arrangements are under the direction of Mulhearn Funeral home.

Good Fellows Called On To Assist Poor Families

November 29, 1942.

Just four days less than a calendar month and Christmas will be with us. And what is Christmas? Of course all know the answer. But do we know what it means to spend a Christmas without something decent to eat, with hardly enough clothes on our backs, without reason to say "Merry Christmas?"

That's just the situation in many homes in Monroe and West Monroe. That's just the way these homes will find Christmas unless we come to their assistance.

The News-Star-World sponsors what we call the Good Fellows fund. Every cent that goes into this fund is used to alleviate the hard life of some family. It means to hundreds a more cheerful holiday, at least one day in the year when they will find peace and contentment without an ounce of worry.

When you donate to the Good Fellows fund here's what happens:

A member of the family writes to the News-Star-World, outlining the circumstances of the group. This letter is turned over to the Salvation Army. Members of the latter investigate, determine if the case is worthy and report to the Good Fellows.

Then on Christmas eve trucks loaded with clothing, food and toys roll through the streets of the Twin Cities and adjacent territory. And Santa Claus makes his visit.

It's hard for the layman to realize just how much joy can be thrown into a household with a few simple articles of food, clothing and toys. If you could see the happiness that a visit by the Good Fellows truck creates, you'd realize how much your

CHEST CAMPAIGN EXCEEDS QUOTA

Final Report By Chairman
Thompson Sees $5,000
Over Goal

The 1942-43 campaign of the Community Chest exceeded its goal by approximately $5,000, it was announced Saturday by Wood H. Thompson, chairman of the drive. The quota was $27,500 and a total of $31,977.53 was announced as having been received Saturday morning.

Mr. Thompson gave full credit to his associates and workers for the success of the campaign. His statement follows:

"As chairman of the 1942-1943 drive for funds of the Twin City Community Chest I am happy to announce that the goal of $27,500 has been reached and passed.

The amount actually received to date, in cash and pledges, is $31,977.53. Of this amount the citizenship of West Monroe contributed $3,633.94 and $28,344.49 was contributed by the citizenship of Monroe.

That the goal set was reached and passed under present conditions clearly proves that no job is too big

MOST PUNISHING LAND BLOW MAY BE DEALT ENEMY

Allied Air Force Reenters
Struggle As Weather
Improves

U. S. TROOPS MAKE GAINS IN GUADALCANAL FIGHTING

Advance Western Flank Into Territory Formerly Held
By Japs

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN AUSTRALIA, Sunday, Nov. 22.—(P)—Fierce fighting raged for the second day at Buna, New Guinea northeast port, between General Douglas MacArthur's advancing troops and Japanese forces with their backs to the sea, the high command reported today.

The Allied air force reentered the struggle after being checkmated by bad weather yesterday, when the heavy fighting opened for the decision which might well be the most punishing land blow the Japs have suffered.

Japanese naval forces, still willing to risk punishment despite this week's loss of a light cruiser and a destroyer which got under the bombsights of Allied planes, were reported again maneuvering off the coast.

Yesterday's communique told of the first appearance of Jap units in force in some time but today's reported the Allied fliers back in action, continuously bombing and strafing enemy positions and shooting down two enemy fighters.

The heavy fighting continued all along the short strip of coast between Gona and Buna.

Allied bombers returned again last night to Kavieng, on New Ireland to the north of New Guinea, raiding the airbase.

AMERICANS ADVANCE ON GUADALCANAL ISLAND

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(P)—The navy announced today that American troops on Guadalcanal island in the Solomons had advanced their western flank well into territory formerly held by the Japanese.

A communique said that the advance, made by army and marine forces, had carried the western peg of the American line to a point about five miles west of the vital airfield on Guadalcanal and about one mile

COFFEE GOES ON RESTRICTED LIST

Sales Halted For One Week
Preliminary To Start Of Rationing

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(P)—Coffee took its place with the sugar tonight on the list of foods restricted by the law while rationing officials studied the status of meat and butter.

As coffee sales were halted for one week preliminary to the start of a cup-a-day rationing, a spokesman for the office of price administration said that butter and meat supplies were in "pretty bad shape" although butter was not scarce enough yet to warrant immediate rationing. Meat is to be rationed about January 15 when the new "universal books" are expected.

Meanwhile officials proceeded with plans to ration gasoline throughout the country December 1 as a tire conservation measure despite fresh clamor in congress against the program. A house committee questioned William M. Jeffers, rubber administrator, during the day.

For easterners, tonight brought a zero hour in the garage as well as in the kitchen. The value of the basic "A" gasoline ration coupon was cut from four gallons to three in 16 east coast states—a squeeze that took most of the "family driving" out of the gasoline tank. After tonight, too, motorists were required to write their license numbers on the backs of the gasoline coupons to prevent abuses.

Forty per cent of the country's entire storage supply of butter was frozen for military and lend-lease

CUT IN TELEPHONE CHARGES IS SOUGHT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(P)—The government called today for a second reduction in long distance telephone charges.

American Telephone and Telegraph company, the nation's largest corporation, was ordered by the federal communications commission to show why it should not substantially reduce toll rates and other charges in the face of commission figures indicating excess earnings of $4,000,000 to $62,000,000 this year. A hearing was fixed for December 16.

Declaring that the earnings which it held excessive were reflected heavily in both the cost of the war and living costs, Chairman James Lawrence Fly of the commission said that "the government must make every effort to keep down its bill for the war and to help the consumer keep down his expenses."

In addition to defending its charges, A. T. & T. was ordered to show why an immediate reduction in rates pending conclusion of the investigation should not be made.

NORTH CAMP POLK DEDICATION HELD

CAMP POLK, La., Nov. 21.—(P)—North Camp Polk Friday was dedicated officially to the "lucky seventh" armored division commanded by General Lindsay M. Silverter before an assembly of 16,000 officers, enlisted men and guests.

A modern army post addition to the nation's biggest armored force camp, the new site received the 7th armored group less than five months after work on the cantonment began.

It will be occupied by one of the most representative combat units in the world as the 7th comprises soldiers from 48 states, the district of Columbia, the territory of Hawaii, Puerto Rico and 34 foreign countries.

Air Power Shortage Believed Adding To Fuehrer's Troubles

Interpretation By
Kirke L. Simpson
(Wide World War Analyst)

This weekend marks an axis war anniversary Herr Hitler has not forgotten but will not celebrate. It was November 22, 1941, that his armed forces rolled into Rostov-on-Don. That was the high-water mark of his Russian campaign of that year.

A week later his troops rolled out of Rostov again, in retreat. What he has since recorded as his darkest hour of the war was upon him with the Russian winter.

Within recent weeks Hitler has recapitulated events of the dread winter of '41 to tell his people "it cannot happen again." Yet by every available yardstick this November 22 dawned more ominously for his made-in-Berlin Axis. Disaster is stalking it not in Russia alone, but in Africa, at sea, in China and in the far Pacific.

A full-powered Allied invasion threat actually is knocking thunderously at its European southern postern gate from North Africa. Before this winter ends, its counterparts may be hammering also from the west across the English channel and the North sea. In the Pacific, Japanese sea power, the vital weapon on that front, is being bled white by American victories.

And in unconquered and unconquerable Russia itself a storm is also brewing. Still at bay short of its objectives in the Volga-Don corridor and in the Caucasus as another winter closes in, Hitler must know that the deadliest Allied attack of all is in the making. Red armies injured to winter, of proven skill and unrivaled courage, are massing for attack, not defense. And no delaying war hazard need be spanned from the east as from the south or the west.

Yet there are two other factors in the war situation at this moment

FRENCH ASSAULT IS MADE AGAINST GERMAN DUGOUTS

British-American Reports Indicate Fighting Growing In Intensity

AXIS ARMY CUT OFF FROM ESCAPE OVER LAND ROUTE

Enemy Arc Defending Tunis And Bizerte Fast Growing Smaller

LONDON, Sunday, Nov. 22.—(P)—A French assault on German dugouts in the heavy crests and Nazi defense area around Tunis and Bizerte, with the result still undetermined, and the capture by Allied advance units of an important cross-roads in the Tunis area were reported early today from North Africa, where powerful Allied forces are moving rapidly to smash the beleaguered Axis Tunisian troops.

Reports from Allied force headquarters indicated that the fighting is hourly growing in intensity, with the Germans and Italians bracing themselves for the imminent fight against the main body of British, American and French troops.

A steady stream of men and material was moving eastward as far west as Casablanca against the Germans and Italians, cut off from all retreat except by sea or air.

The Allied main forces were progressing methodically for the kill, despite intense air attacks and violent air battles.

Reports from the Allied headquarters indicated that the British, American and French spearheads had seized the cross-roads and driven the Germans back. The gain in this struggle included a bridge.

Then the Germans dug in and the reports said the French immediately and violently assaulted their positions. The German defense are around Bizerte, with its three main airfields, and Tunis, with its important military airbase, was believed to run somewhere east of Tabarca on the north coast, to Hammamet, southeast of Tunis. At the nearest points the Allied advance forces have been reported within 30 miles of both Bizerte and Tunis.

It was reported that the Germans have patrols constantly on the watch behind their contracting lines, apparently on guard against a French uprising in that sector.

Pro-Allied French forces were said to be in control of Gabes, on the eastern Tunis coast, thus effectively blocking any connection between the Tunisian Axis armies and Marshal Rommel's harried soldiers in Libya.

That the Nazis' hope of establishing a rear door of retreat for Marshal

'MINUTE WOMEN' TO URGE SALES

Will Stimulate Store Keepers
To Sell War Stamps,
Bonds

This nation is at war. In order to defeat our enemies we must have tanks and ships, and armies of well-trained men. This equipment and training of men costs money—a great deal of money—and it will cost more. Some of the billions needed must come from taxation. The rest will come in the form of a loan to the government, much of it from the people. Men can build the planes, tanks and ships. Women can best help through their organizations and as individuals, by helping to save the money that will pay for these things. Women behind the men behind the guns!

All principal retail dealers up and down the business section of the Twin Cities, the banks and postoffice, will all fall in line this week for "Minute Women at War" week which opens today and ends on Saturday, November 28. Many of the stores will have special booths, and in others clerks will urge the purchase of war stamps and bonds at the behest of local women's organizations who are out to make a record through the stores in the sale of wartime securities. The women will not sell the stamps and bonds themselves but will be the

ENGINE OF M. K. T. TRAIN IS BURNED

WACO, Tex., Nov. 21.—(P)—The engine of a Missouri-Kansas-Texas freight train loaded with high test gasoline derailed and burned five miles south of here this afternoon, killing the engineer and fireman.

The engineer was J. F. Crizzard of Smithville and the fireman was Keith C. Phelps of San Antonio.

The train was headed south. None of the cars carrying high test gasoline was derailed or caught fire.

THE WEATHER

LOUISIANA: Colder Sunday, occasional rains in east and south portions during the morning, fresh winds.

MONROE: Maximum 77.5; minimum 69.8.

Lake Providence

Mrs. Raymond John and young son, Raymond Howard, and John Rolfe Howard, freshman at Northeast Junior college, were week-end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Howard.

Dick DuBose, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. DuBose, and a senior at L. S. U., has been initiated into Alpha Zeta, honorary agricultural fraternity. Membership is based on grades, ability and leadership.

Miss Ruth Englehorn, Louisiana home service field representative of the American National Red Cross, visited the East Carroll parish chapter on Tuesday and was the guest of Mrs. John J. Nelson, chairman at a luncheon at Hotel Maben with Mrs. W. S. Maguire, Miss Jamie Haller and Mrs. H. T. Van Fossen.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Packard, with Miss Helen Nelson accompanying them, were over from Mobile to visit Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Guenard. Miss Nelson visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Nelson.

Mrs. F. D. Bull, former resident of Lake Providence, now residing in Alexandria, spent the past week here as the guest of Mrs. W. S. Maguire.

Only Six More Shopping Days Until Gas Rationing

Take Advantage of Our Convenient Credit—Buy Now for Xmas

A Gift of Something to Wear is:

- *Pretty
- *Practical
- *Patriotic
- *Pleasing

Something luxurious to wear always flatters a woman... and what's more it's a gift that keeps on giving, because she'll be enjoying it a long time after the tinsel is down from the Christmas tree. It's practical, too, and patriotic, because you're giving usable gifts when you give clothes.

This Christmas Invest in Furs

Our Specialty

Expensive Looking Furs at Budget Prices

For duration wear, a fur coat is long-run economy, because one gives you style and warmth for a long, long time. Choose a smart looking coat or jacket at Silverstein's—it's backed by our reputation for quality furs—and you can pay for it by one of our convenient credit plans if you choose. The ideal gift—silver, Norwegian, red or blue fox, muskrat, fitch, beaver, lynx—and all popular furs.

$69 to $495

Free Storage For One Year

Free Repairs For One Year

Christmas Credit

Buy Now . . . Pay Next Year

CHARGE ACCOUNT

Government regulation of credit does not prevent you from enjoying all the convenience of a charge account. Purchases made now are not due until January 10. If you do not have a charge account with us, let us arrange one for you. It's the simplest way to Christmas-shop!

BUDGET ACCOUNT

On this popular convenient payment plan you pay a third down at the time of purchase, and we will arrange monthly payments to take care of the balance. You can have up to 12 months to pay.

LAY-AWAY

A modest deposit will hold any item you choose in our lay-away.

Daytime Frocks

Little dresses that are big hits for all your daytime and evening activities. The new column-line styles will make you look like a million and you can choose from pastels, blacks, high winter colors, in crepes or wools.

$10<sup>95</sup> to $29<sup>50</sup>

At Silverstein's . . .

Dozens of Gift Ideas

To Make Your Shopping Easier

SHOP EARLY!

You'll Be Glad in December That You Bought in November

SILVERSTEIN'S

342-344 DeSiard

North Louisiana's Largest and Finest Women's Apparel Store

MOTOR LICENSES FOR SALE SOON

Legislature Makes More Generous Terms For Coming Year

The 1943 motor vehicle licenses will go on sale December 1, state-wide, the local offices being at 212 North Second street, it was announced Saturday. The license for passenger automobiles and motorcycles will be $3. Owner's use trucks, and trucks used for hauling forest products with a load-carrying axle weighing 3,500 pounds or less will cost $10. Farm use trucks and trailers with a load-carrying weight of 6,000 pounds or less will cost $3. House trailer license will be $10. If one has a light trailer to be hauled behind his car to carry, for instance, luggage or a boat, if the gross weight does not exceed 500 pounds, he can license it for $3. Chauffeur cards will cost $3 as formerly.

All motor vehicles, whether automobiles or trucks, must have registration certificates attached to or with the vehicle at all times.

If an inspecting trooper finds that you do not have this certificate, it will be assumed that it is lost and he is authorized to impose a charge of $1 for a duplicate according to law.

In the case of passenger automobiles, school buses and commercial cars, owners will keep their 1942 license plates on their car and will receive a typed windshield sticker, bearing the same number as the old plate. In the case of motorcycles, trucks and trailers, these will be designated by one metal plate attached to the rear of the vehicle.

Rufus W. Fontenot, collector of revenue, states that the 1942 legislature has given a new law for 1943 which is more generous as to weight limitations on trucks and regulations on passenger car licenses than that enjoyed by any other southern state.

Heretofore, truck owners have purchased plates on the basis of the number of net tons of payload they carried. Under the new law, they will purchase plates based on the weight of each load-carrying axle or axles when the truck or trailer is fully loaded. For instance, if a truck has only one load-carrying axle, which is the rear axle; likewise, a truck and semi-trailer unit has two load-carrying axles, the rear axle of the pulling truck and the semi-trailer axle. For this combination, one would purchase a license for the truck according to the gross weight of the rear axle when the trailer is loaded and another license plate for the semi-trailer based on the gross weight of the semi-trailer axle when loaded. The weight of the front axle of the truck is not considered. The most accurate way to figure what license will be required is to put a known pay-load on the truck and then weigh the rear axle; or in case of a truck and semi-trailer, weigh the rear axle of the truck and semi-axle when fully loaded. No axle can be licensed for more than 18,000 pounds gross weight.

Mr. Fontenot invites the cooperation of all auto sales agencies and service stations in acquainting and aiding the public in obtaining their licenses and the local office will furnish application forms on request.

He urges that lives be protected by safe driving and observance of the lowered speed regulation which will be effective for the duration.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Holtzclaw, Choudrant, announce the birth of a daughter, Martha June, November 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Johnson, West Monroe, are parents of a son, Charles Edward, born November 18 at the Wright-Bendall clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jordan, Calhoun, announce the birth of a son, Raymond Arthur, November 14.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Butler, West Monroe, announce the birth of a son, November 17 at the Wright-Bendall clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Rock, Eros, are parents of a son, Curtis Jackson, born November 18.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Shanas are parents of a daughter, Charlene Freda, born November 15.

If the nation's 27 million motorists cut their 1943 driving to the figure recommended—3,000 miles—they will save more than 17 million tires, according to estimates.

WAS GRANDMA RIGHT ABOUT THESE COLD FACTS

For colds' coughing, to reduce sniffing nasal congestion, chest muscle soreness, pioneer Grandma put faith in home medicated mutton suet and hot flannel. Today mothers use Penetro—the excellent modern medication with the mutton suet base. Penetro never fails to function 2 ways. Aromatic vapors go inside with every breath—outside it comforts like a warming, soothing plaster. Rubbed on chest and throat, it works fast. Try Penetro and agree "Grandma had the right idea." 25c, double supply 35c.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

By E. M. STEEN

For 18 years you have been accustomed to receive the best of food service from Jitney Jungle Stores, operating under the direction of Mr. E. M. Steen.

For seven years Jitney Jungle Stores has operated a super grocery and market at Fourth and Stubbs streets. This store has carried a large and complete stock of quality merchandise and has served residents of the north side as well as others who came from many blocks away to find the quality and service that had always been exemplified by that store.

Monday you won't find this Jitney Jungle Store open. You won't be able to have the advantage of doing your grocery shopping in this complete, sanitary, efficient store that has served you so long and so faithfully on the north side.

Saturday by court order which directed the seizure of the stock and fixtures, the Fourth and Stubbs store was closed upon complaint of Martin and Weiner, owners of the building. It was alleged that Jitney Jungle was a month in arrears of their rent. For years Jitney Jungle had negotiated with Mr. Martin and their relationship with the owners had been most pleasant. Approximately three years ago, Mr. Martin died and business affairs necessarily had to be transacted with Mr. Weiner.

The closure came at approximately 2 p.m., during the height of the Saturday grocery shopping hour. Many customers were not admitted to do their shopping and the doors locked.

Jitney Jungle regrets the inconvenience which such action caused its loyal customers. Jitney Jungle believes such action was entirely uncalled for, and resents the action of Martin and Weiner. Jitney Jungle regrets its inability to serve its customers Saturday afternoon.

During the time Jitney Jungle has served the people of Monroe, West Monroe and the entire community, Jitney Jungle has employed an average of 75 persons. Jitney Jungle has many faithful and loyal employees, whose service the management values highly, who will be thrown out of employment. This, too, Jitney Jungle sincerely regrets; that these persons, through no fault of Jitney Jungle, should suffer because of an arbitrary action.

Mr. E. M. Steen, the owner of Jitney Jungle Stores, has applied for enlistment in the army. If he is accepted, he will be out of business for the duration. If he is not accepted, he will be back to serve personally his friends and customers within 60 days.

Meanwhile, Jitney Jungle and Mr. Steen wish to take this means of thanking their many friends for their loyal patronage at the Fourth and Stubbs store.

Customers of Jitney Jungle will find the same friendly service at their store at Ouachita and Jackson streets, where Store No. 7 will be operated under the direction of Mr. Steen, unless he is in the service, or by one of his efficient associates.

JITNEY JUNGLE

"SAVE A NICKEL ON A QUARTER"

NOVEMBER 22, 1942

PLAN TRAINING IN HIGH SCHOOLS

Military Program To Be Used
In State's Bigger
Institutions

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Plans will be initiated tomorrow at a statewide conference of American Legion officials to begin a program of military training for high school boys in major high schools in the state. State Commander James Perry Cole announced today in extending greetings in opening sessions.

Leaders of the legion and its auxiliary convened to complete wartime plans and Major Cole said military training for school boys will be a principal point in discussions.

Governor Sam Jones, former state commander who addressed the group

Could Cleopatra Drink a Pearl?

An intriguing story of Cleopatra is the one where an admirer praised the beauty of her pearls, whereupon she dropped one into a glass of wine and drank it. She would hardly have done this had she suffered from indigestion. Those who are distressed with stomach or ulcer pains, indigestion, gas pains, heartburn, burning sensation, flat and other conditions caused by excess acid should try Uda. Get a 25c box of Uda Tablets from your druggist. First dose must continue or return box to us and get DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK.—Ad.

BOY WANTED

To Learn Printing Trade

Must be over 16 years of age and studious, apply Second Floor, News-Star—World, Monday.

VERDICT GIVEN FOR INSURANCE COMPANY

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21.—(AP)—The United States fifth circuit court of appeals today affirmed the northern Texas district court which directed a verdict for the defendant Utilities Insurance company in a suit in which R. S. Lesage of Dallas county, Texas, asked enforcement of indemnity against the insurers as liability in an automobile accident.

The circuit court held that notice was not communicated to the insurers within the time fixed by the policy. The court dismissed with without merit an appeal by W. L. Nix from the north Texas district from revocation of his probation and sentencing to serve a reduced term of two years in prison. Nix was originally sentenced June 21, 1937 to pay a $10,000 fine and given a ten years suspended sentence. Probation was revoked April 23, 1942.

MRS. RINGO RETURNS FROM TRIP TO CHICAGO

Mrs. Cassyle B. Ringo returned Saturday from Chicago where she attended several demonstrations pertaining to new beauty products and new applications brought about by recent changes and restrictions by the War Production board.

One of the demonstrations was that of a new permanent wave method which uses no essential war materials, requires no heat and is endorsed by dermatologists as harmless. It is known as the "cold wave" and its reaction is less than 30 minutes, it was said.

It is thought that the new method will replace those that require the use of metals and rubber as well as certain chemicals needed by the war industries.

If all U. S. drivers of passenger autos in 1940 had cut down their driving by 10 percent, they would have saved 160,000 years of round-the-clock travel time at a rate of 35 miles an hour.

GAS RATIONING HARD IN BRITAIN

No One Risks Pleasure Driving
If He Wants To Avoid Jail

EDITOR'S NOTE: With gasoline rationing due to become effective throughout the United States on December 1, here is a picture of wartime motoring in England. Pleasure driving in Britain means a risk of a jail term.

By Edward Robinson
LONDON, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Britain's use of gasoline is so rigidly restricted nowadays that no one risks pleasure driving if he wants to keep out of jail.

There are two gasoline vouchers—"E" (essential), granted for journeys strictly connected with the war effort, and "S" (semi-essential), granted "only to meet a genuine need as distinct from convenience."

Very few try to monkey with the "E" vouchers. One man who used a bulldozer to take himself a lunch caught a $20 fine. Another, summoned for a driving offense, went to court in his lorry. He got fined $8 for "misusing gasoline by driving through the city to answer the summons."

Getting an "S" voucher isn't easy. An applicant has to disclose (1) Alternative means of transport and why they cannot be used; (2) The destination and distance of the required journey; (3) The reason for undertaking them; and (4) Distance between home and the nearest bus or railway station.

Satisfactory answers to all these questions do not guarantee a voucher. The idea is to help in shopping in rural areas, journeys to and from hospitals and similar institutions, taking the aged and infirm to places of worship, transporting school-children long distances, etcetera.

Drivers using "E" and "S" vouchers can offer lifts to workpeople, but only along their regular routes. Deviation means a police summons, and it is surprising how quick they are to jump you.

For security reasons, officials refuse to disclose the number of cars on Britain's roads today, but in the fall, just after the withdrawal of the basic gasoline ration, an automobile association official estimated less than a million private cars were operating in the country, compared with 2,500,000 registrations before the war.

Military and official cars have naturally increased in number with the extension of the war effort, but high-powered cars are in disfavor. Most of them have been changed for flyovers, with a speed restriction of 40 m. p. h.

All road transport is subjected to a rigorous check. Hitchhikes in service autos are a thing of the past. Special police patrols keep watch on civilian cars at shopping centers and other key points, check cars outside cinemas, theaters, boxing arenas and other spots of entertainment and sport, restaurants and hotels.

Motorcycles have replaced official cars wherever possible, and their use by civilians has been little restricted until this month. On November 1 the basic gasoline ration was withdrawn, and motorcyclists are now using up what's left of their allowance. After December 1, those on the road will be on warwork only, or the police will want to know why.

On the transport side, many economies have been effected. Truck fleets have been pooled and zoned, distributions cut down. Bread for instance is now supplied thrice weekly, milk once daily. Wholesalers are being "persuaded" to serve their own immediate districts, customers asked to carry their own goods wherever possible.

Long distance buses have all been taken off the road, and bus services throughout the country curtailed, both in number and in travelling time. Request stops have been reduced to the absolute minimum, the public urged to leave transport to the working population as far as possible.

Taxi services have been drastically cut, both because of gasoline restrictions and by dwindling manpower. London itself, with 7,900 cabs before the war, now has 4,500, and each driver has to manage with a daily allowance of three gallons.

As for the bicycle, Britain is nearly as cycle-minded as the Dutch, but more by force than persuasion. A conservative estimate placed the number on the roads at 12,000,000. There would be more, but manufacturers are having difficulties with supplies. The result is a boom in second-hand machines, and in cycle-stealing who have lost "business" through the black-out.

The authorities are at present engaged on a census of all laid-up cars, aimed at estimating the number of idle tires and bearing all the signs of a future requisitioning order which will put all spare autos literally on their rims.

Just to make sure that neither the owner nor an invading enemy can make "unlawful" use of a laid-up car, all essential parts are deposited with the local police.

And the authorities absolutely refuse to promise tire replacements after the war. All they offer is payment for the tires—after valuation. The government expects thus to get tons of reclaimed rubber.

Major Gwilym Lloyd George, minister for fuel and power, warned the country in October of further cuts in the gasoline ration because of "the increasing needs of the armed forces for the present and still more for future operations."

He got off on the wrong tread himself on October 26. Touring the country on a fuel economy campaign, he tangled with some miners because of the number of cars in his entourage. They protested vocally and in writing.

POTATO CROP WILL NOT BE RESTRICTED

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 21.—(AP)—G. J. Durbin, state administrator of the agricultural adjustment agency, announced today he had been informed by the Washington AAA office that there would be no potato acreage allotments in Louisiana for 1943.

This means, Durbin said, that no government payment will be made on potatoes and there will be no limit on the amount of potatoes that may be planted by farmers. Potato production goals will be set later as part of the 1943 food for freedom campaign.

Worn or dirty spark plugs can waste as much as 10 per cent of your gasoline.

CHURCHES ARE TO UNITE IN PROGRAM

Protestant churches of the Twin Cities will unite in a joint Thanksgiving day service Thursday at 10 a.m. The service will be held in the First Christian church. The speaker of the occasion will be Rev. A. M. Serex, new pastor of the First Methodist church of Monroe.

Other pastors will participate on the program which will not last more than an hour to enable those who attend to participate in festivities at their own homes.

MAJOR NEW L. S. U. HEAD OF ROMANCE LANGUAGES

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Hoguet A. Major, member of the Louisiana State university French department since 1917, has been named head of the university department of romance languages to succeed the late Dr. James F. Broussard, President C. B. Hodges announced today.

Major served unofficially for a number of years as Dr. Broussard's administrative assistant and was acting head of the department during the latter's recent illness.

After Major's graduation from L. S. U. in 1908 he became a member of the faculty of Gwin academy. Later he served as principal successively of high schools at Reserve, Dutchtown, Thibodaux and La Rose.

He returned to L. S. U. to enter law school and serve as assistant in the French department, later becoming a fulltime member of the French faculty.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Major was honored with the title "Officer D'Academie" by the French government in recognition of work toward the propagation of the knowledge of the French language in Louisiana. He is a native of Pointe Coupee parish.

Praise the Gal

and Pass Her What She's Wishin'

FOR A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS

ELEGANT GOWNS

She'll accept with pleasure, some of our exquisite gowns. Daintily trimmed with lace or embroidery. Others in tailored styles. By Radelle, Seamprufe and Barbizon. In crepe or satin.

3.00 to 10.95

SLIPS

Beautiful and dutilful slips with dainty lace trims or tailored styles. In white, tearose or black. By Seamprufe, Fisher, Yolander, Barbizon and Radelle. Of satin or crepe.

2.00 to 5.95

PANTIES

Tailored or lacy styles in white, tearose, pink or black. Sans Souci Skinfits or Kayser panties.

1.00 and 1.25

QUILTED ROBES

Robe her in luxury in a beautiful quilted robe of rayon satin or cotton. Choose from a variety of colorful floral prints with light or dark grounds. A perfect Christmas gift.

5.95 to 25.00

BARBIZON PAJAMAS

Classic tailored styles of lustrous satin or crepe. Choice of the newest colors in solids and figures. Full cut and roomy for comfort.

3.95 to 6.50

KAYLON TOMMIES

Styled by Harry Berger. Man tailored styles of broadcloth, crepe or satin. Solids, stripes, prints and combinations.

2.95 to 6.95

LINGERIE . . . FASHION SECOND FLOOR

THE Palace

NATIONAL MINUTE WOMEN AT WAR WEEK NOV. 22 TO 28
Buy More War Bonds and Stamps

LET US GIVE THANKS

Let us give thanks for all the precious relationships and possessions that we have. But let us rededicate ourselves to un- tiringly striving for the Victory which will endow all the people of the world with that Liberty which is our greatest reason for Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 26TH

THIS YEAR YOU'LL ENTERTAIN MEN IN UNIFORM

Set your table with beautiful linens and the service men will remember your bountiful hospitality for many a day. We have hundreds of beautiful cloths and sets, many of which are irreplaceable at any price.

ALL PURE LINEN SATIN DAMASK CLOTHS

52 x 67	2.25	60 x 80	3.98
54 x 70	7.95	66 x 102	8.95
72 x 72	9.98	72 x 108	15.95
72 x 126	19.95	72 x 144	25.00

COTTON DAMASK DINETTE SETS

With 6 Napkins

51 x 51	3.95	51 x 67	4.95
68 x 78	5.95

COTTON DAMASK DINNER SETS

66 x 84	8.95 with 8 napkins
66 x 102	10.95 with 12 napkins

ALL PURE LINEN DINNER SETS

66 x 86	14.95 with 8 napkins
66 x 104	19.95 with 12 napkins

Other Sets up to 45.00

QUAKER LACE CLOTHS

Exclusive at the Palace

4.95 to 18.95

BEAUTIFUL ASS'T RAYON SETS IN PASTEL COLORS

5.95 to 32.50

HANDSOME HANDMADE AND HAND EMBROIDERED SETS

3 3/4 and 4 yard lengths in ecru and white

22.50 to 65.00

ALSO A COMPLETE SELECTION OF OTHER IMPORTED AND DOMESTIC LINENS

LINENS . . . STREET FLOOR

THE Palace

SHOP EARLY FOR CHRISTMAS

November 22 to 28 is National Minute Women At War Week.
Buy War Bonds and Stamps.

100 WOMEN LOST

14 to 20 Lbs. in 30 Days

each using AYDS under the direction of Dr. C. E. E. (minors) (assess) to before a Notary Public. The weight loss of 14 to 20 lbs. is only an average. In fact one overweight—a trained nurse—lost 29 lbs. in first 30 days of this test. AYDS helps many lose 5 to 50 lbs. It is an easy, sensible way to reduce. No laxatives. No drugs. No exercising. Vitamins A, B, C, D and E. Instead of excess calories. SATISFACTORY GUARANTEED. Write to: 222 So. 2nd St., Baton Rouge, La. 70801. JUST PHONE

LOVERS LANE PHARMACY
NORTH SIDE PHARMACY
SANDMAN PHARMACY

_____

WOMEN'S SECTION

ACTIVITIES--CLUBS--INTERESTS

Eve Bradford, Editor

Monroe Morning World
Sunday, November 22, 1942

Mrs. William Hudson, much feted bride of the month, is seen to the left. She was formerly Miss Jane Dawkins, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Benjamin Dawkins. To the right are members of the wedding party. Reading from left to right they are: R. B. Sadler, Jr., Miss Lela Germany, William Hathorne, Miss Peggy Prindle, Henry D. Foote, Jr., Mrs. William Potts Clark, Lake Buchanan, Mrs. Benjamin Dawkins, Jr., Lieutenant McVea Oliver and Mrs. Stader Richardson. The flower girls and ring bearer, from left to right are: Virginia Blanks, Cynthia Ashley Dawkins, Carolyn Cummings, Ashley Hamilton and Helen Louise Theus.

Mrs. Gates McHenry, bride of recent date, is seen to the left, lower corner. She was formerly Miss Mack Fay Hammons. Her attendants, right center, are Mrs. Nolan Guye Corley of Seattle, Wash., and Miss Snow Drew.

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Nell DeLee, lower center, to Lieutenant James Clinton Bones, is formally announced today by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. DeLee. The wedding will take place Christmas day at Grace church.

Miss Mary Louise Fudickar To Wed Benjamin Skinner Pace On November 25

Popular Local Girl To Marry At Grace Church

Open House Held At Lotus Club As Bride-To-Be Is Honored By Spinsters

Again we find Cupid on the march occupying the spotlight of social attention. The romance of the hour concerns Miss Mary Louise Fudickar and Benjamin Skinner Pace, whose marriage will take place Wednesday, November 25, at Grace Episcopal church.

Unlike the vast majority of brides-to-be, Miss Fudickar is observing all the wartime regulations and restrictions. Pre-nuptial courtesies by her request have been limited to a very few just before the wedding.

Miss Fudickar, a member of the Spinster club, couldn't escape the "kicking out" party, however. Her formal resignation was the occasion for the customary penalty—the payment of five dollars to the club treasury and the farewell bit of verse every Spinster must write before she is released from the bonds of Spinsterhood.

Open house at the Lotus club Thursday night was a joyous occasion despite the fact that one of the most popular club members left their ranks forever. Miss Fudickar read her verses in dramatic manner and later was presented with the customary silver thimble engraved with the date.

Miss Fudickar's poem "To Whom It May Concern" follows:

"I'm the fifth Spinster to bid you adieu
And leap into matrimony as you all hope to do.
I've gained my goal and will help you too
By giving advice on what to do.
So that you will be able to hold your man so tight
He'll cling to you as a moth to candle light.
First you must be charming, chic, and gay
And welcome them in a debonair way.

Next you must cultivate wisdom, tact, and grace and ensnare them with your beautiful face.
The homey arts are also fine
If you've hooked him on your line.
Ben can act as your decoy
To help you find your cherished boy.
Our little love nest can be your rendezvous
To help make one out of two.
And so sister Spinsters you will find
My parting gift in this little house of mine."

The little house contained the five dollars presented to the club members.

The informality of the occasion was the signal for impromptu entertainment including dancing and friendly conversation in the lounge where a cocktail bar was provided and a variety of hors d'oeuvres served throughout the evening.

A diversion, proving exceptionally entertaining, was the "wishing well" where the old oaken bucket brought forth pieces of parchment on which were written good wishes for the bride-elect and the prospective bridegroom. These when read aloud created considerable merriment.

Members of the club were accompanied by their "dates." Miss Fudickar's escort was her fiancé, Mr. Pace. She was wearing a lovely evening gown of brown chiffon with basque of brown metallic cloth.

Members and their "dates" were: Carrie Jo Hill and Lieutenant R. D. Frederick, Virginia Earl Kersh and John McDaniel, Robertine Rhymes

LIEUTENANT BREESE AND BRIDE...

Lieutenant Frank Chandler Breese, Jr., of this city, and his attractive bride, the former Miss Eula Beth Jones of Marshallville, Ga., cut their wedding cake with the sword belonging to Marquis de Lafayette when he visited this country and ever since has been in the possession of the bride's family.

Fine Arts Club Hears Interesting Program

Highlight Of Meeting Is Presentation Of Private Presti In Piano Numbers

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Stern extended the hospitality of their home to members of the Fine Arts club for the regular November meeting. Mrs. Paul Jones Newman and Mrs. E. Everett Lawson served as co-hostesses.

Shaded orchid and gold chrysanthemums placed in the reception suite and music room, brought indoors the tang of autumn.

The business session was called to order by Mrs. Henry Mayo, president. In the absence of the secretary, Miss Juanita Porter, Mr. Joe Craig officiated in this capacity.

Of especial interest to club members was the communication from Dr. Leslie M. Norton, former member of the club, and formerly of the faculty of Northeast Junior college, now serving in the armed forces.

Members agreed to lend their wholehearted support to Captain Culpepper's appeal to furnish recreation rooms at the Monroe AAF Navigation school with musical instruments for the use of the cadets. Plans to aid in the forthcoming drive for this worthy project will terminate in a victory program and art exhibit to be held Sunday, November 22, at Hotel Frances.

This occasion will give music and art lovers of this city an opportunity to enjoy outstanding talent of newcomers to Monroe. Soldiers will furnish music, and objects d'art from the brush of talented service men will be on display. Local artists will also cooperate by contributing paintings, portraits and sculpturing. Senior music clubs of Monroe will sponsor this project.

The highlight of the evening's program was the piano numbers, and several operatic arias contributed by Private Presti. He was formerly a member of the Roma Opera company, and director of the Brooklyn Symphony orchestra before he joined the armed forces.

Private Presti graciously responded to numerous requests for encores with such familiar favorites as "The Lost Chord," "Trees," by Rachbach, "For You Alone," by Romberg, "Because," by D'Hardlot, and Bach-Gounod's "Ave Maria." Mrs. E. Everett Lawson was piano accompanist.

At the conclusion of the program, the social period provided additional entertainment in the form of music and drama. Mr. Leon Hammonds rendered several piano selections, and accompanied the assemblage in group singing. The latter is a special feature during the social period of each monthly meeting.

Mr. Charles Gausshell, prominent member of the Little Theatre of Monroe, delighted the assemblage with a clever one act skit. His humorous impersonation of a character familiar to dramatists provided entertainment in a lighter vein. Mr. Gausshell realized that a departure from the serious during these days of unrest would provide momentary relief from wartime nerves, and his wise choice was enthusiastically received.

Mrs. Ben Stern, in a lovely evening model of burgundy crepe, with gold trim, served guests with delicious confections. She was assisted by Mrs. E. Everett Lawson who wore a floor length model of fuchsia and gold satin.

Members present on this occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Inabnet, Mrs. Nell Grigsby, Miss Eleona Brinsmade, Mr. Joe Craig, Miss Laddie Duke, Mrs. C. C. Carroll, Mr. Roy Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Everett Lawson, Mr. Charles Gausshell, Miss Louise Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Stern, Mrs. Henry Mayo, Mr. Leon Hammonds. Guests were: Private Joseph Presti, Lieutenant E. Wagner, Private John Lanahan, and Lieutenant K. C. Shaffer.

Annual Open Meeting Of Y. W. C. A. Held

The annual open meeting was held at the Y. W. C. A. on Thursday morning, Mrs. J. R. White, president of the Y. W. C. A. board, presided at the meeting and extended greetings to all board members and the "Y" membership and staff. The group sang "Follow the Glean."

Mrs. White gave an interesting and interpretative report of the year's work. Mrs. J. Norman Coon, treasurer, gave a financial report for the year. Mrs. Henry Whitfield, sponsor for the Business and Professional Girls' club, and Mrs. P. A. Poag, sponsor of the YoWoCa Business Girl's club, gave reports of the activities and programs and projects of the two clubs.

Dorothy Corry, president of the Girl Reserve inter-club council, gave a report of the Girl Reserve clubs, activities, programs, and projects and the meaning of Girl Reserves. The two staff members, Miss Bess Sharp and Mrs. John D. Coats, gave a report interpreting their duties and relating the accomplishments of the past year.

Joan Severance, sang a beautiful song that all the "Y" girls love, "Triangle Blue," accompanied by Mrs. P. A. Poag. After the business meeting the annual election for new members to the Y. W. C. A. board was held and the following were elected: Mrs. Charles Bennett, Mrs. C. K. Crandall, Mrs. A. S. Gunter, Mrs. M. L. Padgett, Mrs. A. D. Tisdale and Miss Mary Mills Hunt. After the meeting there was an enjoyable coffee hour.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lightfoot of Alexandria were guests at the luncheon given in favor of Mrs. Ethel Cummings, national president of U. S. W. V. auxiliary, at the Frances hotel.

Mr. Lightfoot is past department commander of Louisiana U. S. W. V. and Mrs. Lightfoot is president of N. L. Stevens Auxiliary U. S. W. V. of Alexandria.

"APPLE BLOSSOM"

BY THEODORE HAVILAND

This American made pattern has soft and lovely colorings of apple blossoms amid trailing leaf and fern in a delightfully graceful arrangement.

35-PIECE SET FOR ONLY $47.50

- |                 |                       |
|-----------------|-----------------------|
| 6 dinner plates | 6 saucers             |
| 6 salad plates  | 1 baker               |
| 6 soup plates   | 1 12" platter         |
| 6 tea cups      | 1 cream pitcher       |
|                 | 1 sugar bowl with top |

THE PALACE

Elizabeth Arden

It's fun to play Santa and give her a gift

you know she'll enjoy as much as an Elizabeth Arden Compact and Lipstick Set.

Now, with bright metallic glitter on the wane, these will be more cherished than ever.

- A. Gay Harlequin, enameled in a variety of costume colors, 4.50
B. Gleaming compact delicately etched in leaf design, 4.50
Lipstick, 2.00
C. Square compact with moulded sunburst effect, 7.50
Matching lucite lipstick, 2.00
D. Fan compact — golden and oval-shaped with engraved fan design, 4.00
Prices plus taxes

STREET FLOOR

THE PALACE

SIXTH FLOOR

SHOP EARLY FOR CHRISTMAS

AN OBLIGATION...

Carrying out and completing all details necessary for the funeral service is the direct responsibility of the funeral director.

You will always find...

MULHEARN'S

affords...

through personal service and the proper facilities...

the best possible service that can be offered in time of sorrow.

THE PALACE

Christmas GIFTS for GIRLS

CHENILLE ROBES
She'll be warm as a bug in a rug with one of these practical house coats. Colors of rose, blue, yellow, aqua and pink. Sizes 1 to 16.
1.95 to 4.50

SILK GOWNS AND PAJAMAS
An elegant gift for her. Lace trimmed styles in solid colors and dainty prints. Sizes 2 to 16.
2.25 to 3.95

SILK BUILT UP SLIPS
Pretty lace-trimmed slips for her very own. In white and pink, sizes 1 to 14.
1.00 to 1.59

SILK BIAS CUT SLIPS
Lace-trimmed styles in white and pink with double stitched seams.
2.25

SILK PANTIES
Plain and lace-trimmed styles in white and pink. Sizes 1 to 16.
50c to 85c

GIRLS' SHOP... FIFTH FLOOR

THE PALACE

SHOP EARLY FOR CHRISTMAS

Gifts TO COMPLETE A BOY'S CHRISTMAS

Boys' Wool Scarfs ..... 69c to 1.00
Novelty Skull Caps ..... 50c
Comb and Brush Sets ..... 50c to 1.00
Lined Leather Gloves ..... 1.65

BOYS' ROBES
Fine quality robes of broadcloth, spun rayon and wool mixtures. Sizes 1 to 20.
2.95 to 8.95

TIE SETS
These attractive tie sets in gift box consist of tie with handkerchief, flashlight or knife.
50c and 1.00

SLEEVELESS SWEATERS
The popular sleeveless style in all wool and wool mixtures. Choice of colors.
2.00 to 4.00

HUGGER CAPS
For cold weather wear. In plaids and solid colors, with adjustable ear muffs.
1.00

Boys' SHOP

THE PALACE

SHOP EARLY FOR CHRISTMAS

Miss Mack Fay Hammons And Gates McHenry Are Married In Ceremony Here

West Monroe Baptist Church Scene Of Rites

Event Claims Prominence Among Nuptial Events Of Season Here; Rev. Autrey Officiates

Claiming prominence among the nuptial events of the season was the wedding of Miss Mack Fay Hammons, daughter of Mrs. Mack Hammons, and Dr. Gates McHenry, son of Mrs. Paul Propst of Alpine, Texas, November 14, at the First Baptist church, West Monroe, with Dr. C. E. Autrey officiating.

Yellow chrysanthemums, the season's most popular flower, formed the decorative floral note for the ceremony. Tall floor pedestal baskets overflowing with beautiful chrysanthemums formed a semi-circle for the wedding party and were banked with considerable artistry in the background. Yellow tapers, burning in candelabra of graduated lengths, illuminated the scene.

A distinct feature of the nuptial hour was the concert rendered by Miss Mary Grace Law, organist. While the candles were being lighted by Mr. Pat McHenry and Mr. Rupert Sledge, Miss Law played "To a Wild Rose." The soloist, Miss Betty Rinehart, sang in beautiful voice, "Be-cause" and "I Love Thee," by Grieg. The bride's attendants, her sister, Mrs. Nolen Guye Corley, and Miss Snow Drew, wore light weight wool models of cinnamon brown. They were fashioned with ovel neckline and three quarter length sleeves and street length skirts. Gold chains were worn and high-crowned, cinnamon colored hats with shoulder length veils. They both carried arm bouquets of golden hued Talisman roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Carl McHenry. The groomsmen were Mr. Charles Eby, Dr. Samuel Roberts, Jr., of DeRidder, Mr. Rupert Sledge of Arcadia and Mr. Pat McHenry.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Nolen Guye Corley of Seattle, Wash., wore a distinctive model of brown crepe with a deep yoke embroidered in gold beads. The sleeves were three quarter length and the skirt was draped with front fullness. Long brown suede gloves and a wide-brimmed hat trimmed in coque feathers were worn. She carried an exquisite bouquet of ivory bride's roses and yellow orchids. For something old she carried an imported lace handkerchief.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. White chrysanthemums were used exclusively for the floral note in the reception suite and in the dining room where the cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom before departing on their honeymoon in Hot Springs, Ark.

The bride's table, overlaid with handsome lace cloth, was adorned with the three-tiered wedding cake embossed in white roses. Tapers in silver candelabra gleamed at the four corners and at either end of the table was placed a silver coffee service.

The bride's mother, extending courtesies, wore a moss green crepe model with corsage of Talisman roses. She was assisted by Mrs. Neal McHenry in a brown crepe model with Talisman corsage.

The bride changed her wedding ensemble for a smart tulle of brown light weight wool trimmed with Kalenski fur and a small, close fitting hat of brown trimmed with green feathers. A corsage of orchids completed the costume.

Mrs. McHenry is a graduate of Louisiana Tech and is a member of Theta Upsilon sorority and Phi Theta Kappa, national honorary fraternity. She is an accomplished musician and is a member of various musical organizations.

Mr. McHenry is a graduate of Louisiana State university and is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity and a member of Scabbard and Blade. The young couple will be at home to their friends at 102 South Second street, West Monroe, Mr. McHenry, an electrical engineer, is associated with the Kellogg company of Sterling.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were: Mrs. C. P. Berry of Ruston; Mrs. Frank Hinton of Clay; Mrs. Hamilton Patton and Mrs. S. A. Thompson of Camden, Ark.; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Robertson of Texas City, Texas; Mr. James Walker and Mr. Rupert Sledge of Arcadia; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Keys of Bastrop; Dr. Sam Roberts of DeRidder; Mr. L. Armstrong of Delhi.

Wisner Woman's Club In November Meeting

The November meeting of the Wisner Woman's club was held in the home of Mrs. H. W. Gilbert with Mrs. James Carroll and Mrs. J. G. Mitchell serving with Mrs. Gilbert as co-hostesses. Miss Blanche Wilson, presided.

Most interesting was Miss Wilson's report of the state convention in New Orleans. Her report contained extracts of the speech delivered by D. Jackson on "Education" and the national president's talk on "Apathy of American Club Women."

The program for the day following the club theme, "Study of Louisiana," was presented by Mrs. Harry Smith. Miss Dottie Kirkland sang "You Wore a Tulip" and "Rose O'Day."

Miss Marjorie Smith read a paper on "Charm Spots of Louisiana." She said in part:

"A four-hour drive from New Orleans, five hours from Houston, brings one to the city of New Iberia on the banks of the Bayou Teche where Evangeline and Basil of Longfellow's immortal poem played out their tragic romance and through which pass the Southern Pacific and Frisco railroads. Eight miles from New Iberia are the gardens of Avery Island that are well worth seeing any day of the year; the kingdom of beauty that was created out of pepper and salt. This is the most perfect spot in the United States for the study of nature, and to observe plants and flowers from all over the world."

"For thirty-five years this particular landscape has been molded to splendor by the talent and the imagination of Edward Avery McIlhenny whose home, on Maynard Hill, is the focal point of the Avery Island gardens it overlooks."

"From every quarter of the globe he has imported plants for the garden, not for any pride in the possession of exotic or rare varieties, but for the beauty thus achieved."

Miss Georgia Lee Russell gave an inspirational talk on "Louisiana Out of Doors," ending with a beautiful poem, "The Woods Trails," by Nancy Byrd Turner.

Miss Audrey Clark entertained members with the reading of a humorous article by Katherine Brush, "Things We're Proud Of."

Refreshments were served to the following members and guests: Mesdames E. L. Hoggatt, W. B. Huggins, R. E. Johnson, J. O. Jones, E. B. Knotts, J. N. Risher, R. S. Roach, C. W. Sherrouse, Carl Shipp, Harry Smith, Robert Hammond, N. Major, Ed Roberts and B. Woods, and Misses Dottie Kirkland, Georgia Lee Russell, Audrey Clark, Marjorie Scott, Rabie Craft and Blanche Wilson.

EXQUISITE GIFTS FOR CHILDREN

Beautiful books for boys and girls of every age. Handmade and sturdily bound, printed in large type on fine paper. Most of them are profusely illustrated.

50c each

The American Quiz and Answer Book
Frederic J. Haskin

SARGENT YORK: Quest of the Missing Map
NANCY DREW: Quest of the Missing Map

AIR COMBAT: A Yankee Flier in the R. A. F.

A Book of Finger Plays... Romney Gay

The Night Before Christmas
Clement C. Moore and Thelma Gooch

STEVE KNIGHT: The Bridge of Bombers

BOBBY TWINS: In the Land of Cotton

Heidi's Children... Charles M. Tritten (Seymour's translator)

Bambi's Children... Felix Salten

Beautiful Joe... Marshall Saunders

Lou Gehrig, Pride of the Yankees
Paul Gallico

Pollyanna Grows Up... Eleanor H. Porter

- Toyland -

The largest and most complete toyland in Monroe.

Christmas Cards

... a beautiful selection.

Gifts... Social Stationery

Drop in and Browse!

MATCH HIS NEATNESS

With Trim, Clean Clothes

That band-box look is the result of frequent cleaning. Men in the Service MUST look trim... regulations you know! That's why we "non-coms" are sprucing up too. We won't be put to shame when MONROE STEAM LAUNDRY offer the best in cleaning service.

Conserve... clean clothes last longer!

Phone 102-103

"An Institution for the Care of Fabrics"

Monroe Steam Laundry

Established 1895 47 Years

CUT THEIR WEDDING CAKE... Captain and Mrs. William Hudson were the cynosure of all eyes when they cut their wedding cake just before leaving on their honeymoon. The cake was a magnificent confection containing all the lucky symbols, including the wedding ring and coin. The vase and valley lilies surmounting the cake were made of spun sugar.

Holiday Shopping Off To Early Start Here

Stores Report Many Shoppers Getting In Ahead Of Rationing, Mailing Deadlines

This year Christmas shopping will be done early without urging from anyone but Uncle Sam. The transportation problem being what it is, not only from the store to the house, but also that of mail and express, the thoughtful person will be out shopping early and have all packages sent weeks before Christmas with the "do not open" sign prominently displayed.

Already Monroe shops report many holiday shoppers. This is true especially in clothing shops, because it is generally believed that clothes and accessories will be at the top of the gift lists.

One of the reasons clothes and accessories will top lists is that these are available while many of the non-essential products have gone into war production, cutting civilian fancies short and giving more products to the armed forces.

Food is another item that will be a leader in gifts. Nutrition courses and rationing have made all of us more conscious of food than we have been since World War I. Cosmetics will loom large on the list. Hand lotions have nearly doubled in sales since women have taken to kitchen and factory.

Games for the home will be another item. Long before Christmas it will dawn on all of us that the family will be home evening after evening. Cribbage boards, for example, checker and chess boards—two-handed games that have not known popularity since bridge made inroads on the cozy game of cards—are gaining more and more attention. Of course, nothing can ever take the place of books for stay-at-homes. They will appear at the top of the gift list this year. In this year of war we are remembering that books

Miss Sara Gulley Weds Captain Robert Darphin

At an impressive ceremony solemnized Sunday, November 15, in the Noel Memorial Methodist church, Shreveport, La., Miss Sara Gulley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Gulley of Sterling, La., became the bride of Captain Robert Darphin. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Darphin of Iota, La. Rev. F. M. Freeman, pastor, performed the ceremony.

The chancel was beautifully decorated for the occasion with standards of pale pink and orchid chrysanthemums interspersed with ferns and palms. Prior to the wedding, Mrs. Bertha Moore at the organ played a group of nuptial selections and accompanied Mrs. Bert Dueringer, who sang "O Promise Me" and "Because."

The bride was unusually lovely dressed in a gown of bayou blue trimmed with bronze belt and a stunning golf clip. Her small heart shaped hat was fashioned of brown felt and her other accessories were in brown. The bride carried a white Bible topped with a cluster of sweetheart roses and forget-me-nots tied with satin streamers.

Miss Alma Dell McKee of Monroe was the bride's only attendant, and she wore a becoming dress of gold sheer wool. Her hat was in green felt, and she carried a matching green bag, to which was pinned a lovely corsage of Talisman roses.

Lieutenant Chester E. Darphin of Albuquerque, N. M., was his brother's best man.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the home of the bridegroom's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Russell on Elmwood. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Russell, the bride and bridegroom and Miss McKee.

Throughout the spacious reception rooms were noted exquisite arrangements of pink chrysanthemums and pink roses.

In the dining room the bridal motif was featured in the decorations. Overlaid with a handsome cutwork cloth banded in lace, the table held as its central decor a crystal epergne filled with white azalea blooms. At one end of the table was placed the embossed wedding cake, while a silver coffee service graced the other end of the table. Miss Louisa Bistow presided at the bride's table, and Miss Marjorie Hartiens presided at the coffee service. Miss Reba Snider assisted in the serving courtesies.

Captain and Mrs. Darphin will make their home at 209 North Dartmouth, Albuquerque, N. M.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included the bride's father, Mr. C. H. Gulley, and her sister, Miss Ruth Gulley of Sterling, La., and Mrs. Douglas Page of Jackson, Miss; Miss Al-

Miss Ola Mae Cain Is Honoree At Tea-Shower

Bride-Elect Inspiration For Lovely Compliment In Home Of Mrs. J. R. Aycock

Miss Ola Mae Cain, whose marriage to Ensign James Reese Boies will be an event of affectionate interest to numerous friends of this section of the state, was the inspiration for a lovely compliment Friday afternoon when Mrs. J. R. Aycock entertained in her home with a tea-shower in her honor.

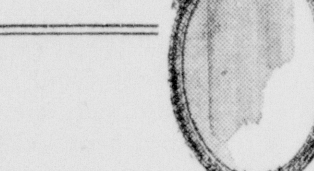

Characterized by charming simplicity, yet lovely in detail, was the flower arrangement throughout the reception suite. The patriotic theme, with emphasis on the air corps, was cleverly portrayed.

The dining table, with its handsome linen cloth, was centered with a gleaming mirror upon which glided a flower-bedecded airplane, embossed with tiny white chrysanthemums. Two crystal candelabra in which were burning white tapers, shed their soft glow, reflecting the quiet dignity of the occasion. Miss Ruth Cain, wearing a frock of gold wool, presided at the tea service throughout the afternoon.

Mrs. Aycock, wearing a black crepe model, stood at the door to welcome the guests who called during the tea hour. Miss Cain stood with her mother, Mrs. G. D. Cain, and Mrs. J. C. Boies. She wore a burgundy velvet model with insets of handsome cut lace. Mrs. Boies wore black crepe, and Mrs. Cain was charmingly gowned in a wine woolen model. Handsome corsages completed the costumes of each.

Four young girls, nieces of the hostess, assisted in the courtesies of the afternoon. Misses Jean Eddins and Sarah Aycock presided in the gift room, where numerous handsome gifts of china, crystal, silver and bric-a-brac were on display. Misses Charlotte Ann Eddins and Claire Ann Aycock assisted in the dining room, dispensing courtesies among the guests. A large concourse of friends called during the afternoon.

ma Bell McKee of Monroe, Colonel John P. Ryan, Captain James M. Peterson, Lieutenant C. E. Darphin, Lieutenant Jack Miller, Major and Mrs. Stephen Sukovich, and Captain and Mrs. W. S. Jabo, all of Albuquerque, N. M.

DECORATIVE MIRRORS

• Round • Oval • Square • Rectangular

For Christmas Gifts

Gleaming mirrors will reflect happiness long after receipt. Beautifully carved frames in all shapes.

We also have a beautiful stock of pictures and frames and glass table tops.

We Do All Types Of Glass Work

MONROE GLASS CO.

113 S. Grand H. O. Hartman, Owner Phone 4600

November 22nd to 28th Minute Women at War Week Buy War Bonds and Stamps

A Rare Collection of Fine Persian

ORIENTAL RUGS

Basiran

Genuine Oriental RUGS

Are Hand-Made in Far Off Persia

Introducing a new department with a fine collection of rare Oriental Rugs. All are hand-made on hand looms in Persia. Fast, mellow colors and amazing durability. Everyone... small scatter rugs and larger sizes... are masterpieces of rug weaving... deep piled and soft under-foot. We cordially invite you to visit our special exhibition.

HERE ARE RUGS OF LUXURIOUS RARE BEAUTY (See Our Window Display)

Lilahan Mats	39.95
Lilahan Kanapes	54.95
Basiran Super Lilahan Poshties	22.50
Basiran Super Lilahan Dozar, small	84.50
Basiran Super Sarouk Kanapes	58.50
Basiran Super Sarouk Nazaries	112.50
Basiran Super Sarouk Dozar	193.50
Basiran Super Kerman Kanapes	67.50
Basiran Super Kerman Nazarie	135.00
Basiran Super Sarouk (3x) 12 1/2 x 9 1/2	495.00

MONROE FURNITURE Company, Ltd.

132 North Second Street

War Aid Institute To Be Held Here Tuesday

Miss Marguerite Potts To Conduct Meeting For Ouachita Red Cross Chapter

Readiness for disasters resulting from natural causes, expanding war industry or enemy action will keynote a disaster preparedness and civilian war aid institute, sponsored by the Ouachita parish chapter, American Red Cross, to be held in Monroe Tuesday.

Final plans for the institute were complete today according to E. C. Gibson chairman of the local Red Cross chapter, who announced that Miss Marguerite L. Potts, disaster field representative for the eastern area, American Red Cross, will come here to conduct the institute.

An extensive education in social work, an opportunity to learn the community viewpoint on disaster through several years as a chapter executive, and years of actual experience in disaster operations are important factors in Miss Potts' training for her present post as a disaster field representative for the eastern area.

After completing her undergraduate work at the university of Chicago in 1932, Miss Potts continued as a graduate student in the school of social service administration at the university.

Through her activities as a supervising case worker for the Chicago relief administration she established a relationship with the Chicago chapter,

American Red Cross, which led to her appointment as assistant director of home service there.

From 1940 she was executive secretary of the Palm Beach country chapter, Palm Beach, Fla., until the time of her appointment as disaster field representative.

During all the period since 1937, Miss Potts has been on call for active disaster operations work. She was assigned to the Ohio-Mississippi valley floods of 1937; the New England and New York hurricane of 1938, and numerous flood and tornado operations including the post of area director for the Indiana tornado of 1942.

Mr. Gibson stressed the vital importance of preparedness so that prompt and adequate relief may be administered in the event of disaster. "If you are well organized and prepared in advance for any emergency, you have the jump on human misery and suffering. Once the catastrophe occurs, it's too late," he told local officials.

The institute will provide an intensive review of the Red Cross plan of disaster preparedness for members of the local committee. Consideration will be given not only to the operation of the standard Red Cross disaster set-up developed through 61 years of experience, but also to the details of chapter cooperation with the office of civilian defense and the office of defense, health, and welfare, Mr. Gibson said.

Since Clara Barton's first relief effort in 1861, the American Red Cross has given aid to sufferers in more than 3,050 disasters and has expended more than $15,000,000 in emergency relief and rehabilitation. More than $100,000,000 of this total has been spent in the past 25 years.

Floods, fires, and wind storms account for more than 80 per cent of all natural disasters, Mr. Gibson declared, pointing out that the Red Cross must be prepared to meet a disaster every three days.

At least one disaster every week is to be expected in the fifteen states, east of the Mississippi from Pennsylvania to the Gulf, which now comprise the eastern flood area.

Girl Reserves Observe Recognition Ceremonial

The Blue Circle club of Grade School Girl Reserves presented a beautiful and inspiring recognition ceremonial at their meeting last week. The theme of the ceremonial is expressed in these words:

"Here friendship lights the fire and every heart
Sure of itself and sure of all the rest
Dares to be true and gladly takes part
In open converse brings forth its best."

The symbols for the ceremonial were different colored candles representing things that should be a part of a girl's life. The lovely green candle representing Health was lighted by Martha Clayton Sparks. The blue candle representing Truth was lighted by Joanne Ransome. The red candle representing Courage was lighted by Margaret Ann Tatum. The yellow candle representing Wholesome Experiences was lighted by Eula Clay DeMarchi. The pink candle for Beauty was lighted by Ann Shafro. The orange candle for Service was lighted by Clara Munholland; and the white candle for Spirit was lighted by Mary Wilton McHenry.

Each girl lighted a white candle and then the group sang "Follow The Gleam." After the ceremonial the girls and their mothers and guests enjoyed a social hour. Dorothy Corry, president of inter-club council of Girl Reserves, and Sally Ann Ware, vice-president, assisted in serving the refreshments. Mrs. William Rodriguez and Mrs. Ben Rush are the advisors for the club.

Mrs. Lola Eason is visiting her son Ensign Dick Eason at the U. S. Naval Air school, Corpus Christi, Texas. Ensign Eason will serve as instructor upon completion of his training.

Miss Frances Reitzell To Wed Charles Rader

Daughter Of Police Chief Frank V. Reitzell To Be Married In December

Claiming the interest of friends in this section of the state is the announcement made today of the engagement and approaching marriage of Frances Bernice Reitzell, daughter of Monroe Police Chief Frank V. Reitzell, to Sergeant Charles Willis Rader, who is stationed in the Monroe Navigation school.

The wedding will take place in December.

News From The Sub-Depot

Whenever you see a big broad grin, accompanied by the brisk "go get them manner," you will know it is Lieutenant Enos Payne, the engineering chief, with all his pep and vitality getting the work done. Lieutenant Payne's job extends over all the engineering department of the Sub-Depot and into each of his departments is going his cooperative and patient spirit.

Lieutenant Payne, a first lieutenant, is another of the Pelican state boys, having been born and reared in Bogalusa. Having always been "mechanical minded," Lieutenant Payne entered the air corps service as a private in 1925. Since that time he has worked with the theory of "learning by doing" on the hangar line, in aero repair departments, and in the office as supervisor. With this long line of practical experience, he is extremely capable of his present position and is one of our most cooperative officers and a grade "A" sport.

This week brought many newcomers to our Monroe Sub-Depot, which wishes to extend welcome courtesies to them. Headquarters: Lillian Quinn. Engineering: Lee Roy Phillips, John McClain, Harry Boykin, Lawrence Robinson, Ray Lassone, Hardy Roberts, Katie Eady, Harvey Paston, Eddie Nickels, Arnold Martin, Percy Brown, Beulah Saucier, J. D. Dumas, and Bernice Bernstein. Supply: Alice Carlin, John Puckett, Dorothy Bradley, Mickey DuBos, Arabella Yates, Florence Garner, Doyle Goza, Leon Henricks, Helen Wilkinson, and Floyce Love.

Besides the regular bond deductions from the semi-monthly checks, headquarters has set up a defense stamp dispensary. Employees will be given books and besides their regular purchases, will be fined a ten cent defense stamp for tardiness in addition to working overtime for the corresponding minutes of being late.

Sub-Depot construction and landscaping is progressing rapidly. The parachute department will move into their new and well equipped building next week and the engineering staff will be in new quarters around the first of the year. New brick walks, trees, shrubs, and asphalt roads are making this section not only more attractive but also more convenient.

Chief gardner, "Pop" Hodges, and our outstanding horticulturalist, is responsible for the change in scenery. The newly organized Sub-Depot mess has announced their committees for the coming session. Entertainment: "Pop" Hodges, chairman; Margaret Cannon, Novaline Sentell, Rosalie Ballard, Jean Boyce.

Transportation: Henry Trull, chairman; Billy Ensminger, Florence Strange, Neva Barnwell, Jackie Ober.

Service: Pauline McMullen, chairman; Mae Thompson, Lillian Quinn, Raymond Anderson, Mary Ellen Reagan.

Publicity: Peggy Kilpatrick, chairman; Mary Hanna, Dorothy Dennis, Elizabeth Mulhearn, Mildred Penick.

The transportation committee has chosen as their project, the "share the ride" slogan and is assisting new members of the Sub-Depot in securing rides to and from work.

The advisory committee will consist of the chairman of each individual committee and the officers of the organization who are: president, Mary Hanna, secretary-treasurer, Mary Virginia Poole; and vice-president, Thomas Strange.

We found a poem which we have thoroughly enjoyed, and thought we might pass on to you people in town.

HITLER PHONES FOR A RESERVATION

Hitler called up the devil on the telephone one day

The girl at central listened to all they had to say.

"Hell, (twas Hitler speaking) is old man Satan home?"

Just tell him it's the Dictator who wants him on the phone."

The Devil said, "Howdy, Dolf, and Hitler said, "How are you?"

"I'm running hell-on-earth, so tell me what to do."

"What can I do?" the Devil said, "dear old pal-of-mine."

You don't need any help from me —you're doing mighty fine."

"Yes, I was doing fairly well, until some time ago."

When a man called Uncle Sam told me to go slow."

He said to me, "Dear Hitler, we don't want to be unkind."

But you've raised hell enough, so you'd better change your mind."

"I thought his lease-lend plan was a bluff, he'd never get it through."

But soon he put me on the spot, when he told me what to do."

So, that's why I called you Satan—I need advice from you."

For I know you're the one who can tell me what to do."

Satan said, "Dear partner, there is not much left to tell."

I've been a real old Devil, but not half as mean as you."

So the minute you get down here, this job is yours to do."

I'll be ready for your coming and I'll keep the fires all bright."

I'll have your room all ready, as soon as Sam begins to fight."

National President Of Auxiliary Feted Here

Mrs. Ethel Cummings Of United Spanish War Veterans Auxiliary Is Guest

A golden horn of plenty overflowing with luscious fruits and flowers reminiscent of the harvest season formed the attractive decor of the luncheon table in the Blue room of the Frances hotel where members of the United Spanish War Veterans auxiliary entertained complimentary to the national president, Mrs. Ethel Cummings of Richmond, Va.

Cornucopias at either end of the table, overflowing with bronze and yellow chrysanthemums created additional color along the beautifully appointed board. The mantel banked with yellow chrysanthemums and woodwardia ferns formed a colorful background for the guests seated at the long table presided over with characteristic grace by Mrs. Mamie Arnette, department president of the auxiliary.

A delicious four-course turkey luncheon was served to the guests of honor, local auxiliary members, and others from Alexandria and Shreveport.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. Cummings was the central figure at a large gathering of auxiliary members in the home of Mrs. J. M. McKee, West Monroe, during the tea hour. The tea table was overlaid with hand-some lace cloth and adorned with a wide-spreading plaque of yellow chrysanthemums encircled with tall yellow tapers.

Trays laden with dainty sandwiches and cakes were served to the guests. Mrs. McKee was charmingly assisted in extending courtesies by Mrs. Eula Morgan. A delightful feature of Mrs. Cummings visit to Monroe, was that of extending greetings to the boys in the A. A. F. Navigation school, when she attended the USO dance Saturday evening. A radio broadcast was the end of a most delightful program.

Accomplished Organist At Grace Church Today

A feature of the regular eleven o'clock service at Grace church today will be the organ numbers rendered by Mr. Hjalmer Bergh, accomplished organist of north Texas. He is a recognized instructor in piano, voice, organ and theory.

Mr. Bergh will render as a prelude,

Head Now Wounded" by Bach. The public is cordially invited to attend this service.

Miss Marcella Schultz And W. C. Anderson Wed

In a beautiful wedding ceremony at St. Peters Lutheran church, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, November 15, Miss Marcella Schultz, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. O. C. Schultz of Westgate, became the bride of Third Class Petty Officer W. C. Anderson of Port Arthur, Texas, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Anderson of Wimer, La.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Beatrice Hoehe of Westgate sang "Whither Thou Goest."

The bridal party marched to the altar to the strains of Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus," played by Professor H. H. Suhr at the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a beautiful gown of white slipper satin, inserts of Chilian lace in the waist with a full skirt falling into a train. Her fingertip veil was edged with Chilian lace and fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of pink rose buds and white chrysanthemums.

The matron of honor, Mrs. William Brooks of Waterloo, La., sister of the bride, wore a pale blue lace floor length dress and wore a bow in her hair to match her dress. She carried yellow and white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid, Miss Florence Oltrogge, wore pink taffeta with a pink bow in her hair. She carried yellow and white chrysanthemums.

The flower girl, Gloria Brooks, niece of the bride, wore a white satin model and carried a white basket of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Attending the bride groom as best man was Robert Schultz, brother of the bride, of Davenport, Ia. and Dale Griffin, student teacher in St. Peters Lutheran school. The bridegroom wore his uniform of navy blue and his attendants wore the conventional dark blue suits.

Ushers were William Brooks of Waterloo and Parley Pierce of Rock Island, Ill.

The brides' mother wore black velvet street length dress and a corsage of pink sweetpeas and white chrysanthemums.

The chancel of the church was decorated with large baskets of white chrysanthemums and oak leaves.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. At 6 p. m. a turkey dinner was served in the dining hall of the church to 45 guests.

The patriotic colors of red, white and blue were used as table decorations and throughout the hall. The white linen table cloth used on the bride's table was the one used by her mother on her wedding table 23 years ago.

Mrs. Donald Tellin, Mrs. Herman Potratz of Westgate, Miss Rozella Hall of Cedar Rapids, Mrs. Garlan Barron of Waterloo, Mrs. Max Northrup of Fredericksburg, Mrs. Otto Hoehne, Mrs. Will Knief, Mrs. Alvin Potratz and Mrs. Carl Hoehne assisted in serving.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Schultz. Following her graduation from the Maynard High school in 1940 she has been employed in Westgate and in Waterloo, Ia.

Mr. Anderson was graduated from Homer High school, Homer, La. Previous to his enlistment into the coast guard he worked in Natchez, Miss.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will be at home in Sabine, Texas.

Going to Parties Thanksgiving Weekend?

Few things add more to your enjoyment of a party than knowing you look lovely! So hustle up that party dress and let us give it a Sanitone beauty treatment. We'll make the colors sparkle, and press it to a real form-fit. It'll be fun to wear if it's Sanitoned!

If It's Worthwhile Cleaning It's Worth Well Cleaning"

Phone 990

WEIL CLEANERS

Pick-Up and Delivery Service Also Three Convenient Cash and Carry Stations

Main Plant - - - 508 N. 4th St.

Branch No. 2 - - - 105 Cataiba St.

Branch No. 5 - - - 404 Stubbs Ave.

These are the only HANDS you'll ever have

Keep them Lovely

Women's hands are working harder than ever before, and they are being kept soft, smooth and lovely with the aid of CHAMBERLAIN'S LOTION. Clear, golden, and scented with orange blossoms, Chamberlain's Lotion is helping to keep hands in condition for the work to be done... and still so beautiful that compliments are unhesitatingly invited. Use Chamberlain's Lotion regularly.

Buy it at all Toilet Goods Counters

Chamberlain's LOTION

BRIDE-ELECT...

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Frances Bernice Reitzell, daughter of Chief Frank V. Reitzell, to Sergeant Charles Willis Rader, is formally announced today by her father.

CLOSE OUT ON DRESSES

Taken From Our Regular Stock

SPECIAL	SPECIAL
Group 1	Group 2
$10.98 Dresses	$18.85 Dresses
NOW $7 <sup>98</sup>	NOW $12 <sup>98</sup>

Bella Scherck Davidson
AT THE
Woman's Shop

DR. BERT HEINBERG, OPTOMETRIST

Office Hours—8:30 A. M. to 5:30 P. M.
And by Appointment

204 Bernhardt Building Phone 4586

The Gala Party Look

The excitingly lovely dresses he'll like you best in when he's in "to do up the town!" Enchanting with basque bodices or bare shoulders—full dancing skirts, crepes, nets, jersey, sequin trims!

$10<sup>95</sup> up

• Bella Scherck Davidson
The WOMAN'S SHOP

Reports Of Drives Are Made Before P.-T. A.

Parish Association Hears Results Of Community Chest, Membership Campaigns

The regular meeting of the Ouachita Parish Parent-Teacher association was held in the high school auditorium with Mrs. John Young, president, presiding. The meeting was opened by the members repeating the Lord's prayer in unison.

"Harvest of Hope," a message from the national president, Mrs. William Keltzer, was read by Claudia Nugent. Mrs. Harry Burdeaux made the report on the Community Chest Drive. A total of $254.50 was contributed to the Community Chest by the Ouachita Parish High school, Ouachita Parish Grammar school, and Ouachita Parish P.T.A. Mrs. Burdeaux was assisted in the drive by Mrs. Toby Bancroft, Mrs. John Young, Mrs. S. E. Morris, Mrs. Louis Bornman, Mrs. A. C. Ransom, Mrs. Roddy, Mrs. R. D. Farr, Mrs. Ruth Archibald, Mrs. J. R. Robbins, Mrs. D. L. Nicol, Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. Roy Welch, Mrs. Jack Hayes and Mr. Joe Craig.

The largest contribution to the fund for the soldiers' kits, sponsored by the P.T.A. in cooperation with the Red Cross, was made by Miss Zeldia Moss' homeroom in the high school, with Miss Josephine Coates' room ranking second. Grammar school grades and their teachers contributing the largest sums were fourth grade, Mrs. Edna M. Yancey, and fifth grade, Mrs. Gertrude Gregory. Mrs. Burdeaux reported that a total of $60.23 from the high and grammar schools was received.

Attendance prizes for the October meeting were awarded to Mrs. Fensky Terzia's room in high school, and to Miss Ina Merle Thomas' room in grammar school.

Mrs. Roy Welch, membership chairman for grammar school, and Mrs. S. E. Morris, membership chairman for high school, thanked teachers, homeroom mothers, and members for their assistance during the recent membership drive. Ouachita Parish P.T.A. membership now totals 479. Membership prizes were awarded to Mrs. Carrie B. Camp's room in the grammar school, and to Miss Josephine Coates' room in the high school. The November attendance prizes were won by Mrs. Ammon C. Buckley and Mrs. Josephine McDowell, grammar school, and the freshmen in high school.

Jack Hayes, principal of Ouachita Parish High school, urged the cooperation of everyone in compiling an accurate and complete list of all former students of the school who are now in the armed forces or who served in the present war. This list must be completed before the December 13 meeting. Information may be given to Mr. Hayes, Mrs. John Young, or Mrs. S. E. Morris.

Solution of the growing wartime problem of caring for the children of working mothers has been added to the responsibilities of the nation's 23,000 parent-teacher associations. From the war emergency committee of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers went this call to the associations:

"Support the development of adequate plans in every community for the establishment of proper facilities for the day care of children of working mothers, such as nursery schools, after-school programs, and counseling service."

Mrs. William Keltzer, Portland, Ore., president of the national congress, in explaining the action of the committee made it clear that "We urge the importance of mothers of young children staying at home if possible" and added: "We consider the working mother situation an exceedingly important problem. Very few cities have counseling services where working mothers may go to receive guidance to the agencies which provide care for children. This is especially necessary in industrial areas. We are also urging cooperation with the program of the High School victory corps, since we believe high school youth can do a great deal toward helping in the care of children above nursery school age through recreational programs conducted on the school grounds."

Frances Thompson To Wed Lieut. Ellerson

Wedding To Take Place During Latter Part Of December At Methodist Church

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grady Thompson announce the engagement of their daughter, Frances Eugenia, to Lieutenant Henry Watkins Ellerson, Jr., United States army, son of Mrs. Henry Watkins Ellerson and the late Mr. Ellerson of Richmond, Va.

Miss Thompson is a graduate of Northeast Junior college and Louisiana State Normal college. She is a member of Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority.

Lieutenant Ellerson, a graduate of Virginia Military institute, is now stationed at V. M. I. as member of the staff of instructors in military science and tactics.

The wedding will take place during the latter part of December at the First Methodist church here.

'Louisiana Looks To Its Schools' Is Talk Topic

"Louisiana Looks to its Schools" was the subject of a most interesting and informative talk delivered by Joe Craig to members of the Ouachita Parish P.T.A. when they met in regular session last week. The subject of Mr. Craig's talk was based on the book written by Carleton Washburn, director of the state school survey made in 1941.

The survey staff was divided in three groups—division, organization and functions of higher education. The health of school children, elementary and secondary education, and related problems. The last division was conducted by Mr. Washburn.

Committees were organized in every part of Louisiana, composed of people who know the state well, such as Legion commanders, district governors of service clubs, the A. A. U. W., the League of Women Voters, federated women's clubs, the state department of education and the P.T.A.

To all these committees bulletins were sent from the survey staff. They in turn sent back to the survey staff recommendations pro and con. On the whole there was far more agreement than disagreement among the committees. There was a universal desire to make education more realistic, closer to the lives of the children and community, more practical in the effects, more thorough in its training for economic efficiency and responsible citizenship.

The following topics were listed for subjects of study later. They are what the schools should teach:

How to live healthily and safely; how to develop character; cultivate special interests—music, reading, art; help to become good home makers; help prepare for vocations; help children master the fundamentals of learning; to learn how to get along with others; mental hygiene; sex education; get teachers best prepared that can be secured; 12 year school system; a study of uniform taxation and state school funds; federal aid and education; appointment of state superintendent of education rather than electing them.

The study group will meet once each month and cover as much as possible in order to be better informed and try to cooperate in making any changes that are evident from the survey.

Celebrates 16th Birthday By Party

Miss Margaret LaVerne Hausher celebrated her sixteenth birthday with a party at her home on Saint John street Saturday, November 14th. The occasion was also a farewell party for Mr. Allen Wayne Christman who has enlisted in the service of the United States navy and is now stationed at San Diego, Calif. They were the recipients of many lovely gifts.

Dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening. Delicious refreshments were served after which the party attended the midnight show.

Those attending were Alfred and Frances Haile, Peggy Strong, Doris Roe, John Collier, Jr., and Ann Laws, Dyche Lenard, Geneva and Dorothy Casco, Arless and Carey Hodges, De-Clark Elledge, Jimmy Hobbs, LaTrelle Kutz, Marjorie and Naomi Johnson, Dorothy BeDout, Anita Danna, Charles Amman, Ulysse Rivoire, Lynn Chandler, Virginia Lee Munge, Imogene Vernon of McGehee, Ark., Mrs. Ola Mae Vernon of Port Arthur, Tex., Margaret LaVerne Hausher and Allen Wayne Christman, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Christman, and Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Hausher.

QUEEN AND MEMBERS OF HER COURT . . .

Miss Sybil Ogden, student at Northeast Junior college, is seen with members of her court who ruled over Northeast Junior college Homecoming festivities, November 6. Reading from left to right they are: Jean Spencer, Mary Margaret Curry, Jo Eleanor Thompson, Mary Belle Culpepper, Julia Wilson, Sybil Ogden, Florence Reynolds, Narmalee Jarrell, Margaret Wise and Evelyn Aden.

Sidelights

The month of November is galloping by with a variety aplenty in our daily bill of fare. There has been a little bit of everything with strong overtones of romance. And one has seen many old friends at weddings and prenuptial affairs during the past few weeks. At the beautiful home of JUDGE AND MRS. BENJAMIN DAWKINS, following the wedding of their daughter, JANE, to CAPTAIN WILLIAM HUDSON at Grace Episcopal church, there was much handshaking and affectionate embracing among old friends who seemed suddenly to realize that absence makes the heart grow fonder.

MRS. HODGES H. HONNELL of Memphis, Tenn., formerly Boyce Leigh Sadler of this city, was greeted on every hand by old friends. The passing years have been exceedingly kind to Mrs. Honnell. She is youthful looking with bright eyes and plenty of verve. She has traveled the world over since her girlhood days in Monroe and like the rolling stone has acquired a lovely polish and brilliance. She was wearing a distinctive evening model of rose beige with basque studded with brilliants. A smart little hat of black coque feathers was worn.

MRS. CLARENCE SLAGLE, another former Monroe resident who seems to have discovered the fountain of perpetual youth, was the center of an animated group of old friends in the Dawkins home. As customary she was effervescent and gay and looked as though she thought it a privilege just to be alive and well these days of chance and change. One always feels refreshed and better off for having passed her way. She was wearing a rose and black evening model with roses piled high on her head in the most becoming manner.

MRS. JACK ROGERS was a charming figure in black evening model with knee length ermine cape and a garland of fresh carnations in her hair. She is a lovely-looking person.

MRS. HARRY OLIVER in cerise and black evening model was radiating happiness. And no wonder. Her son, Lieutenant McVea Oliver, in dashing, full dress uniform resplendent in gold braid and brass buttons, served as usher at the wedding. He was continually being interrupted by old friends grasping his hand in greeting.

MRS. RICHARD SADLER, JR., of Alexandria was the central figure in a group of old friends. She was wearing with great charm a white crepe, sequin trimmed evening model with shoulder length cape of grey marten.

It was nice to see MRS. WILLIAM POTTS CLARK of New Orleans, formerly "Boots" Ewing of this city, walking down the white carpeted aisle at the wedding and later at the Dawkins home. Her white chiffon gown, long and full, accentuated her slender grace. The American Beauty roses she carried were most becoming to her particular type.

MRS. A. L. HARRINGTON wore a stunning black velvet evening wrap with high standing ermine collar over her white chiffon evening gown.

MRS. AMOS SIELSER wore a shade of blue evening gown that seems to be especially created for blondes. The skirt was long and the bodice, hip length, was embroidered in brilliants. She looked lovely.

MRS. CLYDE PAINE, JR., a bride of recent date, walked down the aisle of the church with her new father-in-law. She wore a long black velvet evening cape elaborately embroidered in gold and silver. A matching Juliet cap of gold was worn.

MRS. SCOTT HAMILTON was wearing a close fitting black hat adorned with a cluster of red roses. Her evening gown was of black crepe. Her handsome husband, Lieutenant Colonel Hamilton, held court at the entrance to the Dawkins home following the wedding. He could scarcely take a step forward without being assailed by old friends who wished to congratulate him in his recent advancement to the rank of lieutenant colonel in the army medical corps. He was in full dress uniform.

The headgear of many feminine guests at the wedding broke out in a riot of wild ideas but quite divine for all of that. Hats had much flora upon them and likewise some fauna, that is, hats trimmed with bird feathers. Most intriguing were the shoulder length mantillas partially covering the hair.

MRS. ALLAN SHOLARS walked down the aisle in a long black velvet cape over a black crepe evening model and a black lace mantilla caught to the hair with a rhinestone clip.

MRS. KING STUBBS wore a white chiffon mantilla that fell to the hemline of her white chiffon evening gown.

MRS. DAWKINS, the bride's mother, removed the short blue lace mantilla worn over her hair at the church when she stood to receive the guests at the reception. She never looked lovelier than on this occasion with a cluster of orchids perched on the shoulder of her pouf blue chiffon gown.

JUDGE DAWKINS, in formal evening attire, was everywhere at once looking after the comfort of his guests, many of whom were old colleagues who came from a distance to attend the marriage of his daughter and the reception following. They all feasted on chicken salad sandwiches and the iced champagne punch served continuously during the reception. The evening was perfect but as usual there was a fly in the ointment. Lieutenant Benjamin Dawkins, Jr., was unable to be present. He is stationed at Quonset Point, R. I., with the naval air corps.

MRS. GORDON WRIGHT, in pale blue, sequin trimmed evening gown, found that serving punch from the huge block of ice was rather a hefty job after all. Everyone seemed to press forward at the same time even though other punch bowls were placed at various vantage points.

There was a flutter of chiffon skirts at the foot of the stairs when the bride tossed her wedding bouquet to the girls standing with outstretched hands. It fell straight into the arms of the bride's cousin, PEGGY PRINDLE, who came from the University of Oklahoma to attend the wedding. Peggy was a mere child when she left Monroe and now she returns a glamorous young woman with poise and charm and considerable personal beauty.

The outstanding figures in the throng of fashionables were naturally the bride and her uniformed husband. CAPTAIN HUDSON is the typical soldier. Stern of face and looks as though he has seen service but for all of that he is tres amiable. He wore his full dress army uniform, beautifully tailored and elaborately trimmed in gold braid and brass buttons, according to army regulations. The bride was regal looking in her Duchess satin gown with imported Belgian lace veil falling beyond the hemline of her court train. Of all the flowers that grow Calla lilies seemed the best suited to the bride who held them in her arms throughout the reception.

The tenth anniversary of the founding of the Abram Morehouse Chapter, when the roll was called each member gave a short talk on "When and Why I Joined the D.A.R."

Mrs. Warren Hunt, regent, led the pledge of allegiance to the flag and the D.A.R. ritual.

The history of Abram Morehouse chapter, given by Miss Nettie T aylor, proved most interesting and informative. She stated that only two vacancies had been caused by the deaths of members during the past two years—Miss Dot Sandridge and Mrs. Nell Meek Madison.

During the social hour the hostess served a delicious refreshment course.

RENT! Through the WANT ADS

'Hobby' Articles Of Neville Pupils Shown

Attractive Exhibit Arranged At High School In Connection With Book Week

It was indeed a brilliant idea that prompted the Neville High school library staff to combine the observance of Book Week with an exhibit of articles gathered by the pupils as a hobby.

It was surprising to discover how many students were hobbyists and had gathered in the past few years a rather amazing collection of articles ranging from guns, dolls, stamps, old coins and post cards, to match covers, pennants, perfume bottles, Indian arrowheads and models of sail boats and houses.

The articles are arranged in the most engaging manner in the school library with one collection in particular, Marjiam Oliver's dolls, occupying an enant, perfume bottles, Indian arrow-even countries claim prominence in this comprehensive collection started as a hobby several years ago. It has of gasoline per 10 minutes.

HEIRLOOM FEATHER QUILTS

MADE FROM YOUR OLD FEATHER BED

- Your feathers will be chemically cleaned—sterilized and de-stemmed.
- We will cover with special featherproof fabric.
- Lightweight—war sleep—only one to a bed.

DOWN COMFORTS REBUILT

- We will clean, sterilize and re-fluff the down
- New cover.

For Particulars Write

Stanley J. Cope

SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE SANITARY FEATHER WORKS

Monroe Phone 1764 Shreveport Box 1088

Please Phone Monday Morning for Appointment.
This Is My Last Trip Before Gas Rationing.

RUTH SHOPS

306 DeSiard, Next to Central Savings Bank

Our owner, Mr. I. W. Jaffe, will leave in a few weeks for the U. S. Armed Forces. We have only a limited time to liquidate our entire stock.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS

SEE OUR WINDOWS

Prices Go Down Sale

Nothing Sold To Wholesalers

Time is getting short. We must move the balance of our stock. The best is yet to be sold and we have slashed prices to the bone.

LUXURIOUS FUR TRIMMED COATS

Values Were	NOW
$29.75 and up	$19.75
$39.50 and up	$24.75
$49.75 and up	$39.75

DRESSES

1 Lot Silks & Wools Val. to 10.95 $3.98

ALL OTHER DRESSES GREATLY REDUCED

OUT THEY GO! HURRY FOR YOURS! FUR JACKETS

Val. $49.50 $19.75

Each as long as they last.

You'll be needing one soon—so now is the time to buy it.

FUR COATS

All No. 1 Pelts—Fine Quality—New Styles

Fine Quality—Values to 69.50 $29.75

All Others Drastically Reduced

Do You Want LONGER HAIR

Just try this SYSTEM on your HAIR 7 days and see if you are really enjoying the pleasure of LONGER HAIR. At so much more beautiful. Just try the JUELENE SYSTEM 7 days and let your mirror prove results. Send $1.00 (if C.O.D. postage extra). Fully guaranteed. Money back if not delighted. Write to JUEL CO., 3724 N. Clark St. Dept. B-857 CHICAGO, ILL.

Ambulance Service

Prompt, efficient ambulance service with trained attendants who know how to handle persons who are ill or have been injured.

Peters Funeral Service, Inc.

Phone 77 504 South Grand

Best Buys In Your Man-Tailored SUITS

Were	NOW
$22.50, $24.75, $35.00	$16.95
$19.75	$12.95

1 Lot Spring Wool Suits, Val. 24.75 ..... 9.95

PLAIN AND FUR TRIM COSTUME SUITS

Were	NOW
$59.50 and $69.50	$29.75
$29.75 to $39.75	$19.75

"Nov. 22 to 28—National Minute Women at War Week"

NOTICE LAY-AWAY CUSTOMERS

All garments must be called for by December 15th. We must clear our store. Come in soon by all means and make arrangement to take your garment out.

Fixtures for Sale

Consist of:

- Wall Fixtures
- Show Cases
- Racks
- Figures
- Mannequins
- Fluorescent Lights
- Display Racks
- 2 Automatic Janitrol
- Thermostat Heaters
- Fans, etc.

You Were Never Lovelier' Opens At Paramount Today

Let 'em come! Marine heroes raised this war cry and then blasted Jap attackers attempting to storm Wake Island. The thrilling story of the marine starring Bryan Donlevy and Robert Preston in "Wake Island," Capitol theatre Sunday and Monday.

Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and Dorothy Lamour appearing together in the "Road to Morocco," the feature attraction at the Paramount starting Wednesday for three days. The big three of comedy in their latest and greatest success.

The East End Kids featuring Leo Gorcey, Bobby Jordan, Noah Beery, Jr., and Ann Gillis in the action-packed story "Neath Brooklyn Bridge," coming to the Capitol screen Friday and Saturday.

AME DELEGATES TO TEACHERS' MEET

Delegates to the Louisiana Teachers' association convention from Northeast junior college will be B. F. Hammer, the department of language. Also Hazel Mitchell in the same department will be a delegate, at the meeting held in Shreveport this week. Other members of the local faculty who will attend are: E. J. Brown, physical science department; Wilbur Perkins, of the commerce department; and Roy Henderson, of the art department.

Mr. Henderson will participate in panel discussion on Tuesday on the subject "The Place of Art in the Present Crisis." Others who are on the same panel discussion are William Lockwood, of Louisiana State university and Don Brown of Centenary college.

J. T. JOHNSON IS NAMED FOR HONOR

J. T. Johnson, of the commerce department at Northeast Junior college, has been named state director of the National Educational association's department of business education. The appointment was made by Cecil Tuckett of the University of Indiana, who heads the group and who succeeds Herbert Hamilton of Lafayette, La., who resigned to join the armed forces.

This is the largest business organization in the United States with 5,000 members. It publishes the National Business Education Quarterly.

One of the main duties of Mr. Johnson will be to encourage membership in the department. He attended the last annual meeting in Denver. The place for the next meeting has not been determined.

In Anzac slang "graft" means to work hard.

STRAND THEATRE

Today and Monday	Tyrone Power Joan Fontaine in "This Above All"
Tuesday	Hugh Herbert, Anne Gavin, Bob Paige in "You're Telling Me"
Wednesday	Lucille Ball, James Craig in "Valley of the Sun"
Thursday	Wm. Powell, Hedy Lamarr in "Crossroads"
Friday	Joe E. Brown, Judy Canova in "Joan of Ozark"
Saturday	Bob Steele, Tom Tyler, Rufe Davis in "Phantom Plainsman"

RIALTO THEATRE

Today and Monday	Charles "Winning", Charlie Ruggles, Nancy Kelly in "Friendly Enemies"
Tuesday	William Gargan, June Clyde in "Sealed Lips"
Wednesday	Oleson & Johnson in "Country Gentlemen"
Thursday and Friday	Don Red Barry in "Stagecoach Express"
Saturday	Charles Laughton, Jon Hall in "Tuttles of Tahiti"

Hayworth, Astaire In Latest Hit

Adolphe Menjou And Xavier Cugat And Orchestra In Picture

ITA HAYWORTH'S luscious Latin beauty, Fred Astaire's exciting rhythm, Jerome Kern's sensational songs... these are the delightful entertainment ingredients out of which Columbia has produced what is said to be the finest musical film of recent years, "You Were Never Lovelier."

The extravaganza, which opens today at the Paramount Theatre, features Adolphe Menjou and Xavier Cugat and his orchestra in support of the stars.

"You Were Never Lovelier" has been hailed by an entranced Hollywood as an excellent in rhythmic perfection even the redoubtable "You'll Never Get Rich." Astaire and Hayworth fans still remember with gratification this first co-starring venture of the two dancing stars, which resulted in the curvaceous actress being named as the "ideal" partner for the twinkling-toed hooper.

Jerome Kern's score, called by the nation's leading musicians, critics and fans his greatest since the immortal "Show Boat," undoubtedly was a contributing factor in lending new wings to the whirling feet of the stars. Already the top tunes of the air waves, the songs include:

"I'm Old-Fashioned," "Dearly Beloved," "You Were Never Lovelier," "Wedding in the Spring," and "The Shorty George" among other hits. In addition to these, Cugat and his bandmen present their own world-famous specialty number, "Chiu, Chiu."

Miss Hayworth appears in "You Were Never Lovelier" as the eldest daughter of an eccentric South American impresario who insists that her younger sisters cannot marry before she does. Determined to arouse her to romance, Menjou "creates" an unknown suitor for the girl, a dream prince with whom she falls in love.

Astaire pops up, a Broadway hooper who has lost even his return fare at the track. Applying for a job, he finds himself mistaken for the girl's Galahad. In order to obtain that much-needed job, he poses as the suitor, only to discover promptly that he really is in love with the girl.

The complications of "You Were Never Lovelier" are said to be in strict comedic vein, with overtones of delightful romance leading excitement to the film. But, by the large, "You Were Never Lovelier" is considered by Hollywood as a gay carnival.

MECHANICAL SANTA ATTRACTS KIDDIES

The Palace store is announcing the opening of Toyland with an attractive window display which features Santa Claus himself. Santa is a full sized man, attired in bright red, with flowing, snowy whiskers and a generally rependant appearance that captivates both young and old.

But the chief feature of interest lies in the fact that this mechanical Santa Claus moves his head and extends his arms at intervals in a most human manner.

The mechanical man is new to this store and was purchased at considerable expense. That the purchase was well advised is indicated by the throng of kiddies who press their noses against the window panes in their enthusiasm in watching the genial man.

The mechanical man is new to this store and was purchased at considerable expense. That the purchase was well advised is indicated by the throng of kiddies who press their noses against the window panes in their enthusiasm in watching the genial man.

NASH-KELVINATOR CONTRACT VOIDED

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21.—(P)—In the absence of C. T. Lawson, general manager here, other officials today were awaiting further word on future use of the Nash-Kelvinator corporation assembly plant here with cancellation of the navy contract for mass production of cargo flying boats.

Lawson advised his local plant of the cancellation from Detroit where the announcement was made and was en route here.

The Detroit announcement said the local plant would be turned over to another manufacturer to build war equipment.

The plant here is nearing completion.

The pledge to the flag of the United States originally was written by James Upland.

Lovely Rita Hayworth and Fred Astaire swing into graceful action as the dancing, romancing, stellar team in "You Were Never Lovelier," opening today at the Paramount for three days. In the supporting cast are featured Xavier Cugat and his orchestra and Adolphe Menjou. The many hit tunes are by Jerome Kern.

Chester Morris and Constance Worth in the latest from this popular series, entitled "Boston Blackie Goes Hollywood," will be shown at the Capitol for one day, Thursday only.

Rita Hayworth, the loveliest star on the screen, is pictured above in her latest starring success, "You Were Never Lovelier," with Fred Astaire as her dancing partner in the romantic musical. Opening today at the Paramount for a three-day engagement.

APPLY FOR CHARTER

Boy Scout Troop 33, Newellton, sponsored by the Rotary club there, has applied for a renewal of its charter. Bob Ralston is Scoutmaster of the troop, and James Stone, Hal Penney Ed McDonald, and Gate Hargrove are committeemen. Scouts are Harry Coleman, senior patrol leader, Richard Pilgrom, Sonny Burnside, Brother McDonald, Joe May, J. C. Craft, Monon Totum, Henry Long, Bruce Totum, Thomas Mason, Eugene Smith, Harvey Coit, Versie Sigers, Thomas George, Bobby Doyle, and Dan Grace.

There are in Ouachita parish some 67 of these manufacturers who would be eligible for contracts for smaller orders for the war effort. Of those eligible, only three have been awarded contracts, Mr. Kilpatrick stated. These three were awarded contracts for materials needed at the Navigation school.

Thirteen small industries in the parish are having severe difficulty remaining in business, due to the difficulty in securing materials. Three have already closed for the same reason.

Eight local industries could contribute to the war effort through the manufacture of paper, distribution of natural gas, etc.

Mr. Kilpatrick expressed the opinion that the industries of Ouachita parish could contribute immeasurably to the war effort if accorded the privilege of manufacturing munitions. In addition to contributing to the war effort, such contracts would save industries that secured them from financial difficulty and possible bankruptcy.

The NCCS members wish to thank the women of both St. Matthew's and St. Paschal's churches for their splendid cooperation given at the spaghetti supper here November 7. Mention is made of the work of Mrs. Sam Danna, Mrs. Louis Savanna and Mrs. Joe Varino.

Members of the NCCS are planning a USO Christmas party for Catholic men in service on or about December 13.

A special committee has been named and which comprises Mrs. A. W. D'Elia, and Mrs. Ben Breard.

Quick starts, speeding and sudden slowing can increase gasoline consumption as much as 50 per cent.

SMALL BUSINESS COMMITTEE MEETS

George Holland Will Represent Twin Cities At New Orleans Meeting

A. K. Kilpatrick, president of the Chamber of Commerce, said Saturday that George Holland, chamber secretary, will represent the Twin Cities at the Small Business Men's conference at New Orleans Wednesday.

A special Congressional committee, headed by Congressman Wright Patman, Texas, is conducting the meeting to study the needs of small manufacturers and businesses adversely affected by the war effort. In the past 18 months considerable effort has been made to influence the former OPM and the WPB, which succeeded the OPM in February, to award contracts for the manufacture of war munitions to smaller manufacturers, in order that the latter may participate in the war effort.

Practically no such contracts have been awarded to smaller industries, and with materials for production of regular civilian goods increasingly difficult to obtain, these concerns are expressing fear of being forced out of business, it was said.

The Patman committee is investigating this situation, and will report to Congress possibly to urge the passage of a bill requiring that contracts be awarded in smaller units to smaller manufacturers, at least in some measure.

There are in Ouachita parish some 67 of these manufacturers who would be eligible for contracts for smaller orders for the war effort. Of those eligible, only three have been awarded contracts, Mr. Kilpatrick stated. These three were awarded contracts for materials needed at the Navigation school.

Thirteen small industries in the parish are having severe difficulty remaining in business, due to the difficulty in securing materials. Three have already closed for the same reason.

Eight local industries could contribute to the war effort through the manufacture of paper, distribution of natural gas, etc.

Mr. Kilpatrick expressed the opinion that the industries of Ouachita parish could contribute immeasurably to the war effort if accorded the privilege of manufacturing munitions. In addition to contributing to the war effort, such contracts would save industries that secured them from financial difficulty and possible bankruptcy.

SPAGHETTI SUPPER PROVED SUCCESS

The NCCS members wish to thank the women of both St. Matthew's and St. Paschal's churches for their splendid cooperation given at the spaghetti supper here November 7. Mention is made of the work of Mrs. Sam Danna, Mrs. Louis Savanna and Mrs. Joe Varino.

Members of the NCCS are planning a USO Christmas party for Catholic men in service on or about December 13.

A special committee has been named and which comprises Mrs. A. W. D'Elia, and Mrs. Ben Breard.

Quick starts, speeding and sudden slowing can increase gasoline consumption as much as 50 per cent.

Picture Of Marines Is At Capitol

Brian Donlevy And Robert Preston Starred In 'Wake Island'

THE DRAMATIZATION of one of the most spectacular battles of this war will be on view when Paramount's "Wake Island" today reaches the screen of the Capitol Theatre.

The gripping reenactment of the epic stand of a handful of courageous Marines who starved off Jap invasion for fourteen days, features a great cast headed by Brian Donlevy, Robert Preston and MacDonald Carey. Also included in the roster of players are Albert Dekker, Walter Abel, Barbara Britton and William Bendix.

Insuring authenticity of detail, "Wake Island" was filmed with the cooperation of the United States Marine Corps. John Farrow, distinguished Hollywood director and himself a Lieutenant Commander in the British Navy until recently invalided out of service, directed the new film drama.

It is thrilling, vital drama that the new picture promises as entertainment, plus the essential meaning of this war and what it entails. The subject should never be forgotten, and "Wake Island," telling, as it does, the story in terms of human, dramatic events will help see to it that it never shall happen again.

"Wake Island" brings to the screen a mighty piece of screen entertainment, and what with the able hands that have fashioned it, it will measure up to the immense task it must perform to make plain its vital message and to be a picture of exceptional entertainment worth. From all accounts it is.

Certainly it has the qualities of really great screen fare. It's theme is unexcelled for stirring human drama. On that Pacific isle men outnumbered and outstripped in planes and guns fought on against hopeless odds. Yet so fierce were their convictions and so great the inspiration of their loved ones, left behind somewhere, that they resisted the enemy for fourteen glorious, thunderous days.

"Wake Island" recapitulates in its story the whole stand, the sinking of a Jap cruiser by our aircraft, the many times invasion attempts were repelled, the emotions experienced by Marines and civilians as the battle was being fought.

"Wake Island" is definitely the picture of our times.

GIRLS NEEDED IN WAR INDUSTRIES

Young women are badly needed in war industries by the NYA, stated Gerald R. Stephenson, of the group here. He states that girls whose ages are between 17 and 25 years can obtain training so as to be able to do their part in war industry.

NYA training shops are located in Monroe and Shreveport and eight to 12 weeks are required to complete courses. These are in sheet metal, machine and welding. When completed those who have finished their training will be referred to the United States employment service for placement in war plants in Louisiana and Texas.

Girls are paid a modest salary while they are being trained. All interested can apply at any United States employment service office or from Gerald R. Stephenson, 901 South Grand street, Monroe.

MONROY AWARDED COMBAT CREW BADGE

Staff sergeant Lindsay C. Corser, formerly of Monroe, was one of the ninety enlisted men to be awarded the Aviation Combat Crew badge in the first ceremony of this kind, held at March Field, Calif., last week.

The badge, or wings, presented at this time by Major General B. W. Giles commanding general of the Fourth Air force, is similar to that worn by pilots and navigators, and is given only to gunners, bombardiers, or radio men when they have satisfactorily earned them.

Many of the men honored with Sergeant Corser had seen service in the Solomons or Aleutian Islands. The wings may be earned by having been a member of a combat crew exposed to enemy fire in battle, by graduating from an Army Air Forces aerial gunnery school, or by having at least 60 hours in the air plus satisfactory completion of 35 courses in combat crew training.

DELTA

Open 10:45 Daily—Phone 2151

Admission 9c-15c Incl. Tax Any Time

TODAY ONLY

The Incomparable

Comedienne

JUDY CANOVA

with

BOB CROSBY

and His Band of Bobcats

—in—

"SIS HOPKINS"

Plus

"DONALD GET DRAFTED"

A Donald Duck Cartoon

Latest World News Events

STARTING TOMORROW

2 BIG FEATURES

WM. POWELL & HEDY LAMARR

"CROSSROADS"

—and—

LUPE VELEZ & LEON ERROL

"MEXICAN SPITFIRE SEES A GHOST"

Plus—Cartoon Comedy

Victor Mature and Lucille Ball in "7 Days Leave," the military musical of the minute with an outstanding cast from stage and radio will be presented as the Thanksgiving Eve midnight show attraction at the Paramount at 11:30 p. m.

This Week's Movie Program

AT THE PARAMOUNT

TODAY, MONDAY AND TUESDAY—Rita Hayworth and Fred Astaire in "You Were Never Lovelier," with Adolphe Menjou, Leslie Brooks, Isabel Elson and Xavier Cugat and his orchestra.
WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY—Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour in "Road to Morocco," with Anthony Quinn, Dona Drake, Vladimir Sokoloff and Andrew Tomba.
WEDNESDAY MIDNIGHT SHOW—Lucille Ball and Victor Mature in "Seven Days Leave," with Freddie Martin and his orchestra.
SATURDAY—Fay Bainter and Caroline Lee in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."

AT THE CAPITOL

TODAY AND MONDAY—Brian Donlevy and Robert Preston in "Wake Island," with MacDonald Carey, Albert Dekker, William Bendix and Walter Abel.
TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY—Pat O'Brien, Glenn Ford and Evelyn Keyes in "Flight Lieutenant," with Jonathan Hale, Minor Watson, Edward Pawley and Frank Puglia.
THURSDAY—Chester Morris in "Boston Blackie Goes Hollywood," with George E. Stone, William Wright, Constance Worth, Lloyd Corrigan and Richard Lane.
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY—The East End Kids in "Neath Brooklyn Bridge," with Leo Gorcey, Bobby Jordan, Huntz Hall, Gabriel Dell, Noah Beery, Jr., and Ann Gillis.

AT THE JOY

TODAY AND MONDAY—Ray Milland and Patricia Morison in "Untamed." Second feature, Roy Rogers and Gabby Hayes in "Red Rover Valley." TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY—Tyrone Power and Linda Darnell in "Brigham Young." Second feature, Kane Richmond and Betty Jane Rhodes in "Mountain Moonlight." FRIDAY AND SATURDAY—Johnny Downs and Anne Nagel in "The Mad Monster." Second feature, Red Barry and Al St. John in "The Missouri Outlaw."

AT THE DELTA

TODAY—Judy Canova in "Sis Hopkins." MONDAY AND TUESDAY—William Powell and Hedy Lamarr in "Crossroads." Second feature, Lupe Velez in "Mexican Spitfire Sees a Ghost." WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY—Barbara Stanwyck and Joel McCrea in "Great Man's Lady." Second feature, Alice Faye and Carmen Miranda in "That Night in Rio." FRIDAY AND SATURDAY—John Kimbrough in "Sundown Jim." Second feature, Wallace Beery in "Jacksass Mail."

ART EXHIBITION PLANNED TODAY

Will Be Held On Hotel Frances Roof During Afternoon

This afternoon from 3 to 6 p. m. the public will be entertained at a public reception and showing of art, the workmanship of local artists, and also a musical program will be rendered on the roof of Hotel Frances. A silver offering will be received which will be devoted to the purchase of musical equipment for the recreation rooms at the local airport.

Clubs that are sponsoring the affair are the Fine Arts, Musical guild and Musical coterie as well as the local federated clubs.

It is expected that there will be a large attendance and it is hoped to realize a sizeable sum toward the purchase of a piano for the airport.

PROMOTED TO SERGEANT

William J. LaValle, son of Mrs. Viola LaValle, Spencer, has been promoted from the grade of technical corporal to that of sergeant at the Oklahoma City Air depot, where he has been on duty since September. Before he entered the Army, Sergeant LaValle was employed by the Dow Chemical company Tulsa, Okla.

BEAUTY to love! RHYTHM to enjoy! SONGS to sing!

Opens 11:45 Phone 1567

PARAMOUNT

TODAY THRU TUESDAY

BEAUTY to love! RHYTHM to enjoy! SONGS to sing!

Opens 11:45 Phone 1567

BEAUTY to love! RHYTHM to enjoy! SONGS to sing!

Opens 11:45 Phone 1567

BEAUTY to love! RHYTHM to enjoy! SONGS to sing!

Opens 11:45 Phone 1567

DANCE

Thanksgiving Eve

Wednesday, Nov. 25

HOTEL FRANCES

CHEROKEE TERRACE

Orchestra

Milton Coverdale, Jr.

$1.65

Per Couple Incl. Tax

From 9 'til 2

RESERVATIONS

Phone 3170 or 3652

Dave Carter, Chairman

JOY

Always A Double Feature Phone 1610

Opens Daily 10:45 Saturdays 9:45

9c - 11c

TODAY — NOW SHOWING — MONDAY

UNTAMED... this girl of the wilderness... fighting for the only code she knew! UNTAMED... this man... stripped of civilization's veneer by the wild North!

RAY MILLAND Patricia MORISON AKIM TAMIROFF in Gorgeous Technicolor!

— SECOND THRILL TRILOGY — ROY ROGERS AND GABBY HAYES

"RED RIVER VALLEY"

Plus POPEYE in "NEVER SOCK A BABY"

GEORGIA TECH RALLIES TO DEFEAT FLORIDA

ENGINEERS DROP FIGHTING GATORS BY 20-7 SCORE

Techmen Seem Likely Choice For Top-Ranking Spot In Country

By Price Howard

ATLANTA, Nov. 21.—(P)—Georgia Tech's Yellow Jackets put in a strong bid for national honors today by coming back from a dismal start to whip Florida, 20-7, for their ninth successive victory as Georgia tumbled stunningly.

The undefeated-untied Techs rallied around southpaw Freshman Clint Castleberry and another little back, Davey Eldridge, overpowered underdog Florida's stubbornness with a determined attack in the second half. About 15,000 fans saw the Techs march to within one game of a perfect season and a post-season bowl bid. They seemed destined to rise to No. 1 rating in the national poll.

Their last game throws them against newly-beaten Georgia next week. The Georgia Bulldogs, rated No. 1 in Associated Press rankings, were upset by Auburn in the season's most stunning reverse, 27-13, today, to take some color from next Saturday's Athens attraction.

Georgia Tech, opening with second stringers and plainly pointing ahead to Georgia, was outplayed through most of the first half. The Engineers put together only one drive before the intermission, converting it into a 3-0 lead that enabled them to reach the half all-even at 7-7. Then, with the regulars starting the second half, the Techs proceeded to clip off a touchdown in each of the last two quarters against an often-beaten Florida eleven that never gave up.

The golden-shirted winners got their first lead early in the second quarter in a 92-yard drive. Castleberry began running and passing with telling effect, hitting first one Engineer, then another until the Gators were backed up to their 33. Then sophomore Eddie Brock passed 33 yards to Ralph Jordan on the goal for the touchdown. Brock Helms converted with a place-kick.

The lineups:

Florida Pos. Ga. Tech

Williams LE..... R. Jordan

Hillier LT..... Slaton

Deplan LG..... Beall

Lee C..... C. Lowery

Chotaky RG..... Ryckel

Gray RT..... Healey

Julka RE..... Richter

Lasko QB..... Kuhn

James LH..... Sheldin

Smith FB..... Eldridge

Score by quarters:

Florida 0 7 0 0—7

Tech 0 0 7 6—13

Georgia Tech scoring: Touchdowns,

Jordan, Eldridge, Castleberry (for Sheldin); R. Jordan (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Healey (for Dadd); (placement),

Tribesmen Wind Up Football Season Here This Week

Hot Off The Gridiron

NORTH CAROLINA 28; VIRGINIA 13

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Nov. 21.—(P)—

Turning loose their power in every period, the North Carolina Tar-heels marched up and down spacious

Scott stadium here today to thrash

the University of Virginia Cavaliers

28 to 13 before a crowd of 6,000.

The Tarheels had come up to Charlottesville with the idea of gaining sweet revenge for the 23-7 licking Bill

Dudley and the Cavaliers dishd out to the mat Chapel Hill last Thanksgiving, and they got it right down to the very finish.

DARTMOUTH 26; COLUMBIA 13

NEW YORK, 21.—(P)—Dartmouth's

Indians walloped the Columbia Lions,

26-13, today in the last game of the year for both teams before 10,000 at

Baker field, presenting a fitting farewell present to their coach, Tuss Mc-

Laughry, who expects to be in the armed services before another football season.

Playing the last game of his varsity career, Paul Governali tied the national collegiate record of 19 touchdown passes in a season, set by Davey

O'Brien of Texas Christian in 1938.

He completed 11 of 19 passes for 224 yards, missing by only 15 yards the season record of 1,547 yards held by

O'Brien and Bud Schwenk of Washington at St. Louis.

YALE 7; HARVARD 3

YALE BOWL, New Haven, Conn.,

Nov. 21.—(P)—Gridiron glory returned to Yale today as Hugh Knowlton and Townsend W. (Tim) Hoopes maneuvered a 62-yard touchdown pass in the gathering dusk of the final period to whip Harvard's Crimson 7 to 3 before a small collection of 23,000 fans in Yale Bowl.

OREGON STATE 39; OREGON 2

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 21.—(P)—

Oregon State's Beavers, scoring five touchdowns by air, flashed the brilliance that carried them to a Rose

Bowl victory last January by rolling over university of Oregon today, 39-2.

The Beavers ran up the 39-2

score in the first half, with the 47 yards in the first quarter, and the two teams have met in one of the West's oldest and most bitter gridiron rivalries.

Combining their own aerial attack with an alert defense that intercepted more Oregon passes than were completed, Oregon State scored in every

THOUSANDS HEAR WEEMS AT FIELD

Popular Orchestra in Nation-Wide Broadcast From Monroe Post

Before the largest assembly of officers, cadets and enlisted men yet gathered at the AAF Navigation school, Ted Weems and his band played on the Victory Parade of Spotlight Bands, over the Blue network's national hook-up, in honor of the Army Air Forces Pre-Flight and Advanced schools, Friday night. Beginning shortly after 7 p. m. Weems led his band and assisting entertainers through a pre-broadcast show which ended shortly before the players went on the air over the 142-station network.

Colonel Norris B. Harbold, post commanding officer, welcomed the broadcasting party in a greeting speech from the newly constructed band stand, thanking them and Malcolm S. Biedenharn, Monroe Coca-Cola distributor, who requested the national organization to send the band to the local field. The colonel then "ordered" Michael Roy, NBC's 300 pound star announcer, to take over as Officer in Charge of the party. Mike's first and only order, greeted with a roar of applause, was "Relax everybody and have fun."

And for the next hour and a half the thousands of navigators, enlisted men, cadets, officers, civil service employees and their friends did just that, applauding vigorously and often the offerings of Ted Weems' band, and his featured stars, comedian Billy Blair, whistler Elmo Tanner, baritone Perry Como and Mike Roy.

Mr. Biedenharn responded for the Coca-Cola company, extending the wish only that the entire personnel of the field would enjoy the broadcast. The new bandstand was built Friday and finished just before the start of the show under direction of Captain L. D. Parsons, post engineer, when the popularity of the show forecast a crowd much too large for the nearly completed new post theatre. Lighting for the show was installed by direction of Captain Otis P. Johnson, Jr., U. S. army air engineer at the field.

Immediately after the broadcast finished at 8:35, the band and entertainers moved to the Neville High school auditorium for dancing until the early morning hours. Colonel Harbold extended curfew for all enlisted men to enable them to stay for the last dance.

Weems arrived on the field shortly after lunch Friday noon, and directed his band constantly through rehearsals, show, broadcast and the dance, pausing only briefly for dinner at the Pre-Flight camp mess.

From Monroe, the Weems band moved to Memphis, where, after playing an engagement at the Peabody hotel, they will join the merchant marine, in which all members enlisted in New Orleans this past week.

SAYS RATIONING TO HIT REVENUE

(Continued from First Page)

In Louisiana and 10 army and navy airfields. It is one of the largest maneuver areas. Our highway system and other state services must be maintained if our contribution to the war effort continues to be effective.

"We have upward of a billion dollars of federal expenditures in Louisiana in war industries and other commitments. These factories and services are geared to the use of the automobile."

Jones stated further that the $150,000,000 annual petroleum industry must necessarily produce great quantities of gasoline anyway in presently turning out vast amounts of vital high octane aviation gas and butadiene at refineries. He asked: "What is to be done with this gasoline?"

"In the east," he continued, "it appears that two problems must be met, to wit: The shortage of rubber and the shortage of gasoline; but here there is only one problem—the shortage of rubber. It does not seem reasonable to arbitrarily apply the solution necessary for the New England states to those states wherein there is a surplus of gasoline. The situation is different and should be treated differently."

The governor asserted that 40 millions of the state's 66 million dollar annual tax yield comes from oil, gas and their byproducts and gasoline rationing in Louisiana would lead to "collapse of our whole fiscal structure," jeopardizing bond payments and funds for schools, road maintenance and the ports of New Orleans and Lake Charles dependant on the gasoline tax.

Jones concluded by telling Representative Hebert that "any effort on your behalf toward an equitable solution of this very grave matter will be appreciated by all of us."

B. M. I.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS
Monroe, Louisiana

Offers
VICTORY COURSES

SHORTHAND AND TYPING

For the young lady wishing employment as typist or stenographer with the Government.

Day and Night School

BOOKKEEPING AND ACCOUNTING

For the ladies who wish to do their part in helping carry on business at home while their husbands are in the service.

We Need Qualified Help—NOW
Phone 1706 or Visit for Information

NEGRO STEP CLOSER TO ELECTRIC CHAIR

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Hugh Pierre, St. John parish negro whose murder case has been in the courts since 1936, approached a step closer to the electric chair today when District Judge Rivard at Edgard amended his death sentence to provide electrocution in place of hanging.

Pierre was convicted of killing an officer. His case has twice been before the supreme court of the United States, once being reversed on the racial issue but the second time turned down in an attack on the Louisiana electrocution law.

LEHMAN TO HEAD FOREIGN RELIEF

(Continued from First Page)

appeal for the French and the people of other nations which have been conquered and occupied by Nazi Germany.

Some thought that the promise of food would prove an inducement for the Italian people to help in facilitating an Allied invasion of that country. The Italians are war weary, resent the fact that their own food supplies have been seized by the Nazis and that their daily food ration is considerably less than that in Germany.

"Governor Lehman," the White House statement said, "will undertake the work of organizing American participation in the activities of the United Nations in furnishing relief and other assistance to the victims of war in areas recaptured by the forces of the United Nations."

"This is a step in the president's program of mobilizing the available resources of this country in food, clothing, medical supplies and other necessities so that it may make an immediate and effective contribution to joint efforts of the United Nations in the field of relief and rehabilitation. Governor Lehman's appointment assures that this country will play its part in such efforts."

Although the White House carefully phrased its announcement in a way that would not step on the toes of any Allied nations—by saying that Lehman would be in charge of American participation in relief distribution—the weight of American supplies may well give Lehman a dominant role in the entire United Nations program in this field.

Since the United States is the richest of the United Nations and has suffered least by the war, the devastated areas of the world will have to depend upon it almost exclusively for their supplies. This, in effect, if not developing agreement with other Allied nations, would make Lehman relief administrator for the world.

DEATHS

MRS. HORACE W. CARTER
Mrs. Horace W. Carter, 56, died at her home 1120 Mississippi street, Friday at 2:20 p. m. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:00 p. m. at the chapel of the Dixie Funeral home, with Rev. I. J. Brooks officiating. Burial will be in the River-view Burial park. The body will lie in state at the funeral home until the service.

Mrs. Carter is survived by one brother, Lonnie Simms, of Bonita; four daughters, Mrs. Gladys Smith, Monroe, Mrs. Olean Whitton, Sterling, Mrs. Ruth Perry, Monroe, Mrs. Maxine Elliott, Monroe; four sisters, Mrs. Mattie Covington, Monroe, Mrs. Rosa Clark, Monroe, Mrs. Terry Clark, Hamburg, Ark., Mrs. Eula Barnett, Crossett, Ark.; and ten grandchildren.

MELVIN STOUT
WINNSBORO, La., Nov. 21.—(Special)—Funeral services for Melvin Stout, 31, Winnsboro attorney and former registrar of voters of Franklin parish who died in a Vicksburg hospital yesterday, will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the family residence with Rev. Almond, pastor of the Delhi Baptist church officiating. Interment will follow in the direction of Mulhearn Funeral home of Winnsboro.

Active pallbearers will be Sardis Bissett, G. B. Gardner, L. B. Loftin, D. I. Berry, Raymond Killian and Asa Stephens. Honorary pallbearers will be K. C. Loftin, Roy Snyder, Enlow Bostick, J. D. Smith, Glenn Newcomer, Lloyd E. Neal, Minnie McGee, Sheriff Ed Randall, Davis Brown, B. B. Franks, Leonard Stout, Rufus Finley, Audie Hutton, J. D. Myers, John Robinson and all friends of the Stout family.

Mr. Stout is survived by his mother, Mrs. Lizzie Stout of Delhi, three brothers, Sergeant Leon Stout of Camp Robinson, Ark., Ensign Douglas Stout of Gulfport, Miss., and Hugh Stout of New Orleans, N. C., and three sisters, Miss Ruby Stout of Gilbert, Miss., Lloyd E. Neal of Epps, and Mrs. J. S. McEachern of Glendale, Calif.

Mileage of a new tire can be extended from 10,000 to 17,000 miles by reducing average speed from 40 miles an hour to 25 miles an hour.

GENERAL WEYGAND HELD BY GERMANS

Taken As Hostage After Giraud Escapes And Joins Allies

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—(AP)—General Maxime Weygand, Allied generalissimo before the fall of the French republic, has been arrested as a hostage to replace General Henri Giraud in Koenigsberg fortress at the direction of Joachim von Ribbentrop, German foreign minister, according to information reaching New York from Europe today.

Giraud escaped from the Nazi prison on late last spring, then went to North Africa where he joined American troops at the head of a fighting French column when Algeria was invaded. Ribbentrop, according to these advances, informed Marshal Petain, French chief of state, in a letter that Giraud's departure meant he had broken a promise to Germany. Consequently, Germany could no longer accept the word of any French officer and would therefore take Weygand into custody to play safe.

Weygand left Petain's house with his wife and son in Petain's motor car the night of Nov. 12. The car was halted five miles from Vichy by Gestapo (German secret police) car blocking the road.

Weygand's son returned to Petain and told the marshal what had happened. Petain nodded affirmatively and replied he had just been informed by a letter from Ribbentrop which arrived a few minutes after the Weygands had departed.

Weygand had first been arrested by French authorities for 24 hours, but had made arrangements with Petain to return home under house arrest. Weygand was cautioned five days before the African campaign that the Gestapo intended to arrest him but placing his faith in Marshal Petain, he had discounted the warning, said these advances.

'MINUTE WOMEN' TO URGE SALES

(Continued from First Page)

motive power back of the merchants to urge them to greater action. When one makes a purchase, he will be asked to also purchase stamps or bonds and if there is change to be made, some of this may be well invested in stamps or bonds, he will be informed, Mrs. Elmer Richards, Jr., general chairman of the women's group entrusted with the prosecution of "Minute Women at War Week."

She states as follows: "We must defend our democracy from enemies seeking to destroy it from without, we must guard it against forces that would weaken it from within. The greatest fifth columnist of them all lurks within the nation's pocketbook—inflation. To help defeat this enemy the United States treasury has set up the war savings program for systematic saving. People are urged to invest not just once or sporadically, but week after week and month after month as long as the war lasts. To fight inflation they must buy more war bonds and less other things. War bonds instead of new electric appliances. War bonds instead of household goods and new clothes and other purchases that can be postponed. For when people buy electric appliances and household goods, and even new clothes, they are buying in competition with the government, since industry cannot possibly manufacture all the goods that the people would like to have, and also provide all the planes and shells and uniforms that the government needs for its armed forces."

"Above all, people should not hoard. For if they persist in buying more consumer goods than they need, instead of putting their money into war bonds, they will simply bid up prices. Despite the price ceilings that the government has recently placed on goods, too much money in circulation competing for the same goods will force the roof off prices. There will be bootlegged goods and black markets. And that is the road to inflation."

"It has been said, and it is true, that in these times the American people should have no complaint if they have adequate housing, enough to eat and enough to wear. And if we are to keep price ceilings pegged down it will be necessary for the women, who are the shoppers of the country, to cut their marketing lists to the level of necessities."

"Buy stamps and bonds!"

Corporal Limon Greer of Fort Bragg, North Carolina is the guest of his mother, Mrs. S. E. Greer.

Delwood Rogers left recently for service with the air corps. At present he is stationed at Tarrant Field, Texas.

Miss Ruth Greer of Monroe and Mrs. Ivy Phillips and daughter, Mary Frances, of Hodge, were weekend guests of their mother, Mrs. S. E. Greer.

Mrs. J. R. Rogers was the guest of relatives in Monroe recently.

Miss Beulah McDuff of Monroe was the guest of her parents recently.

Wayne Sheffield left today for the naval reserve.

Miss Wilma Heller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heller of Monroe was the guest of her grandparents recently.

Mrs. Casey Phillips left recently for Ft. Still, Okla., where she will join her husband, Sergeant Phillips.

Miss Rosa Lee Price was the guest of her parents in Dodson.

Mrs. Curtis Evans left recently for Ft. Still, where she will join her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Yeagers of El Dorado, Ark., are the guests of relatives here.

William Reese Gaston left recently for service with the air corps.

GENERAL HERTZOG OF SOUTH AFRICA DIES

CAPE TOWN, Nov. 21.—(AP)—General J. B. M. Hertzog, former prime minister of the Union of South Africa, who lost office when he denounced Great Britain's war on Germany as a "crime" and tried to keep his country neutral, died today and thus ended a famous feud with Jan Christiaan Smuts, present prime minister.

Hertzog, 76, died at the home of his son in Pretoria. He had entered a hospital two months ago for an abdominal operation.

When Hertzog's government fell as parliament refused to follow his lead and severed relations with Germany at the outset of the war, he ended a 16-year term, believed to be a record for a British dominion statesman. The opposition was led by Smuts, who formed a new cabinet and South Africa soon after declared war.

SALES TAX HIKES STATE'S REVENUE

More Than Offsets Sagging Returns From Gasoline Levies

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Yield from the new state sales tax has more than counteracted sagging returns from the gasoline tax so that revenue department tax collections are holding up higher so far for the present fiscal year compared with the same period a year ago.

A report by Revenue Collector Rufus Fontenot showed today that collections of all taxes handled by his department from July through September, a 3-month period, lagged behind by $287,963.39 the comparable period a year earlier.

However, with inclusion of the first month sales tax receipts in the revenue department's October compilation of tax yields the total collections for the 4-month period through October are $364,138.34 higher than a year ago.

Returns from the sales tax for September, amounting to $352,965.41, really haven't been completely responsible for the favorable collection picture, however.

Where gasoline yield has dropped $1,459,369.89 for the first four months of this fiscal year, compared with last fiscal year, returns from liquor, beer, corporation franchise, income, public utility, severance and tobacco taxes show considerable gains over a year ago.

Liquor taxes for the first four months of the fiscal year are up $384,863.50, beer $108,664.01, corporation franchise $178,213.45, income $364,138.34, public utility $78,179.14, severance $67,708.45, and tobacco $23,909.32.

It may appear odd that severance taxes from petroleum mining have not only held their own but registered a slight increase in the face of dwindling taxes from gasoline. Revenue department aides explain this is due principally to the fact that great quantities of gasoline and oil, on which severance taxes have been paid earlier when removed in petroleum form, now are sold to the government for war purposes and thus are exempt from the gasoline and oil sales taxes.

Severance taxes for the first four months of the fiscal year are up $384,863.50, beer $108,664.01, corporation franchise $178,213.45, income $364,138.34, public utility $78,179.14, severance $67,708.45, and tobacco $23,909.32.

It may appear odd that severance taxes from petroleum mining have not only held their own but registered a slight increase in the face of dwindling taxes from gasoline. Revenue department aides explain this is due principally to the fact that great quantities of gasoline and oil, on which severance taxes have been paid earlier when removed in petroleum form, now are sold to the government for war purposes and thus are exempt from the gasoline and oil sales taxes.

Severance taxes for the first four months of the fiscal year are up $384,863.50, beer $108,664.01, corporation franchise $178,213.45, income $364,138.34, public utility $78,179.14, severance $67,708.45, and tobacco $23,909.32.

It may appear odd that severance taxes from petroleum mining have not only held their own but registered a slight increase in the face of dwindling taxes from gasoline. Revenue department aides explain this is due principally to the fact that great quantities of gasoline and oil, on which severance taxes have been paid earlier when removed in petroleum form, now are sold to the government for war purposes and thus are exempt from the gasoline and oil sales taxes.

Severance taxes for the first four months of the fiscal year are up $384,863.50, beer $108,664.01, corporation franchise $178,213.45, income $364,138.34, public utility $78,179.14, severance $67,708.45, and tobacco $23,909.32.

It may appear odd that severance taxes from petroleum mining have not only held their own but registered a slight increase in the face of dwindling taxes from gasoline. Revenue department aides explain this is due principally to the fact that great quantities of gasoline and oil, on which severance taxes have been paid earlier when removed in petroleum form, now are sold to the government for war purposes and thus are exempt from the gasoline and oil sales taxes.

Severance taxes for the first four months of the fiscal year are up $384,863.50, beer $108,664.01, corporation franchise $178,213.45, income $364,138.34, public utility $78,179.14, severance $67,708.45, and tobacco $23,909.32.

It may appear odd that severance taxes from petroleum mining have not only held their own but registered a slight increase in the face of dwindling taxes from gasoline. Revenue department aides explain this is due principally to the fact that great quantities of gasoline and oil, on which severance taxes have been paid earlier when removed in petroleum form, now are sold to the government for war purposes and thus are exempt from the gasoline and oil sales taxes.

Severance taxes for the first four months of the fiscal year are up $384,863.50, beer $108,664.01, corporation franchise $178,213.45, income $364,138.34, public utility $78,179.14, severance $67,708.45, and tobacco $23,909.32.

It may appear odd that severance taxes from petroleum mining have not only held their own but registered a slight increase in the face of dwindling taxes from gasoline. Revenue department aides explain this is due principally to the fact that great quantities of gasoline and oil, on which severance taxes have been paid earlier when removed in petroleum form, now are sold to the government for war purposes and thus are exempt from the gasoline and oil sales taxes.

Severance taxes for the first four months of the fiscal year are up $384,863.50, beer $108,664.01, corporation franchise $178,213.45, income $364,138.34, public utility $78,179.14, severance $67,708.45, and tobacco $23,909.32.

It may appear odd that severance taxes from petroleum mining have not only held their own but registered a slight increase in the face of dwindling taxes from gasoline. Revenue department aides explain this is due principally to the fact that great quantities of gasoline and oil, on which severance taxes have been paid earlier when removed in petroleum form, now are sold to the government for war purposes and thus are exempt from the gasoline and oil sales taxes.

Severance taxes for the first four months of the fiscal year are up $384,863.50, beer $108,664.01, corporation franchise $178,213.45, income $364,138.34, public utility $78,179.14, severance $67,708.45, and tobacco $23,909.32.

It may appear odd that severance taxes from petroleum mining have not only held their own but registered a slight increase in the face of dwindling taxes from gasoline. Revenue department aides explain this is due principally to the fact that great quantities of gasoline and oil, on which severance taxes have been paid earlier when removed in petroleum form, now are sold to the government for war purposes and thus are exempt from the gasoline and oil sales taxes.

Severance taxes for the first four months of the fiscal year are up $384,863.50, beer $108,664.01, corporation franchise $178,213.45, income $364,138.34, public utility $78,179.14, severance $67,708.45, and tobacco $23,909.32.

ASK PASSAGE OF SCHOOL AID BILL

Byrd, However, Opposes Giving Federal Government Control

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Proponents of a federal program to allot $300,000,000 a year for aid to schools urged today that the long-pending measure be speedily enacted in view of curtailments in state revenues caused by the war but economy advocates promised a fight.

Senator Pepper, Democrat, Florida, said he hoped the measure could be called up Monday after the senate takes the cloture vote which is expected to kill the anti-poll tax bill.

But Senator Byrd, Democrat, Virginia, chairman of the joint congressional economy committee, told reporters that "this is certainly no time to give $300,000,000 to the states when the federal government needs every dollar for the war." Pepper indicated he thought the money angle of secondary importance.

Sponsors of the bill declared that the war would curtail local revenues available for school purposes since rationing would reduce income from state sales taxes and restrictions on motoring would cut the collections of gasoline and motor vehicle license taxes.

Further, they said, the salaries of low-paid teachers must be advanced to overcome the lure of high wages in war industries.

The bill provides that no United States official shall exercise and control over local schools which receive aid but Byrd declared that "passage of this bill will inevitably lead to federal control of the school system."

"The federal government would dictate our school systems and tell us how to run them," he said. "That was the story of federal aid for building highways, and it would just be the same story in the school field."

Byrd said the federal government already had relieved the states of many financial burdens and asserted "there isn't a state in the Union which isn't able to educate its own children."

"The treasury cannot afford not to have the money," Pepper declared. "The education of the people is one of the most important obligations we have."

The announced purpose of the bill is to reduce inequalities of educational opportunities in public schools. The money would be apportioned on the basis of the number of children 5 to 17 years of age in each state, and also on the total net income of individuals in the state.

"In other words," said the senate education and labor committee in reporting the bill earlier this session, "the less income the people of a state receive in relationship to the number of children, the more federal aid that state will receive."

ANTI-POLL TAX BILL EXPECTED TO DIE MONDAY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(AP)—The senate held a clinic today over the Moribund anti-poll tax bill, but lectures by its friends and foes only deepened the general conviction that the measure would die Monday.

The measure remained to be carried out by the terms of an agreement which ended a school-day filibuster, senators will vote at 1 p. m. Monday on invoking the cloture rule, which would limit each member to one hour of discussion.

A two-thirds majority would be required to put the rule into effect, and even the strongest supporters of the measure conceded their inability to muster that many votes against the filibuster.

Close-knit opposition led by a group of southern senators. The bill would abolish the collection of poll taxes as a prerequisite to voting in elections involving federal officials.

BAG ASIX PLANES
ALLIED FORCE HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Nov. 21.—(AP)—In the first week of operations in North Africa, Allied heavy anti-aircraft batteries shot down 23 Axis planes, probably destroyed 10 more, and damaged an additional 18 craft, an official spokesman said today.

RIVER STAGES

Stations	Present	24-Hour	Stage	Change
MISSISSIPPI
St. Louis	10.4	0.1	Fall
Memphis	11.5	0.1	Fall
Helena	15.0	0.1	Fall
Arkansas City	10.2	0.1	Fall
Vicksburg	10.7	0.2	Rise
Natchez	15.4	0.1	Fall
Baton Rouge	10.9	0.0
QUACHITA
Camden	6.5	0.1	Rise
MONROE
Pittsburgh	16.6	0.0
Cincinnati	17.1	1.3	Rise
Cairo	21.0	0.0
TENNESSEE
Chattanooga	8.3	1.5	Fall
CUMBERLAND
Nashville	9.8	0.0
ARKANSAS
Little Rock	6.8	1.8	Rise
RED
Shreveport	9.9	0.7	Fall
Alexandria	10.5	1.1	Fall

Potatoes

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Potatoes, arrivals 66; on track 243; total United States shipments 650; supplies moderate; for Bliss Triumph market steady; other varieties demand light, market about steady; Colorado Red McClure U. S. No. 1, 2.85; Minnesota and North Dakota Bliss Triumph U. S. No. 1, 2.10-25; commercial 1.85-2.15; Cobblers commercial 1.75.

AVERAGE COTTON PRICE
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21.—(AP)—The average price of middling 15-lb. cotton today at ten designated southern spot markets was unchanged at 19.27 cents a pound; average for the past 30 market days was 19.49; middling 7-8ths-inch average was 18.38.

COTTONSEED MEAL
MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 21.—(AP)—Prime cottonseed meal futures (41 per cent) closed quiet. Closing prices: f. o. b. Memphis: Jan. 38.50; March 37.50; May 37.50; July 37.50; Dec. 37.50.

World's Latest Market News

COTTON

New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Cotton futures were irregular here today with the near months much stronger than the distant, apparently due to heavy short switching to forward positions in preparation for first December notice day. The market closed steady 10 cents to $1.05 a bale lower.

Open High Low Close
Dec. 18.75 18.76 18.70 18.70-71 off 4
Jan. 18.76 18.76 18.70 18.70
Feb. 18.76 18.76 18.73 18.74-75 off 2
Mar. 18.76 18.76 18.70 18.73 off 2
July 18.73 18.73 18.61 18.64-67 off 9
Oct. 18.73 18.73 18.54 18.54 off 21

SPOT COTTON
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Spot cotton closed steady ten cents a bale lower. Sales 4,355. Low middling 15.90, middling 19.15, good middling 19.60, receipts 1,379, stock 292,795.

New York

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Cotton futures charted a highly irregular pattern in active trading today with the near months showing strength on aggressive trade price fixing while the far months were under pressure of increasing hedge selling. The October position was a feature in selling off 80 cents a bale at the lows.

The month sold at a discount compared with all other positions on the board which has been under heavy demand to fill large government textile orders.

Futures closed 5 cents a bale higher to 75 cents lower.

Open High Low Close
Dec. 18.51 18.53 18.48 18.49-51 up 1
Jan. 18.57 18.59 18.52 18.54 off 1
Feb. 18.57 18.53 18.48 18.50 off 2
Mar. 18.49 18.51 18.41 18.45-46 off 5
Oct. 18.48 18.51 18.34 18.39-40 off 15
Middling spot 20.20 up 2

Oil And Gas News

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 21.—(AP)—The minerals division of the state conservation department reported today in its weekly listing of activities the completion of eight new oil and distillate wells with an initial daily production of approximately 1,865 barrels.

In addition the division announced completion of two gas wells, the Gulf Refining company's Delta Security company No.

Results Cont---Want Ads Produce Them

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Cards of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

CARD OF THANKS
To express our sincere thanks to our many friends and relatives for the beautiful floral offerings and their other acts of kindness and sympathy at the death of our beloved son, father and brother, Leon J. W. and the Columbus Social Club for their kind deeds, and the Dixie Funeral Home for the many courtesies rendered us.
MRS. LENA CASCO
11-22-A

EMPLOYMENT

33--Help Wanted, Female

EXPERIENCED WAITRESS. Salary $50.00 month and tips. E. P. Simmons, mgr. Hotel Monroe Coffee Shop. 11-24-A

WANTED AT ONCE, 2 experienced waitresses. Tower Grill. 11-22-A

EXPERIENCED STENOGRAPHER. State salary expected references and experience before interview. Confidential. Box ABC News-Star. 11-26-A

WANTED: Young lady to work in studio. Permanent. Rembrandt Studio. Bernhardt Bldg. 11-22-A

WANTED: Experienced waitresses. Apply Primus Cafeteria. 11-27-A

WANTED: Experienced bookkeeper. Must be able to type. Permanent position for the right party. Answer in own handwriting. Give telephone number and references. Write Box "A" News-Star-World. 11-26-A

OPEN RAWLHOUT ROUTES are scarce but in so vast an organization expansion creates new opportunities. If ambitious, write to start with good earnings and increase rapidly write for full information. We supply sales, advertising literature--all you need. Rawlough's, Dept. LAK-103, Memphis, Tenn. 11-24-A

MAN WANTED with filling station experience to look after fleet of cars. Good proposition. Apply Leonard Rowland, La. Power & Light Co., West Monroe, La. Phone 666. 11-24-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

FINANCIAL

40--Investments, Stks., Bonds

LOANS ON REAL ESTATE
5%
Direct Reduction Plan
PEOPLE'S HOMESTEAD AND SAVINGS ASSN.
11-23-A

WANTED: Young lady to work in studio. Permanent. Rembrandt Studio. Bernhardt Bldg. 11-22-A

WANTED: Experienced waitresses. Apply Primus Cafeteria. 11-27-A

WANTED: Experienced bookkeeper. Must be able to type. Permanent position for the right party. Answer in own handwriting. Give telephone number and references. Write Box "A" News-Star-World. 11-26-A

OPEN RAWLHOUT ROUTES are scarce but in so vast an organization expansion creates new opportunities. If ambitious, write to start with good earnings and increase rapidly write for full information. We supply sales, advertising literature--all you need. Rawlough's, Dept. LAK-103, Memphis, Tenn. 11-24-A

MAN WANTED with filling station experience to look after fleet of cars. Good proposition. Apply Leonard Rowland, La. Power & Light Co., West Monroe, La. Phone 666. 11-24-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

WANTED: Sawmill construction millwrights. Write Chicago Mill and Lumber Company, Tallulah, Louisiana. 11-24-A

WANTED 2 assistant ambulance drivers. Apply at once Dixie Funeral Home. 11-25-A

MERCHANDISE

70--Wanted To Buy

WE BUY Aroyales soybeans and furnish bags.
TYNER-PETRUS & CO.
Phone 1823 11-25-A

WE BUY USED FURNITURE
NEW YORK HARDWARE & FURNITURE CO.
823 DeSiard Phone 5500 11-23-A

Cash for Used Furniture
Exchange Hardware and Furniture Co.
105 North St. Phone 884 11-24-A

WANTED TO PURCHASE
Pecans--Pecans--Pecans
ALL SIZES--ANY QUANTITY
THE LIEBER CO.
100 S. 11TH ST. L. D. PHONE 245 11-26-A

Wanted To Buy
All kinds of used furniture
The Swap Shop
Sewing machine, stoves and clock repairing a specialty
908 DeSiard St. Phone 514 11-24-A

WANTED TO BUY all kinds of used furniture and clothes. We pay highest cash prices. For quick pick-ups call Elmore Furniture and Repair Shop
2208 DeSiard Phone 713 11-21-P

Whiskey warehouse receipts, a n y distillation. What have you to offer. Send full particulars to James E. Comiskey Co., 100 Common street, New Orleans, La. Phone Raymond 9411. 11-22-A

WE PAY MORE FOR USED FURNITURE
HOLLIS FURNITURE CO. PHONE 1665 11-24-A

WE BUY and sell used furniture, plumbing fixtures and building materials. Trading Post, 711 Wash. Phone 6052 11-23-A

REAL ESTATE FOR RENT
71--Apartments, Furnished
VERY DESIRABLE furnished apartment in W. M. for couple. Private in every detail. You pay utilities. Located between 2 bus lines. References required. Mrs. H. C. Mize, 118 Copely St. 11-25-A

3-BEDROOM FURNISHED APARTMENT. High-ray 80. In front of AA Tourist Home. Couple desired. 11-22-A

3-BEDROOM furnished apartment. In private home. 2206 Gordon. Phone 3747. 11-25-A

FURNISHED APARTMENT, share kitchen, bath, and living room. Husband in army. Couple preferred. Call 4250-W before 1 p. m. 11-22-A

6 ROOM nicely furnished apartment, 3 room furnished or unfurnished apartment. Close in. On bus line. 11-22-A

SMALL FURNISHED APARTMENT and bedroom, convenient to bath. Front entrance. 800 St. John. Phone 2238-2. 11-22-A

71-A--Apts., Unfurnished
2 UNFURNISHED ROOMS, 494 Coleman. W. M. Phone 6985-W. 11-24-A

72--Business Places
COMPLETE EQUIPPED sandwich shop. Have been doing nice business. Phone 2773-M. Mrs. Banks. 11-28-A

Several stores in 500 block DeSiard Street. H. L. Rosenheim, Realtor 315 Ouachita Bank Bldg. Phone 1307 11-24-A

Twin City Motor Building, located on South Grand St. H. L. Rosenheim, Realtor 315 Ouachita Bank Bldg. Phone 1307 11-24-A

77--Rooms With Board
This luxurious home, combining quality and style, is dedicated to the comfort and happiness of a family who demand refined environment. 11-25-A

Containing entrance hall, large living room with open tile and tile fireplace. Large and comfortable sun parlor overlooking the garden. Dining room, first floor, and bathroom on first floor. Master bedroom with dressing room and private bath, two large bedrooms with connecting bath, all with ceiling fans. Large living room. Large storage, trunk and luggage room, car lined, and a bathroom of other closets on second floor. Best oak windows, painted walls, all doors and windows weather stripped. Central steam heating system. 11-24-A Double garage with separate toilet room. Large storage room and two closets overlooking the garden. All drives, walks and flower beds. Large lawn. Large room, 212 ft. front, beautiful lawn, flowers, shrubbery and trees. 11-24-A

A bargain priced at half its cost. Shown by appointment only. No information over the phone. 11-24-A

815 Ouachita Bank Bldg. Phone 1307 11-24-A

FRONT FURNISHED BEDROOM. Private entrance. Adjoining bath. On bus line. 2414 Lee. Phone 3591-J. 11-24-A

FRONT FURNISHED BEDROOM. Private entrance. Close to bath. 606 N. 4th. West Monroe. Phone 4097-R. 11-25-A

FRONT BEDROOM. Adjoining bath. Couple or 2 gentlemen. Breakfast if desired. 114 Carolina. Phone 1788-J. 11-25-A

DESIRABLE BEDROOM in vicinity of airport. Twin beds. Beautifully furnished. 2 gentlemen. Private entrance. Available Dec. 1st. Phone 1915. 11-24-A

NICE front bedroom. Beautifully furnished. 300 Alexander. Phone 2311. 11-24-A

FRONT BEDROOM. Private entrance. Adjoining bath. Also can have use of garage. 208 Miro. 11-22-A

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

84--Business Prop. For Sale

COMBINATION store and dwelling, 3 tourist cabins. Lot 7x165. Located on Dixie Overland Highway. Close in to West Monroe. Price $1500 cash.
Luther Reed & Co.
Phone 3050 11-24-A

85--Farms & Land For Sale
56 ACRES of land and 3-room house, 4 miles from city limits just off Shreveport highway. For quick sale $2,375. Phone 5400. 11-28-A

See Me for Farm Lands
E. B. JOHNSTON
321 Bernhardt Bldg. Phone 45 11-24-A

ONE 4-ROOM HOUSE and one 3 room; and 114 acres of land. 39 acres in cultivation. Located 1 1/2 miles east of Shreveport. For quick sale $3,000. E. W. Cruise, 302 Ouachita Bank Bldg. Phone 5400. 11-27-A

40 ACRES OF LAND. Nice 6-room house, 2 tenant houses. Dairy barn and other out houses. Practical 1/2 mile of good pasture. About 6 miles from postoffice on Prairie road. For quick sale $3,000. E. W. Cruise, 302 Ouachita Bank Bldg. Phone 5400. 11-24-A

5, 2-ROOM HOUSES 1 1/2 acres of land. Hardwood floors. New roof. Recently finished. Lights and gas. For quick sale, $2,700. Phone 5400. 11-24-A

40 ACRES LAND and 5-room house 1 1/2 miles off Shreveport highway on Farmville road. For quick sale, $1,290. Phone 5400. 11-27-A

86--Houses For Sale
NICE 3-BEDROOM HOUSE. Screen porch. In good condition. 1407 N. 5th. Can be seen by appointment only. For quick sale, $6,300. Phone 5400. 11-25-A 6-ROOM COTTAGE, 2 bedrooms, 2 shower baths. Lot 83x25. Located near Junior College on Concordia St. Price $3,900. Convenient terms can be arranged.

Luther Reed & Co.
Phone 3050 11-24-A

4-ROOM HOUSE and bath. Lot 60x150. 1 block off DeSiard St. on McGuire St. Morning Side Addition. For quick sale $2,200. Phone 5400. 11-28-A

2 apartment houses--1904 Jackson. Central location. Near Pacific Shop. 213 Texas--7 rooms and screened back porch. Already finished.
MRS. R. E. DAVIS
Phone 1094 11-24-A

NICE 5-ROOM HOUSE. Tile bath. 200 Powell Ave., near Jr. college. For quick sale $2,250. Phone 5400. 11-24-A

7-room house, 3 bedrooms, breakfast room, bath and shower. Located near Junior College on Concordia St. Price $3,900. Convenient terms can be arranged.
Luther Reed & Co.
Phone 3050 11-24-A

4-ROOM HOUSE and bath. Lot 60x150. 1 block off DeSiard St. on McGuire St. Morning Side Addition. For quick sale $2,200. Phone 5400. 11-28-A

2 apartment houses--1904 Jackson. Central location. Near Pacific Shop. 213 Texas--7 rooms and screened back porch. Already finished.
MRS. R. E. DAVIS
Phone 1094 11-24-A

NICE 5-ROOM HOUSE. Tile bath. 200 Powell Ave., near Jr. college. For quick sale $2,250. Phone 5400. 11-24-A

7-room house, 3 bedrooms, breakfast room, bath and shower. Located near Junior College on Concordia St. Price $3,900. Convenient terms can be arranged.
Luther Reed & Co.
Phone 3050 11-24-A

4-ROOM HOUSE and bath. Lot 60x150. 1 block off DeSiard St. on McGuire St. Morning Side Addition. For quick sale $2,200. Phone 5400. 11-28-A

2 apartment houses--1904 Jackson. Central location. Near Pacific Shop. 213 Texas--7 rooms and screened back porch. Already finished.
MRS. R. E. DAVIS
Phone 1094 11-24-A

NICE 5-ROOM HOUSE. Tile bath. 200 Powell Ave., near Jr. college. For quick sale $2,250. Phone 5400. 11-24-A

7-room house, 3 bedrooms, breakfast room, bath and shower. Located near Junior College on Concordia St. Price $3,900. Convenient terms can be arranged.
Luther Reed & Co.
Phone 3050 11-24-A

4-ROOM HOUSE and bath. Lot 60x150. 1 block off DeSiard St. on McGuire St. Morning Side Addition. For quick sale $2,200. Phone 5400. 11-28-A

2 apartment houses--1904 Jackson. Central location. Near Pacific Shop. 213 Texas--7 rooms and screened back porch. Already finished.
MRS. R. E. DAVIS
Phone 1094 11-24-A

NICE 5-ROOM HOUSE. Tile bath. 200 Powell Ave., near Jr. college. For quick sale $2,250. Phone 5400. 11-24-A

7-room house, 3 bedrooms, breakfast room, bath and shower. Located near Junior College on Concordia St. Price $3,900. Convenient terms can be arranged.
Luther Reed & Co.
Phone 3050 11-24-A

4-ROOM HOUSE and bath. Lot 60x150. 1 block off DeSiard St. on McGuire St. Morning Side Addition. For quick sale $2,200. Phone 5400. 11-28-A

2 apartment houses--1904 Jackson. Central location. Near Pacific Shop. 213 Texas--7 rooms and screened back porch. Already finished.
MRS. R. E. DAVIS
Phone 1094 11-24-A

NICE 5-ROOM HOUSE. Tile bath. 200 Powell Ave., near Jr. college. For quick sale $2,250. Phone 5400. 11-24-A

7-room house, 3 bedrooms, breakfast room, bath and shower. Located near Junior College on Concordia St. Price $3,900. Convenient terms can be arranged.
Luther Reed & Co.
Phone 3050 11-24-A

4-ROOM HOUSE and bath. Lot 60x150. 1 block off DeSiard St. on McGuire St. Morning Side Addition. For quick sale $2,200. Phone 5400. 11-28-A

COFFEE GOES ON RESTRICTED LIST

(Continued from First Page)

EVERYTHING IS IN 'THOUSANDS'

Ordnance Plant in Mississippi So Big That They're Not Kidding

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 21.—(P)—They use the word "thousands" in every other sentence spoken there around the ordnance unit training center at the Mississippi ordnance plant near Flora, Miss.—and they're not bragging and not kidding.

Thousands of men and acres and feet of floor space and jobs.

Even the obstacle course—probably one of the toughest in the country—seems, new recruits say, "a thousand miles long."

Whether there are a thousand buildings on the huge, rolling tract wasn't revealed to new recruits permitted to visit the giant establishment this week.

Lieutenant B. J. Viviano, Plainfield, N. J., former all-American who chauffeured newspapermen on a trip through the camp, explained that officers have made sort of a game out of the rapid construction.

"We try to get around at least once a day," he explained, "to see if we can keep up with every new building."

The plant is under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Herbert L. Kalbach and the training center under Lieutenant Colonel Gunnar C. Carlson. The idea of the whole setup is to turn out men who can not only "pass the ammunition" but make sure that ammunition functions to perfection.

Men being trained at the center—and they come from all over the country—are specially selected for their ability as mechanics, diesel experts, watchmakers and other occupations needed by the service.

One of the first objects encountered by newsmen—and recruits—is the obstacle course—a rather prosaic name for a plot of rough ground full of inanimate objects that can do everything but kick a careless soldier in the teeth.

Ordinance men have fighting to do, too, it seems, as they accompany every unit right into battle. So the men themselves built a course to put them in condition.

Handicapped by such little items as a gas mask, pack and rifle all a soldier has to be able to do, eventually is run—not trot—around a course that includes:

Log hurdles, ditches, fiendishly staggered posts, high walls, culverts, a model ship's side to climb up on ropes and get down on netting—into a rocking model lifeboat, low tunnels, hills, balanced planks and a pit that can be crossed only hand-over-hand on a rope.

But the 27th, a Louisiana company commanded by Capt. M. A. Bourg of New Orleans, hurled themselves around the course with such vigor that they had to be cautioned.

The 27th incidentally is being rewarded for its spirit. Captain Bourg, who knows what Louisianians think of such things, sees that his boys get such home food as oysters and gumbo "just like back in Abbeville."

Visitors learn that ordnance men have one task not exactly intended for the faint-hearted—the demolition of every shell that hits and fails to explode.

The job is something like that of London's famed bomb squads. "Dud" shells often are not just playing "possum"—just sort of lying in wait for some untrained soldier to give a slight jab before blasting the air with steel fragments.

So all the ordnance men have to do is reach the duds, usually by digging, struggle up to it with a block of TNT or nitro starch, creep carefully away—and blow up the whole works.

It's just as dangerous as it sounds and twice as complicated.

Lieutenant Ralph G. Labroad, ammunition expert, showed cautiously-stepping newsmen how the innocent-looking nitro starch blocks are packed around a shell and asked them to step back a piece while five pounds of the explosive were set off.

He finally caught up with them and gave the signal. Among other objects, a huge section of a tree trunk seemed to float gently into the air and disappear. The noise was sort of an earth-shaking "ba-loom!"

There was plenty more to be seen around the center. Such as a classroom full of shells ranging from .30 caliber to rifles to huge eight-inchers of the type Germans and English hurl at each other across the channel, each with characteristics requiring different handling.

The 412-bed hospital, supervised by Major Allen L. Decamp, post surgeon, with X-ray and other equipment capable of handling almost any emergency in the camp city, is a story in itself, as are the rows and rows of barracks, mess halls and other buildings.

There were other items, too, which accredited newsmen were told to look at for an forget—some little "surprises" destined to leave Schickelgruber's and Hirohito's thugs, a bit hurt—and not just emotionally, either!

DRAFT BOARD MOVES

The local draft board No. 1 is moving its offices from the eleventh floor of the Ouachita bank building to 124 1-2 South Grand street. The board will be open for business as usual Monday morning at its new location over the Culp Music store.

FARMERS ABLE TO AID IN WAR

Can Keep Land Producing In Triple A Program Announced

Every Ouachita parish farmer can use the recently announced 1943 AAA program to plan an individual pasture program that will keep his land producing for the war effort and yielding an income despite the labor shortage, according to parish triple A administrative officer, L. E. Lucas.

Mr. Lucas pointed out that the AAA payment formerly made for summer legumes interplanted with corn has been cut out of the program to make more money available for pastures. The allowance for individual farms under the AAA program will be greater in 1943 than in any previous year and in addition to the regular allowance there will be an extra $15 for each farm that can be earned by establishing new pastures or by re-seeding old pastures.

The payments that can be earned by application of phosphate, basic slag, potash, or limestone to pastures where needed also have been increased over the 1942 rates.

For instance, Mr. Lucas said, the payment that can be earned by applying phosphate to a pasture has been increased from 3.4 cents a pound to 4.1-2 cents a pound. The payment rate for basic slag has been increased from $6.00 a ton in 1942 to $9.30 a ton in 1943; the rate for potash has been increased from 3.5 cents a pound to 4 cents—much less than through regular commercial channels—and the rate for limestone has been increased from $3.50 to $3.80 east of the Mississippi river and from $4.50 to $4.65 west of the river. There is a payment of 25 cents an acre for moving to control weeds. All these are in addition to the special payment of not more than $15 per farm for planting and re-seeding pastures with approved grass mixtures.

"A good pasture can make a great contribution to the food freedom campaign through increased livestock production," he added. "It is expected that this will be one of the most valuable features of the new AAA program. Agricultural workers of all agencies have been supplied with the details of the pasture program and will be glad to discuss it with anyone who is interested."

The Ouachita parish farm transportation committee is now reviewing and recommending applications for new farm trucks in the parish, according to announcements by W. F. Ross, chairman of the committee.

The committee has recently completed a survey of farm transportation needs in the parish at the request of the office of defense transportation, the chairman said, and it is expected that this survey and similar surveys which have been conducted in every other parish and county through the nation, will serve as a basis for allocation of farm trucks for sale in various regions.

Included in the Ouachita parish survey was such information as the number and kind of trucks now in use, the size and variety of food crops produced here, the seasonal demand on transportation facilities, the number of farms, and so forth.

Applications for the purchase of new trucks needed in the harvest of the 1942 crops now can be made through the parish farm transportation committee, whose headquarters are at 704 Cypress street in West Monroe.

Members of the transportation committee, in addition to Chairman Ross, are Fred Huenefeld, Fred Riser, Clayton Calhoun and A. Petrus.

The committee chairman pointed out that the manufacture of trucks for ordinary civilian use has been halted and that there is only a very limited supply of new trucks on hand.

COLORED CHURCH HAS HOMECOMING

The annual homecoming week will be observed by the members of the First Baptist church, colored, 321 North Eighth street, this week. The pastor is P. C. Keal and the week is to be sponsored by the Sunday school, and all departments of the church.

The other churches of the city and general public are invited to participate. The Barn Jubilee singers will be in charge each night. E. J. Reynolds is chairman; Odessa Alstark, secretary; and R. B. Powell general superintendent of the school.

Pause... Refresh

5¢ COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY MONROE, LA. PHONE 184

War Girl Of The Week

JOSEPHINE DOZIER

"Like mother like daughter," a revision of the old saying, presents Josephine Dozier, chief clerk of the Sub-Depot headquarters. Her mother, Mrs. Adelaide Cross, is chief clerk of the Quartermaster office at Barksdale field and her daughter, at the early age of twenty-one, has followed in her footsteps to this high-ranking position.

"Jo" comes from an old army family. She was born on the Fort Riley reservation in Kansas where her father was first sergeant in the cavalry. She spent her early childhood on the post where she learned to ride, swim and hunt. After the death of Sergeant Cross, who was killed in an maneuvers, the family moved to Shreveport.

Here "Jo" finished grammar school and attended Byrd High school where she majored in math. After five months at Norton's Business college, she secured a position with a contracting agency constructing the theater at Barksdale field. Then came three months at the Burroughs Adding Machine company, only to find herself desiring to return to army work.

On May 5, 1941, she again was employed at Barksdale field as under mail file and record clerk where she

FARM BUREAU IS TO HOLD MEET

Session Slated At Baton Rouge Hotel November 30-December 1

"Organized For War and Peace" is the theme of the annual farm bureau federation convention which will meet in Baton Rouge November 30 and December 1 and will feature addresses by Governor Jones; J. E. Stanford, editor of the Southern Agriculturist, Nashville, Tenn.; Farm Bureau President R. N. Amacker, and I. W. Dugan, director of the southern region of the AAA, Washington, D. C.

At meetings at the Hotel Heidelberg, where the convention will be held, the problems of shortages of farm labor, farm machinery, fertilizers, insecticides and containers will be discussed. Also coming in for a share of the limelight will be the acute transportation situation.

During the afternoon of November 30 commodity conferences will meet, where recommendations and plans by the various commodity groups will be considered and prepared for presentation to the house of voting delegates. The house of voting delegates is made up of one member from each of the 59 parishes which are affiliated with the bureau who vote to accept or reject the proposals of the commodity committees as a part of the program for the ensuing year.

Commodity committee meetings which will be held prior to the opening of the convention will include the following: Sugar, cotton, dairy, rice, livestock, Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, poultry, vegetables and forestry. Others to speak on the program are H. C. Sanders, director of the Louisiana State university agricultural extension division; J. G. Lee, Jr., dean of the university's college of agriculture; R. G. Arnold, with the American Farm Bureau federation, and Miss Ellen LeNoir, state home demonstration agent.

Closing the convention will be the election of officers for next year. Officers serving this year are President Amacker, S. C. Munson, first vice-president, and A. C. Marist, second vice-president.

NOTED SPEAKER TO GIVE TALK

DeLoss Walker Will Speak On Problems In War To Men Of Area

"Our Problem in War" will be the subject of an address to be delivered at the Ouachita Parish High school auditorium, Wednesday at 8 p.m. by DeLoss Walker, nationally noted lecturer. His appearance here at this time in a lecture to be delivered without charge to the public, is made possible through the cooperation of all six civic clubs of the Twin Cities, the Kiwanis clubs of Monroe and West Monroe; the Lions club, the Rotary club, the Exchange club and the Y's Mens club.

Mr. Walker, "modern crusader" on economic and sociological subjects, will deal with the fundamental factors involved in revitalizing America after the war is won for the solution of the urgent problem of peace.

Wednesday night has been termed "All civic clubs night," and an inspiring public meeting for men of this entire area has been arranged. It is hoped that all men will make a special effort to attend.

Mr. Walker, who for ten years has toured the nation speaking before civic and commercial bodies, industrial and labor groups, and a hundred other meetings, is known for his "dynamic delivery of basic truths" and as an inspirer of constructive action on Main Street.

It happens that Mr. Walker has had considerable experience in the present Pacific theater of war.

When filling an appointment for the government in China, and visits to Japan, Mr. Walker learned the peculiar Oriental psychology; he talks about what we may expect from Japan.

With America in two wars (10,000 miles apart) DeLoss Walker looks to business—as much as unity and morale—for a complete victory. In the World war he was called back from the army by the government, to the business world. With the coming of an acute coal shortage, Mr. Walker was sent back to his coal mines to speed up production. He knows what "war economy" means from actual experience.

In the depth of the depression, Mr. Walker made a survey of economic problem, which caused him to become a co-founder of the National Recovery Act (and later a national director). His city-wide campaigns to start business, release frozen credits, and create jobs, gained him national attention.

VILLE PLATTE TO HAVE GAS LINE

Material for the Ville Platte to Alexandria natural gas line, which the government recently gave Southern Gas lines of Monroe authority to construct, is being delivered on the location.

Preliminary work on the line, which will be built to help supplement the supply has just been started near Ville Platte the past week. Company officials estimate that it will require five or more weeks to construct the line.

American war factories use more than a ton of diamonds for cutting edges in a year.

SPEAKS HERE

DE LOSS WALKER

PASTERNAK ON BOARD OF BANK

FERRIDAY, La., Nov. 21.—(Special)—Judge John Dale, president of the Concordia Bank and Trust company, announced yesterday the election of Joseph Pasternack of Ferriday, La., as vice-president and a member of the board of directors of that institution.

Mr. Pasternack is a member of the firm of Pasternack's which operates one of the largest wholesale and retail hardware, mercantile, furniture and grocery businesses in this section.

Mr. Pasternack has long been identified with business and social activities in Ferriday and Concordia parish. He is a member of the Board of Aldermen of the town of Ferriday, to which position he has been reelected several times.

The other officers of this institution in addition to Mr. Pasternack are John Dale, president; Fred Falkenhainer, cashier; Mrs. Katherine Falkenhainer, assistant cashier; S. A. Murray, manager of the Ferriday office.

MELVIN JOHNSTON IS HOME

Melvin Johnston, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Johnston, is at home again, after 17 weeks in the Shriner's hospital in Shreveport. The boy has been receiving treatment to lengthen his right leg, which has been shorter than the other since birth. The treatment was pronounced a success, and Melvin is now learning to walk again. It will be several weeks before he can resume his school work, so friends are invited to come to his home, 2806 Gordon avenue, to see him.

REPORT TO POLK

Private Alvis Gaston and Private Luther E. Carter have reported to Camp Polk for duty with the 48th Armored division, 491st Field Artillery battalion. Gaston is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lee Gaston, H. Ridge, and Carter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carter, Rayville.

XMAS SPECIAL

100 NOTEHEADS AND ENVELOPES $2.25

Printed on Hammermill Bond, size 7 by 10 1/2 Monarch size envelopes to match.

Neatly boxed personal stationery is always a welcome Christmas gift.

SEND THE BOYS IN UNCLE SAM'S SERVICE A BOX FOR XMAS

WE HAVE INSIGNIA CUTS FOR EVERY BRANCH OF THE ARMED FORCES

3-DAY SERVICE — CASH AND CARRY

OPEN SATURDAY AFTERNOON

TWIN CITY PRINTING CO.

300 SOUTH GRAND — OPPOSITE COURTHOUSE

Good Health DEPENDS ON What You Eat

DON'T RATION YOUR FAMILY'S VITAMINS

Science has discovered that proper nutrition is the key to better health. What you eat may determine whether you will be well, and how long you may live.

- This is vitally important in wartime. America must keep healthy to win. Sickness means lost time, and lost time interrupts the flow of war materials toward the fighting fronts.
- Make sure that your family has the right kind of food, properly cooked. Your Government asks you to do this—it's your patriotic duty as a homemaker.
- Help America toward Victory by eating right and keeping well.

Join the United Home Volunteers . . . Your Opportunity to Serve!

- ### TO KEEP HEALTHY DO THESE SIMPLE THINGS:

  1. Eat Properly
  2. Keep Warm
  3. Get Your Rest
  4. Relax a Little
- Everybody's diet should include meat, milk, butter, eggs, vegetables, enriched cereals, bread and fruit.

Avoid chilling—keep the house comfortably warm, and dress to meet cold weather changes.

Rest is vital. Breakdowns start due to lack of it. Rest regularly, and get 8 hours' sleep every night.

If you don't have a hobby, find one. . . . Work hard, play a little—every day.

UNITED GAS CORPORATION

GOOD GAS SERVICE. More than just gas.

5¢ COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY

MONROE, LA. PHONE 184

Nowhere a Finer Service Nowhere a Fairer Price

The Friendly Dixie Funeral Home

MONROE'S FINEST

C. A. Hall
MANAGER & OWNER

PHONE 577

BURIAL INS.—AMBULANCE & FUNERAL SERVICE

Salute America's Automotive Mechanics!

They Serve America by Keeping Our Cars and Trucks Serving for Victory

Why America's Cars and Trucks Are VEHICLES OF VICTORY*

- Sole transportation for war workers in many communities.
- Sole transportation for war materials in many communities.
- Six out of every ten farms use one car or more.
- 67 per cent of all farm car mileage is necessity driving.
- Many war plants depend on trucks to haul all "Victory" freight.
- Trucks alone serve 54,000 communities not reached by railroads.

SEE YOUR CHEVROLET DEALER TODAY

Headquarters for *** VICTORY SERVICE ***
on all makes of cars and trucks

*All statements based on reports compiled by the Michigan State Highway Department and the Statistical Department of A. M. A.

LEE-ROGERS CHEVROLET CO., INC.

223 Walnut St. Phone 2344

DICK TRACY

HE FOUND A DEAD MAN UP THERE!
THE PLACE IS FULL OF POISON GAS.

GAS?

WHEN THIS FELLOW WENT UP THAT LADDER TO FIX THE TELEPHONE WIRE, THE GAS HIT HIM FROM THE CHIMNEY.

HE'S ONE OF THE AIR WARDENS AT THE TELEPHONE COMPANY. HE KNOWS THE SYMPTOMS.

THE VIOLENT COUGHING— AND BLISTERS ON THE FACE ARE— SURE SIGNS OF GAS.

KEEP WASHING HIM WITH THAT SODA SOLUTION— AND GIVE HIM PLENTY OF HOT COFFEE.

THE FELLOW I JUST BROUGHT DOWN IS DONE FOR. FOR GOOD.

I THINK YOUR BUDDY'S BACK HAS BEEN INJURED FROM THE FALL— BUT OTHERWISE HE'S COMING AROUND.

THEY JUST SENT OVER SOME MORE GAS MASKS.

LUCKILY THERE'S A STIFF WIND BLOWING OR THAT GAS WOULD BE DOWN HERE.

I'LL STAY HERE WITH HIM TILL THE AMBULANCE COMES.

EASY, BOYS! LET'S LOOK THE PLACE OVER.

WHAT'S THIS GUMMY LOOKING STUFF ON THE TABLE?

COMING FROM THE BOTTOM OF THE LIGHT FIXTURE, EH?

THE HEAT OF THE LIGHT BULB HAS MELTED SOMETHING IN HERE— WHAT IN TH—?

HEY! WHAT'S THAT NOISE?

COMING OUT OF THE HEATING VENT.

LET'S KEEP IT UP, DENNIS. THEY'RE BOUND TO HEAR US.

MEANWHILE, TWO DOORS AWAY, PRUNE FACE WATCHES THE FRUITS OF HIS KNAVERY WITH A FIENDISH GLEE.

THE FOOLS! I THINK, TOGO, I SHALL GO DOWN TO THE STREET WHERE I CAN SEE THEM BETTER!

GOING TO THE ROOF OF HIS BUILDING, PRUNE FACE PRESSES HIS HAND ON A SPECIALLY-CONSTRUCTED FLAG-POLE, COUNTERBALANCED WITH A SPRING AND HINGED TO THE ROOF—

I'LL BE BACK PROMPTLY AT NINE O'CLOCK, TOGO.

I'LL BE WAITING HERE FOR YOU, PRUNE FACE

THAT ABANDONED WAREHOUSE— WITH EVERY DOOR AND WINDOW NAILED UP! WHO WOULD EVER DREAM OF GETTING IN AND OUT OF IT BY MEANS OF A FLAG-POLE.

OH HA! HA! HA! HA!

Little Orphan Annie

MRS. SLEET---"AUNTIE PRISS," AS ANNIE CALLS HER---PRACTICALLY FORCED ME TO TAKE OVER THIS GUEST HOUSE--- SOLD IT TO ME, TO SAVE MY PRIDE--- SHE KNEW I JUST WANTED TO CRAWL AWAY SOMEWHERE--- BUT I'LL WORK HERE--- SHE'S AN UNDERSTANDING FRIEND---

YES, SHE EXPECTS ME TO GET BACK TO WORK, AND SHE KNOWS THAT HERE I WON'T LET HER DOWN--- WORK--- FIDDLING AROUND IN A LITTLE LABORATORY! GUINEA PIGS! RABBITS! TEST TUBES! BAH!

I, WHO WAS A SURGEON! AND A GOOD ONE, TOO, IF I DO SAY SO! BUT NOW? GAD! MAYBE I WAS AS BIG A SUCKER AS OLD DUBB SAID, TO ENLIST AS I DID---

I DON'T THINK I FANCED MYSELF AS A HERO---I REALLY WANTED TO HELP OUR COUNTRY--- OUR FIGHTING MEN--- BUT, WHAT A JOKE ON ME, EH? WHAT A GHASTLY JOKE---

HELLO, DOCTOR---

EH? OH, HELLO---YOU MUST BE DRIFTWOOD--- ANNIE TOLD ME OF YOU--- COME IN! NICE OF YOU TO CALL ON A USELESS OLD CRIPPLE---

YOU? WHY, YOU ARE A VERY FINE SURGEON--- YOU ARE NOT USELESS---

NO? HA! HA! A ONE-HANDED SURGEON, EH? A LEFT-HANDED ONE, AT THAT! NOPE! I'M ALL WASHED UP, DRIFTWOOD, AND I KNOW IT---

YOU ARE SAD AND DISCOURAGED NOW--- I THINK IT IS SHOCK---I HAVE SEEN THE SAME BEFORE---

HM-M-M---YES, I GUESS YOU HAVE SEEN A LOT, WHERE YOU CAME FROM---

YES--- YOU HAVE LOST AN ARM---HONORABLY--- AS THEY SAY HERE, "SO WHAT?" YOU HAVE ANOTHER ARM--- AND THEY DID NOT SHOOT OFF YOUR HEAD!

NO-O-O---I STILL KNOW AS MUCH AS I EVER DID--- BUT MY HANDS! THINK OF MY HANDICAP---

HANDICAP! YES---MY FATHER USED OFTEN TO TELL ME STORIES---OF MILTON, WHO WAS BLIND--- OF BYRON, WHO HAD A CLUB FOOT---

DEMOSTHENES STUTTERED YET BECAME ONE OF THE WORLD'S BEST ORATORS! A HUNCHBACK GOT TO BE ONE OF ENGLAND'S FINEST PRIME MINISTERS---AND WE ALL KNOW OF ONE OF THE GREATEST VICTORIES OVER HANDICAP, RIGHT IN THIS WONDERFUL COUNTRY---

HANDICAP? MY FATHER USED TO SAY ANY MAN CAN BE A SUCCESS---BUT ONLY A MAN BLESSED WITH SOME HANDICAP CAN BECOME REALLY GREAT!

SON, YOU'RE A PHILOSOPHER! BUT, NO KIDDING! YOU'VE GIVEN ME AN IDEA! GIVEN, AND YOU'VE GIVEN ME COURAGE---

COURAGE? YOU HAVE PLENTY OF COURAGE! I HAVE SEEN TOO MANY OF MY PEOPLE NOT TO KNOW A BRAVE MAN AT SIGHT---

Maw Green

YE SHOULD HIRE A GOOD LAWYER---

LAWYER! BAH! DON'T TALK TO ME ABOUT LAWYERS!

I'VE HAD SO MUCH TROUBLE OVER HIS ESTATE THAT SOMETIMES I ALMOST WISH MY HUSBAND HADN'T DIED!

THE KATZENJAMMER KIDS

by KNERR

DER LETTER FROM DER LAYNER SAYS DOT DER OIL VELL VOT I BOUGHT STOCK IN ISS FULL MIT DUST!- COISES ON DER LUCK!

IF I HAD BEEN SUCH A DUMMOX I WOULD CRAWL IN A HOLE UND PULL DER HOLE IN AFTER ME!

DON'T BE FOOLISH! HOW COULD HE PULL A HOLE IN AFTER HIM?

ALWAYS I HAD A NOTION DER INSPECTOR SHOULD DO DOT!

COME, COME! COVER UP DER HOSE-PIPE! TIME ISS FRITTERING!

OOH, MAMA! COME QUICK! DER INSPECTOR DONE CHUST VOT DER CAPTAIN SAID!

VOT? YOU MEAN ABOUT PULLING DER HOLE IN AFTER?

HERE ISS WHERE HE PULLED DER HOLE IN, MAMA!

ISS YOU IN DERE INSPECTOR?

CHASS! UND SO VOT? IF I WANT TO PULL A HOLE IN, DOT'S MY BIZNESS!

HE MUST BE IN DER HEAD GE-TOUCHED OR HE WOULDN'T HAF DONE IT!

NOW CHUST KEEP CALM UND MAMA VILL DIG YOU OUT IN A CHIFFY!

GO AHEAD UND DIG! YOU CAN'T CATCH UP MIT ME!

HIMMEL! HE KIN PULL A HOLE IN FASTER DAN VOT I T'UGHT!

MY! MY! WHO WOULD HAF BELIEVED IT?

HAR! HAR! I AM OFER HERE NOW! YOU DIDN'T KNOW I COULD BURROW LIKE A GOPHER!

OH, MY! HE ISS PULLING DER HOLE SIDEWAYS!

PUT YOUR EAR TO DER GROUND, MAMA! MIGHTBE YOU COULD HEAR NICH VAY HE ISS DIGGING!

NOW I DON'T HEAR HIM ANY MORE! MAYBE HE GOT HIS MOUTH FULL MIT SAND!

PSST! COMES HIS NIBS!

UND DER FELLER SAID DOT OIL VELL WOULD BE A SLUSHER! CHUST WAIT!

OW!

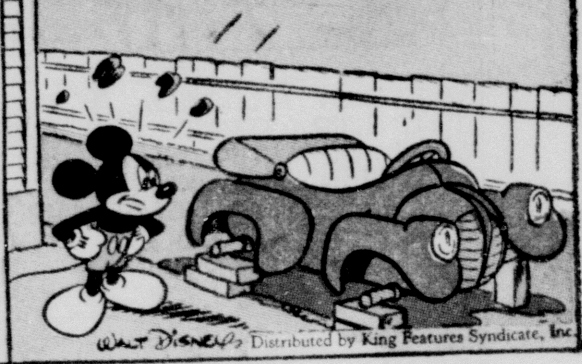

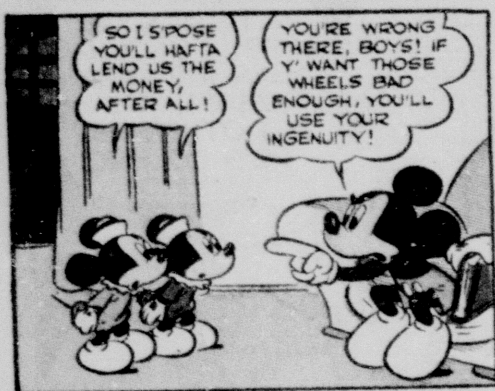

LOOK, MAMA! HE BURROWED ALL DER VAY INTO DER BOG!

HE MUST HAF YORKED FAST, ONLY HE SHOULD HAF LOOKED VARE HE WAS GOING!

UND DER NEXT TIME YOU GO BURROWING AROUND LIKE A GOPHER YOU SHOULD BURROW AWAY FROM DER BOG UND NOT IN IT! DUMBKOPF!

ISS YOU NUTTY? LEAF ME DOWN!

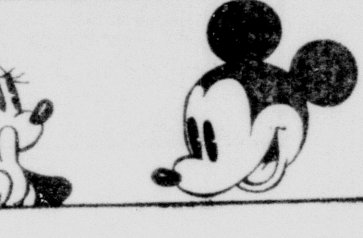

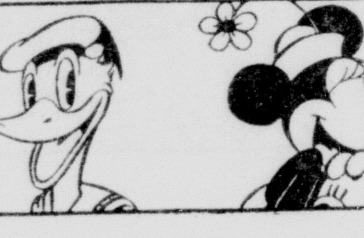

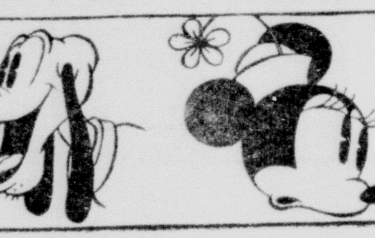

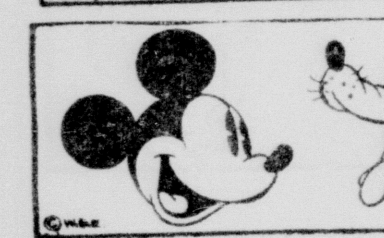

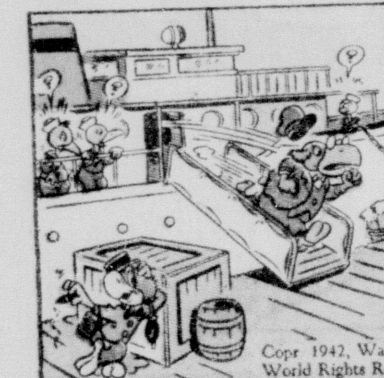

11-22

11-22

11-22

11-22

11-22

11-22

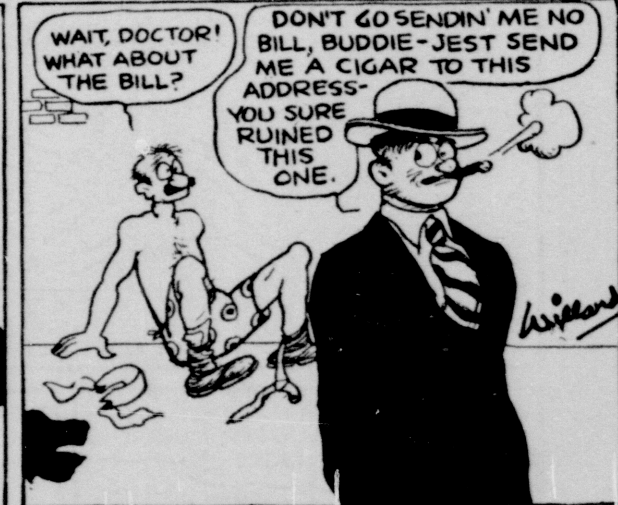

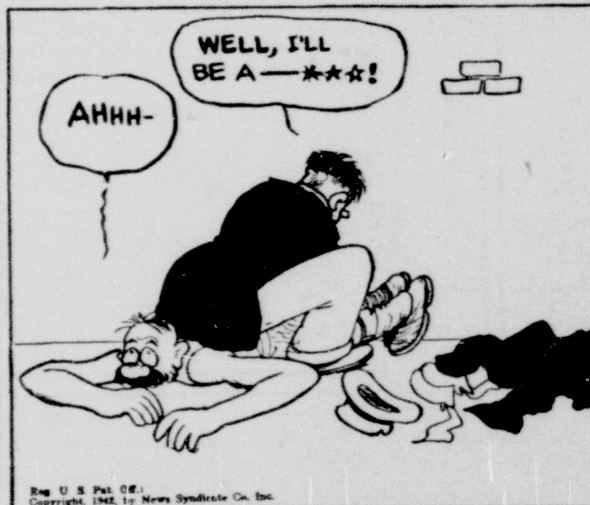

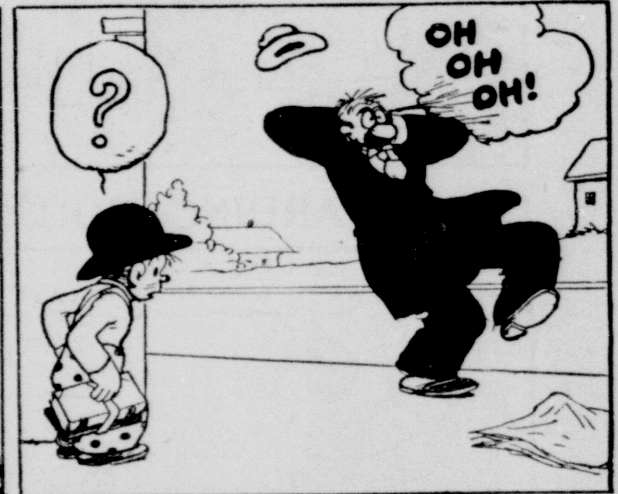

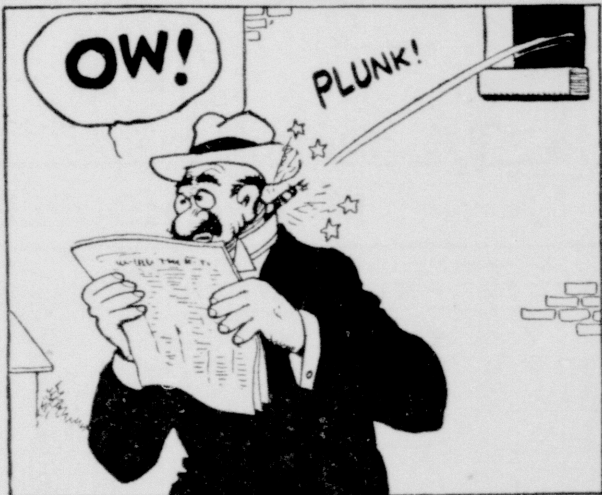

11-22

11-22

MOON MULLINS

by Frank Willard

KITTY HIGGINS

THE GUMPS

GEE, COUSIN JUNIPER—YOU KNOW EVERYTHING ABOUT EVERYTHING!

WHY NOT? NO ONE CAN DENY THAT WE GUMPS WERE RIGHT UP THERE IN THE FRONT ROW WHEN BRAINS WERE GIVEN OUT!!

GUS EDSON

AND FURTHERMORE, I'VE KNOCKED AROUND IN JUST ABOUT EVERY CORNER OF THE GLOBE—A ROLLING STONE GATHERS NO MOSS, BUT IT DOES GET A LOT OF POLISH!

GOSH—I'LL BET YOU SAW A LOT OF WITCHCRAFT IN AFRICA!

THAT I DID—ALL SAVAGES BELIEVE IN SORCERY—

BUT BELIEF IN BLACK MAGIC IS NEARLY AS WIDESPREAD AMONG THE MORE CIVILIZED PEOPLES—TELL ME ABOUT SOME OF THEM, COUSIN JUNIPER!

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.
Copyright, 1942, by The Chicago Tribune.

WELL, MANY PEOPLE BELIEVE IN THE HYPNOTIC, OR "EVIL" EYE—IF ANY OF THESE SUPERSTITIOUS FOLK SEE ANYONE STARING INTENTLY AT THEM THEY QUICKLY RUB A PIECE OF METAL—A KEY OR A KNIFE—

THE METAL BREAKS THE SPELL OF THE "EVIL" EYE—

I DON'T SEE HOW THAT CAN DO IT—

IT'S ALL IN THE MIND, LAD—IF THEY DIDN'T USE THE PIECE OF METAL, THEY'D BELIEVE SO STRONGLY THAT THE "EVIL" EYE WOULD MAKE THEM SICK THAT IT REALLY WOULD!!

YOU DON'T BELIEVE IN THAT STUFF, DO YOU, JUNIPER?

ME? OF COURSE NOT!!! HA-HA!

ATTABOY, COUSIN JUNIPER! YOU WALKED RIGHT UNDER THAT LADDER!

WHEW! I—D—DIDN'T NOTICE THAT L-L-LADDER!!

AVAST!! A BLACK CAT CROSSING OUR PATH! GET BACK, YOU SWAB!

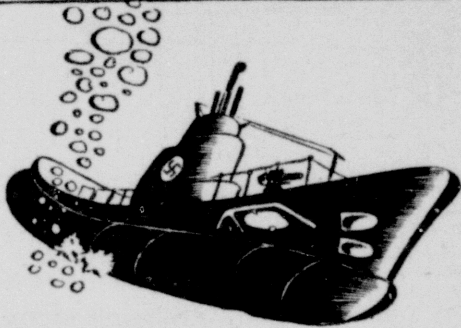

BACK, SWAB—BACK!!

THAT BLACK CAT SURE PUT A SPELL ON YOU, DIDN'T HE, COUSIN JUNIPER?

SYNOPSIS

JACK WAS FAMILIAR WITH THE INTRICATE U-BOAT MOTORS (THE DESIGN HAVING BEEN STOLEN FROM AN AMERICAN FACTORY THAT JACK INHERITED FROM HIS LATE WIFE, JOY) BUT HE REFUSED TO REPAIR THEM

IN ORDER TO RID THE WORLD OF A WHOLE SUBMARINE FULL OF AXIS RATS JACK AND CINDY DECIDED TO DROWN WITH THEM---

BUT AS JACK SAW CINDY SLOWLY STRANGLING ON THE ESCAPING GASSES CREATED BY SALT WATER LEAKING INTO THE BATTERY CELLS, HE COULDN'T GO THROUGH WITH IT---

BESIDES, JACK REASONED THAT, SINCE HIS JOB WAS TO TRAP THE BIG BOSS, BARON MONGSOON, HE SHOULD CONTINUE TRYING-----

AFTER HE REPAIRED THE MOTORS AND THE COMPRESSED AIR MECHANISM, THE SUB SURFACED AND COMMANDER HERR SCHTINKER LIMPED THE CRIPPLED U-BOAT TO AN AXIS TENDER, WHICH IS NOW TOWING IT TO A SECRET SUB BASE----

ABOARD THE TENDER JACK IS CONFRONTED BY AN OLD ACQUAINTANCE--

SMILIN' JACK

SMILIN' JACK MARTIN--FANCY SEEING YOU HERE--

ADOLPH WISEPANTZ!

YOU'RE ONE OF TH' PILOTS THAT MADE TRANS ATLANTIC SURVEY FLIGHTS IN THOSE DIESEL-POWERED SEAPLANES IN TH' SUMMER OF 1937--

SURE - REMEMBER THE BIG PARTY WE HAD AFTER WE LANDED IN LONG ISLAND SOUND----

YOU WERE A MEMBER OF TH' FLYING CLUB THAT ENTERTAINED US----

YES--WHAT SAPS WE GULLIBLE, EASY-GOING AMERICANS WERE IN THOSE DAYS! BUT HAD WE KNOWN THEN WHAT WE'VE LEARNED SINCE----

--THERE'S NO DOUBT NOW--YOUR TRANS ATLANTIC PIONEERING FLIGHTS WERE PRIMARILY MILITARY EXPERIMENTS--

HA-HA, WHEN I THINK OF HOW YOU DOPES WELCOMED US AN' ALL THE TIME WE WERE PLANNING HOW TO ATTACK AMERICA--

YOU KNOW HOW WE USED TO CATAPULT OUR "GOOD-WILL" SEAPLANES OFF TENDERS AND FLY THEM TO YOUR SHORES---

YES--THIS LOOKS A LOT LIKE THE SAME TYPE OF PLANE--

RIGHT--AND AS SOON AS WE'VE FINISHED LOADING IT--IT WILL BE CATAPULTED OFF THE SAME OLD WAY--

ONLY THIS TIME, CHUM, INSTEAD OF A LOAD OF GREETING CARDS OUR TOKENS OF "GOOD WILL" WILL BE A LOAD OF DEMOLITION BOMBS---

WON'T YOUR SLEEPY-HEADED FRIENDS BE SURPRISED!

LISTEN, WISEPANTZ, YOU'VE A SURPRISE COMING, TOO-- AMERICA IS AWAKE NOW--THIS TIME YOU'LL BE ENTERTAINED WITH BULLETS INSTEAD OF BOTTLES!

NOV 22

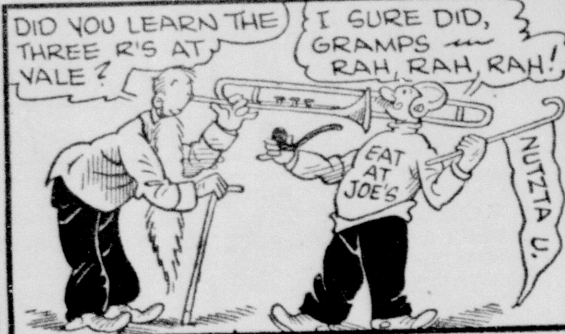

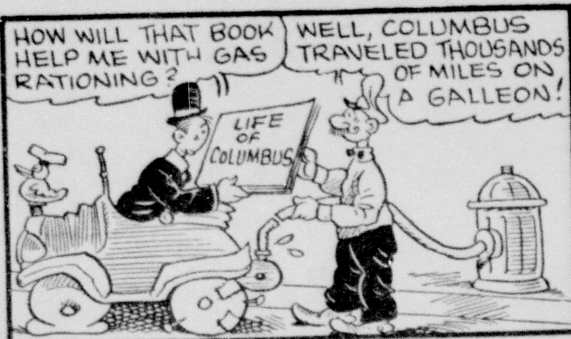

U.S. Pat. Off. Copyright, 1942, by News Syndicate Co. Inc.

ENROLL IN THE PAYROLL SAVINGS PLAN FOR REGULAR PURCHASE OF

WAR BONDS

TOP THAT 10% BY NEW YEAR'S

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

MAJOR HOOPLE

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

JOE PALOOKA

by HAM FISHER.

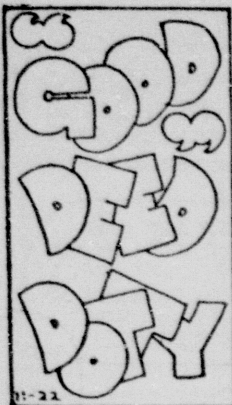

McNaught Syndicate, Inc.

HAM FISHER

DIXIE DUGAN

McNaught Syndicate, Inc.

By J. P. McEVOY and J. H. STRIEBEL

FLASH GORDON

BY ALEX RAYMOND

Registered U. S. Patent Office

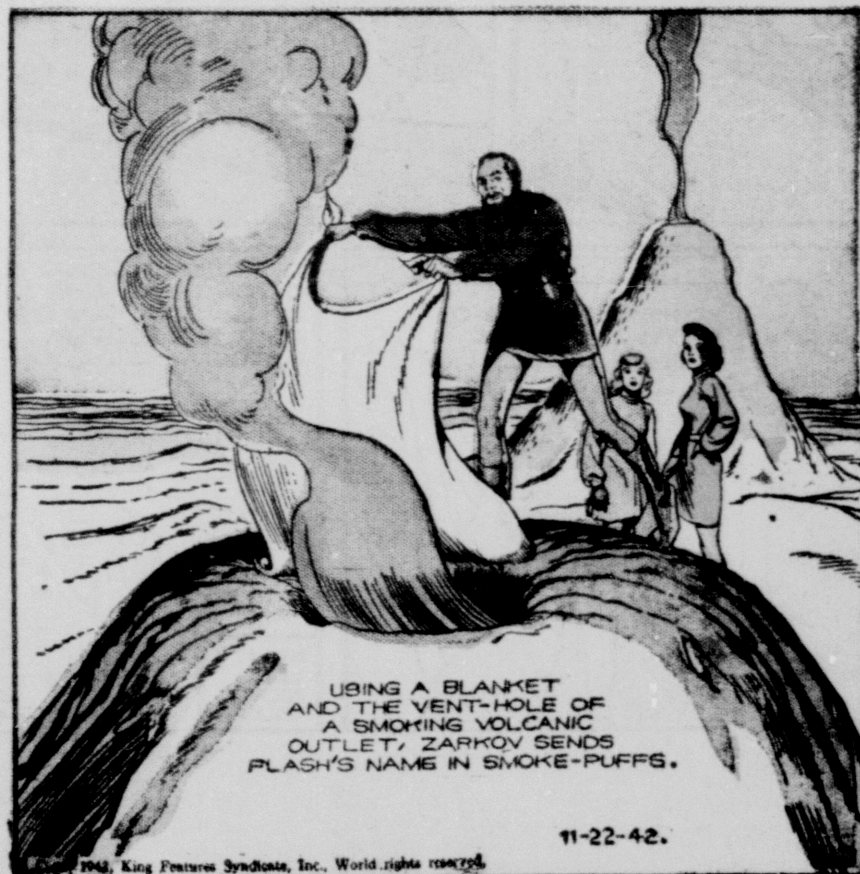

FLASH'S MAN-MADE AVALANCHE HAS KNOCKED OUT TWO OF BRAZOR'S SCOUT CARS. THE REMAINING CARS FOLLOW FLASH'S TRAIL TO THE EDGE OF THE FLAMING DESERT, WHERE BRAZOR CALLS A HALT: "LET THE DESERT TAKE CARE OF THEM." HE GROWLS: "WE'LL GO BACK AND GUARD EVERY PASS TO CATCH THEM IF THEY SURVIVE THIS LAND OF HORROR!"

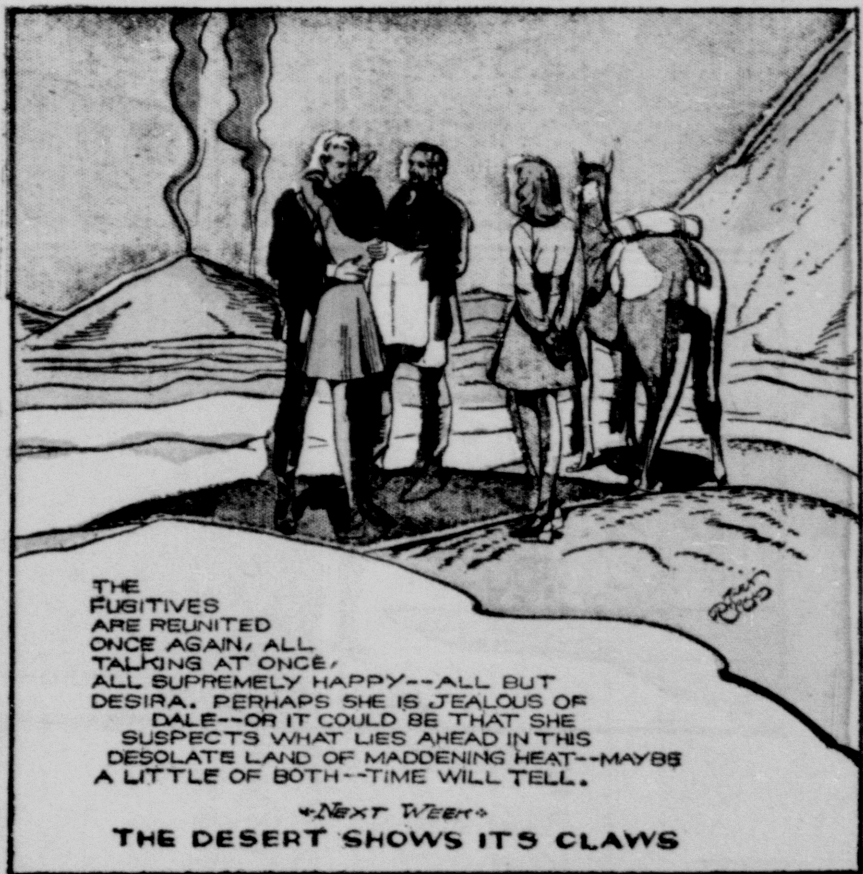

OUT IN THE DESERT, FLASH PULLS HIS STOUT-HEARTED GRYPH TO A HALT AND ANXIOUSLY SCANS THE HORIZON: "DALE, ZARKOV AND DESIRA PROMISED TO WAIT FOR ME AFTER AN HOUR'S RIDE--BUT THERE'S NO SIGN OF THEM--"

THEN FLASH RISES IN HIS STIRRUPS, AS HIS KEEN EYES PICK UP A DISTANT SIGNAL: "DOT, DOT, DASH, DOT--WHY OF COURSE," HE SMILES, "THAT'S THE MORSE CODE FOR 'F'-- TRUST OLD ZARKOV TO USE HIS HEAD!"

USING A BLANKET AND THE VENT-HOLE OF A SMOKING VOLCANIC OUTLET, ZARKOV SENDS FLASH'S NAME IN SMOKE-PUFFS.

THE FUGITIVES ARE REUNITED ONCE AGAIN, ALL TALKING AT ONCE, ALL SUPREMELY HAPPY--ALL BUT DESIRA. PERHAPS SHE IS JEALOUS OF DALE--OR IT COULD BE THAT SHE SUSPECTS WHAT LIES AHEAD IN THIS DESOLATE LAND OF MADDENING HEAT--MAYBE A LITTLE OF BOTH--TIME WILL TELL.

«NEXT WEEK»

THE DESERT SHOWS ITS CLAWS

11-22-42.

BLONDIE

by
CHIC YOUNG

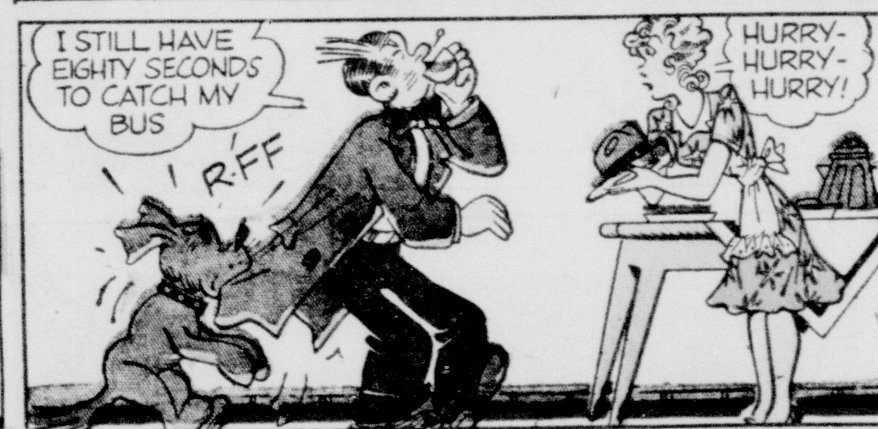

Registered U. S. Patent Office

DAGWOOD, WAKE UP, DAISY'S TRYING TO TELL US THE ALARM CLOCK DIDN'T GO OFF AND YOU'LL BE LATE FOR WORK

ARF

ARF

GET ALEXANDER UP, QUICK, DAISY, OR HE'LL BE LATE FOR SCHOOL!

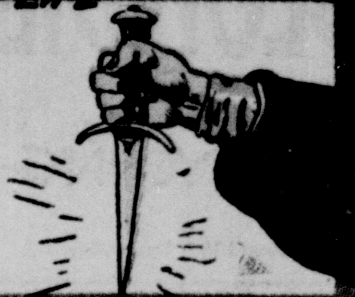

Copyright 1942, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved

CHIC YOUNG

Tarzan

by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

THAT NIGHT TARZAN WAS HONORED AT A FEAST WHERE THE TRIBESMEN PLANNED TO DO AWAY WITH HIM.

CARTHOUSLY AN ELDER POURED A POTENT DRUG IN A DRINK AND HANDED IT TO TARZAN.

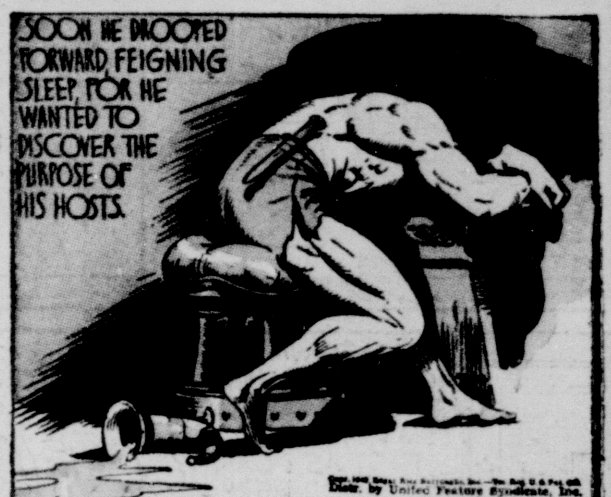

HE SAW THE ELDER'S EYES REFLECTED IN HIS MIND, BUT HE DID NOT SPEAK.

AFTER THE PORTION WAS SET BEFORE HIM, TARZAN SLICELY TOSSED A DISH INTO A TREE BEHIND HIM.

HE SAW THE ELDER'S EYES REFLECTED IN HIS MIND, BUT HE DID NOT SPEAK.

SOON HE DROOPEY FORWARD, FEIGNING SLEEP, FOR HE WANTED TO DISCOVER THE PURPOSE OF HIS HOSTS.

CAREFULLY THE INTENDED VICTIM WAS TRANSFERRED TO A THRONE OF HONOR.

THEN THE TRIBAL WIZARD DREW A LONG KNIFE, AND SPOKE SOLEMNLY: "O MIGHTY TARZAN--"

THE WIZARD DREW A LONG KNIFE, AND SPOKE SOLEMNLY: "O MIGHTY TARZAN--"

TARZAN WAS UNPERTURBED; IT WOULD BE EASY TO DISARM THE WIZARD AT THE PROPER TIME.

—HOGARTH—

Gil
11-22-42

THEN SOMETHING HAPPENED THAT TARZAN HAD NOT COUNTED ON. THE WIZARD CALLED OUT, "LET FALL THE SACRED SIEATH," AND FROM THE DARKNESS ABOVE A WEB OF ROPE DROPPED DOWN TO ENMESH THE JUNGLE LORD. NEXT WEEK: NET OF DEATH.

LI'L ABNER

by AL CAPP

Advice fo' Chillun

SO IT'S YOU, BIG BARNEY! I'VE LOOKED FORWARD TO DIS-MEMBERING YOU FOR 30 YEARS!

WELL, WELL! - IF IT ISN'T 'RUNT' ROBINSON! - ER-HEH, HEH- (GROWL)

DON'T PICK ON FELLAS WHO ARE SMALLER - CHANCES ARE, THEY'LL GROW MUCH TALLER ....

SENT IN BY DICK JONES, OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA.

OH, HAPPY DAY! - TH' TRAIN'S ARRIVIN' WIF THET PACKAGE O' CIGARETTE PAPERS FO' ME - AN' ALSO LI'L ABNER'S COMICAL PAPERS, NAMELY "FEARLESS FOSDICK", WHO IS HIS IDEEL!!

HYAR'S TH' COMICAL PAPERS - BUT YO' CIGARETTE PAPERS DIDN'T ARRIVE!!

THEY DIDN'T? OH- (SOB!!)

(SOB!!) - ALL WEEK AH BIN PININ' T'ROLL ME, A CORN-SILK CIGARETTE - SECRETLY, BEHIND TH' WOODSHED!! -

(-BRR! - THEM COMICAL PAPERS DONT MAKE VERY TASTY CIGARETTES!) HYAR'S YO' COMICAL PAPERS, SON!!

LATER

OH, BOY! - NOW AH KIN SEE WHUT-

-HAPPENED T' TH' IDEEL OF ALL US RED-BLOODED AMERICAN BOYS - "FEARLESS FOSDICK" TH' MAN NO CRIM'NUL KIN OUTWIT!

FEARLESS

PUT 'EM UP, FEARLESS FOSDICK! - WE'VE OUTWITTED YOUSE AGAIN!!

DERE WONT BE NO EX-CAPE FOR YOUSE DIS TIME! DERE'S NO HELP AROUN' FOR A TOUSAN' MILES!

WE GOT ENUFF HIGH EXPLOSIVES STRAPPED T' YOUSE, T' BLOW UP A BATTLESHIP!!

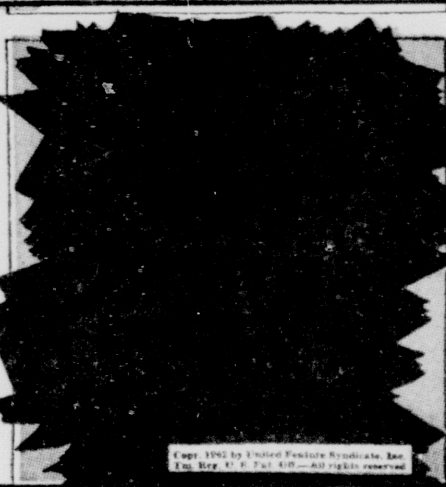

WE PUTS A BOMB IN YER LAP!!

AN' SOAKS YOUSE WIT' KEROSENE!!

HAVE A LIGHT, PAL!!

HAW!! HAW!! DIS'LL KEEP YOUSE WARM!!

NO POWER ON EARTH KIN SAVE YOUSE NOW, FEARLESS FOSDICK!!

HO-HUM! - GETTING OUT OF THAT ONE WAS EASY!!

TH' P-PITCHER WHAR HE GOT OUTA TH' MESS IS M-MISSIN'!! OH, HOW DID FEARLESS FOSDICK GIT OUTA IT - HOW?

HOW? - SEE NEXT WEEK -

AL CAPP